

Wizard 2631

Chapter 2631: Crimson Emperor Reaches Level 9, Ascends the Throne, Becomes Heavenly Master of the Six Holy Heavens!

The Amethyst Saint showed a hint of expectation in his eyes.

If only this troublesome fellow would fall directly in this calamity.

Only the Dark Sun Sovereign remained silent, seemingly without any hope.

...

An indescribable river of time surged into view.

The waters parted, faintly revealing the Time Castle at its center.

A giant dragon exuding the aura of ages, with eyes full of wisdom, observed the changes occurring on the Ancient Dragon Continent with interest from an observer's perspective.

It seemed inspired and began writing:

[On this page of the Age History Book, there appear some unexpected yet logical variables. These are the result of multiple factors. The ultimate direction, at the writer's current realm, is difficult to foresee.

However, as Mr. Edmund said, before the story ends, any ending can be rewritten. On the parchment woven by space-time, the every move of all beings influences its final direction.]

...

Time passed by second by second.

Half a day later, Levi had already climbed to the top of the flesh staircase.

His veins were popping, and his blood vessels burst.

The whole person had become a figure covered in blood.

Suddenly.

A sense of danger flashed in his mind.

A Level 9 Fish Demon broke through the void and came at him.

Levi ignored it and continued climbing.

Boom!

A towering pillar of red flames descended from the sky.

In an instant, the body of a Level 9 Demon turned to nothingness.

Minotaur Moss, riding a skeletal warhorse, hooked its soul with chains.

It turned to look at the bloody figure of Levi, silently saying in its heart:

"Good luck, buddy..."

On the Sorren Continent.

A slightly aged figure stood atop the Tower of Heaven.

Billions of fiery clouds appeared out of nowhere, with colossal entities faintly roaming within.

"Roar!"

The fiery clouds converged into an antlered eagle-eyed figure, resembling the Red Flame Body of the Huaxia Divine Dragon, encircling the Sorren Continent, exuding unspeakable majesty and dominance, with a mysterious golden character blazing at its forehead's center:

[Dragon]!

Ranked 5th on the Wizards Ranking of this era - Dragon of the World!

The Dragon Flame God Lehger leapt onto the dragon's head.

He looked towards the endless deep space.

As if seeing towering figures filled with demonic aura.

"Come, Surgard, let me see where my limits are!"

He entwined his hand with red flames, gently touching the crystal ball before him.

As if touching... the entire world!

Four phantom-like Red Flame Divine Dragons roared into the clouded sky.

At the same time, all over Nora, across the lands and seas.

Four heaven-reaching Dragon Flame pillars illuminated the heavens and the earth.

Level 9 Demons attempting to take advantage of the chaos to attack other places met their demise.

In the sky, a vague giant flaming face gazed distantly at the Sorren Continent.

"Dragon Flame God, is it? Seems like anyone associated with dragons is quite formidable in this era... That mysterious character that led you to ascension was bestowed by Sauron, wasn't it? I wonder, after this battle, how much of your lifespan remains?"

The giant face slowly dissipated, leaving only Surgard's cold and ruthless voice echoing.

"Abyss Treasure will be rewarded to whoever slays the Dusk Palace Master!"

In an instant, more figures surged towards the Outer Sea.

Fortune favors the bold.

With the supreme treasure ahead, just do it! .

Duke Rumon looked at the blood-covered figure still climbing the stairs.

"Only one step left? Dusk Squad, move out."

He swallowed the cigar into his stomach, extinguishing it.

Then waved flames with his left hand and pulled mountains with his right, soaring skyward.

Numerous ninth-circle auras erupted instantly on the Ancient Dragon Continent!

Star Furnace, Frost Sky Floating World, Star Nebula Storm...

An awe-inspiring display of wizard forms stood between heaven and earth, illuminating each other.

Because of Surgard, this madman's participation.

Levi's ascension inevitably triggered a considerable war.

Not just Level 9s.

Even a large number of Level 8 Demons led battle groups, swarming towards Nora.

A significant portion headed for the Ancient Dragon Continent.

The Sky Dome System's light shone, and the Demon Extermination Shuttle roared and traversed the skies.

Star Castles erupted with blue flames, soaring from the earth.

Black-armored Warriors formed patrol squads in the skies.

A thousand days of military preparation, used in a moment's need.

Over a hundred forces above Level 6 joined the battlefield from all major organizations.

The 18 Twilight Cavalry among them, veterans.

Many geniuses from the new generation also joined.

Battle groups composed of Extreme Warriors formed a steel torrent.

As the void shattered, the Star Castle Travel Group, just returned from a long journey, without a chance for rest, drew their longswords, grasping talismans, descended with killing intent like heavenly soldiers!

At the same time, four terrifying Level 9 Dragon Powers soared into the sky.

They stood guard at the four directions of the Ancient Dragon Continent, their gazes icy.

On the flesh staircase.

Levi's eyes were firm, each step a footprint.

With each step he climbed, his momentum increased.

From a Level 8 Peak, infinitely close to Level 9.

The staircase behind him crumbled with his tread.

He had no retreat, only the way forward!

All around him, fierce battles erupted.

Occasionally, a demon lord would intrude into his Calamity Domain.

Only to be burned by red flames, turning to ash.

Only Levels 7 and 8 could draw a little closer.

But only just.

They were trying to increase the difficulty of Levi's calamity.

To indirectly bring about Levi's downfall.

Under overwhelming pressure, Levi seemed to transform into a mass of writhing flesh.

As it turned out, without his hexagonal defense attributes.

The strength of this beyond Mythical level breathing technique calamity.

Even with his genius, he would likely face nine deaths and one life.

After the universe's birth.

Throughout the ages, Level 10 beings may number in the tens of thousands across the Multidimensional Plane.

But Level 11 beings are few and far between.

Chapter 2632: Crimson Emperor Reaches Level 9, Ascends the Throne, Becomes Heavenly Master of the Six Holy Heavens!

It seems that this Multidimensional Plane is extremely resistant to the emergence of such high-level existences.

Finally, Levi arrived before the red copper gate.

Beside him, a trace of purple ghostly light and a dagger appeared.

The two assassins from the Council of Ten Thousand Clans moved.

Levi glanced from the corner of his eye, and his figure exploded with a boom.

In the midst of two shocked cries.

He reshaped his form and kicked the gate.

Crack! The gate cracked open slightly.

An enchanted shadow dagger with a demonic aura stabbed toward him again.

The Shadow Swordsman Mage also took action.

Boom! A pillar of Dragon Flames that reached the heavens grazed Levi's shoulder as it passed, knocking him down.

A stream of light shot out.

That Margo seemed to have some sort of trump card and surprisingly didn't die.

He merely sustained serious injuries and fled.

Of course, Levi couldn't care less about this now.

He kicked the red copper door again, stepping inside.

"Level 9, here I come!"

At this moment, from the outside world, his figure completely vanished.

It seemed to merge with the endless red clouds.

The eyes that assassinated the Dusk Palace Master were all confused.

Because they could no longer sense Levi's presence.

At the same time, the many gazes focused on Levi's Tribulation.

Were also somewhat puzzled and worried.

They didn't know if Levi succeeded.

...

In the red world.

Levi was gasping for breath.

The many abilities of the Crimson Emperor Dragon had completely merged before.

His bloodline had also achieved complete ascension.

In front of him stood an imposing divine palace towering at the world's center.

Its appearance was identical to the divine palace within Levi.

A statue of a Crimson Emperor Dragon stood in the square in front of the palace.

Lava, flames, volcanoes... scenes of world destruction manifested.

Levi, like a solitary monarch, silently passed through.

During this time, shadows of the Legendary giant beasts he had previously refined appeared.

Black Whale, Frost Giant, Saint Ape... Red Lotus Dragon.

Evidently, the Heavenly Ascension Ladder was the first trial.

Entering here was the second Blood Tribulation Master trial.

But in front of Levi, who was like a Great Sun, all were smashed with a single punch.

His gaze was firm, his steps unhurried and steady.

He was waiting for the Dark Tribulation.

But it didn't descend as imagined.

Or rather, it had already descended. .

In the outside world... that instant outbreak of the demon war, was the calamity!

No matter what, he had already passed the level 9 tribulation.

He pushed open the hall's door, looking at the empty throne ahead.

His excited yet weary heart finally had a place to rest.

This is his world, this is his throne.

He is the only one who can see the red world.

Also the sole monarch of this land.

This is a mysterious place only level 9 knights can access.

[Six Holy Heavens]!

More precisely, it is one of its realms, [Destruction Heaven]!

The one who climbs the heavenly ladder and ascends the throne.

Is a being capable of bringing the true apocalypse to the world... the Destruction Sky Lord!

Levi strode to the front of the throne and sat on it self-assuredly.

The Death Ember Dragon Power repaired his broken body.

The Sky King Dragon Power restored his depleted energy.

The breathing techniques performed their respective duties.

And from the Supreme [Destruction Heaven], the [Strength]

was continuously channeled into his body through the throne.

His momentum began to stabilize at level 9.

The strength within him grew stronger and stronger.

He had a feeling.

Now, he could shatter a Golden Walker with a single punch.

Yes, in the literal sense... a single punch!

But these iron fists will find true enemies to bear them!

No matter how tense the outside world, he slightly closed his eyes.

His breathing became steady, falling into a deep slumber.

He was too tired.

He needed a good rest on the throne.

A few minutes will do.

When he awakens.

All who obstruct his ascension to level 9...

Will perish!

Chapter 2633: Holy Sanctuary Knight, Mythical Advent, Moment of Destruction!

The Six Holy Heavens do not actually exist.

It is the "realm" that a knight will inevitably see upon reaching level 9.

What is a "realm"?

Possessing different layers of power, being at different levels of status,

One can see the unique "environment" and "world" belonging to this layer.

The Six Holy Heavens are such a place.

Of course, this is the name Levi himself chose.

If another level 9 knight were the first to reach this realm,

They might choose a name with a different style.

According to Levi's categorization,

The Six Holy Heavens are:

Destruction Heaven, Vajra Heaven, Invisible Heaven, Undying Heaven, Indomitable Heaven, No Hidden Heaven!

These represent the level 9 realms of the six dimensions.

After stepping into the Six Holy Heavens, a knight has truly achieved metamorphosis.

This is not simply about becoming stronger.

It is an ascension in the level of life.

From human to demigod, from transcendent to legendary.

Therefore, Levi says,

After entering this gate, he is no longer a human in the conventional sense.

A level 9 knight begins to transform into those mythical legendary creatures.

If the evolution of the bloodline in this realm reaches this level,

It can be called "Ancestral Return."

Take Emperor Mu's Holy Ape bloodline, for example.

Upon reaching level 9, he is at the life level, but there's some difference, a "Holy Giant Ape,"

After all, he cultivated it as an acquired skill and was not born innately,

So compared to the original Holy Giant Ape, each has its unique strengths.

A knight's lifespan is not as long as a giant ape, but growth is rapid.

The giant ape likely cannot see the Six Holy Heavens.

Although they possess great power,

It is innate.

Without cultivation, there is no process of exploration and discovery.

They know the reason but not the why.

However, if it is a self-created breathing technique,

Like Levi's Crimson Emperor Dragon reaching level 9,

Then it cannot be called "Ancestral Return."

It's "Evolution."

Because his path is not yet finished.

There is still a long way to go before becoming a true Crimson Emperor Dragon.

But regardless,

From now on, Levi has shed his mortal body.

And, unlike the spiritual force cultivation of a wizard,

After level 9, a knight's bloodline is strong enough to influence descendants.

If Levi has offspring,

Then his child will undoubtedly be "Innate Transcendents" upon birth.

Just like many alien races, born extraordinary.

Even similar to pure-blood dragon clan cubs.

Born with rank five strength.

But this does not come without a price.

Because the bloodline is too strong,

It will have reproduction issues similar to the pure-blood Dragon Clan.

In short, the Creator is fair.

But Levi is not worried.

Firstly, he currently has no plans to have children.

Secondly, he has the Lovers Rune that enhances reproductive ability.

As long as he engages in dual cultivation with Elena often,

If he truly wants children, it's not a problem.

In the Destruction Divine Palace.

Levi wakes from his dream.

Fatigue is swept away, and he rises from the throne.

He steps onto the square, looking up to the heavens.

In the crimson world, it seems there's another layer of crimson world.

Further up, there is...

"The complete Six Holy Heavens are ten layers, each layer with an invisible force of sealing constraint, and when one shatters a layer, they can advance further, mastering the power of that layer. For the Crimson Emperor Dragon, it's one layer of 'Power Rules,' plus one layer of 'Fire Domain.' The combination of the two is the complete 'Destruction Sanctuary.'

This is similar to the force of Demon Domain inevitably comprehended after level 9 for demons. Thus, the first three layers of the Sacred Realm correspond to level 9 early stage; the middle three layers correspond to level 9 middle stage; the last three layers correspond to level 9 late stage, and the tenth layer naturally corresponds to peak level 9."

The 'Destruction Sanctuary' is the fundamental power Levi holds after level 9.

It integrates many previous intricate wizard methods.

From this point forward, purely relying on the 'Destruction Sanctuary.'

Levi can exercise all the powers of the Crimson Emperor Dragon he has mastered along the way.

Including Bloodline Dharma Idol, Blood Source Armor, and even Secret Word.

Therefore, the Red Emperor Domain he used the most also becomes a thing of the past.

Henceforth, only the Sacred Realm needs to unfold.

He opens the proficiency panel.

Levi -----

Crimson Emperor Dragon Breathing Technique: Twenty-first Rank (1/50 million), Special Effect: Red Emperor Dragon Body Supreme (level 9 early stage); Exclusive Weapon: Crimson Dragon Slash (level 9); Bloodline Divine Patterns: 54/81; Heavenly Sovereign Authority: Destruction Sanctuary (First Layer).

...

This is the newly refreshed Crimson Emperor Dragon Breathing Technique panel.

It's far more streamlined than before.

All those previous abilities, including the elemental affinity enhancement, are still present.

However, they are embraced within the omnipotent Sacred Realm.

Starting from level 9, Levi's insight into those abilities already points directly to their essence.

For the Crimson Emperor Dragon,

Thousands of spells, tens of thousands of wizards.

Ultimately, it boils down to the word "Destruction."

Furthermore,

The rating behind the Red Emperor Dragon Body is no longer a question mark.

It's 'Supreme.'

This is a realm beyond the 'Mythical level.'

With Levi's current knowledge and perspective,

Those who have reached the Supreme level are few and far between.

They are beings who have left significant marks along the river of time.

The Supreme beings have reached the true absolute peak of the Multidimensional Plane.

Of course, there should also be power differences among them.

Otherwise, Sauron at level 11 would have cleared the Multidimensional Plane by now.

As for beyond Supreme...

At Levi's current stage, he can't imagine.

That should be the strongest realm he is pursuing.

People often say cultivation is limitless.

Yet merely progressing from level 10 to level 11 stumps countless Star Realm True Gods, Abyss Demons, Nightmare Monarchs, Legendary Wizards... Wanting to reach beyond Supreme, the difficulty is imaginable.

As for 'Heavenly Sovereign Authority,' it's also named by Levi.

Chapter 2634: Holy Sanctuary Knight, Mythical Advent, Moment of Destruction!

Similar to the Demon Domain, or the God's Authority of the Heavenly Father and so on.

"The ninth-circle is referred to as the Grand Wizard... then the ninth-level knight must also have a resounding name. Since it centers around the Holy Domain, let's call it 'Holy Sanctuary Knight'."

The Holy Sanctuary Knight's realms are divided based on the number of Holy Domain levels comprehended.

It can be categorized into four grades: Lower, Mid-level, High-level, and Peak.

This perfectly corresponds with the four minor realms in the common standard.

Of course, if calculated in terms of wizards.

High-level and Peak both belong to "Nine Rings Perfect".

After adapting to level-9 strength within the Destruction Heaven.

Levi's figure began to turn illusory, exiting the Six Holy Heavenly Realms.

He awakened, now is the moment of destruction!

...

Nora.

As time ticks by, second by second.

Blood Battle Command Center.

One by one, the figures of Grand Wizards disappeared from the teleportation portal.

Including the Golden Walker.

They will embark once more on that journey where they might fall.

Surgard defies convention; everyone originally thought the second wave of full-scale war would begin on the day the Nora Council officially convened.

But to the surprise of many, leveraging the catalyst of the Dusk Palace Master's promotion, the Second Nora War began abruptly without warning.

Supreme Council.

Edmund gazed at everything before him.

"Surgard truly is an All Realm Destroyer... not yet level-10, yet dares to join the Nora Blood Battle, seems quite confident in himself. The assassination plan painstakingly devised by the demons and the Council of Ten Thousand Clans has failed. They cannot let go of their lofty heads, the pampered comforts from their long lifespans prevent them from putting life and death aside. This old and decaying world indeed needs reconstruction... but, did Levi survive his Level 9 Catastrophe this time? He seems to have entered a bizarre dimension."

...

Ancient Dragon Continent.

Somewhere in the void.

The Frost Witch looked up at who-knows-where.

Her ears filled with the sounds of fierce battle below.

However, she did not make a move, but waited.

"I hope you return successfully."

...

Blood Battle Command Center.

Lucy threw herself into the current great battle.

She was most proficient at divination and command.

So she took charge of the unified dispatch of Ninth-Circle Wizards.

Her gaze wandered to the distant Ancient Dragon Continent.

A tinge of worry brewed in her heart.

"Did it succeed?"

She calculated numerous demon movements and action trajectories.

Yet she couldn't calculate whether Levi had reached level 9.

However, she believes in Levi.

He will not let himself nor anyone else down.

...

In the land of Nora.

War flames and smoke filled the air.

The Dragon of the World encircled the Sorren Continent.

Under Surgard's frenzied attack.

In a short time, remarkably, over ten level 9 demons had fallen.

The Dragon Flame God looked normal yet felt somewhat tired inside...

His strength had improved significantly since the Blood Battle began a thousand years ago.

But far from keeping up with Nora's swelling pace.

In today's massive Nora, achieving an all-map strike is difficult.

Even with the blessing of treasures before him, it was growing increasingly taxing.

When he achieved legendary status, he received a letter from Sauron.

Within, one character was particularly special: 「J」.

This character seemed to merge endless knowledge and power.

The Dragon Flame God refined it into his wizard form.

Initially, his wizard form was named "Dragon of Destruction".

Later, it metamorphosed into "Dragon of the World".

Sauron said: 「」 is not a truly existing entity.

It is a spiritual symbol, a symbol of inheritance.

There is a group of people who consider themselves the descendants of the dragon.

Thus enduring countless hardships without perishing.

Despite potential changes of dynasty, the dragon totem never altered.

Sauron said human lifespans are too short.

a thousand years is too long; one must seize the moment.

Humans possess unparalleled creativity.

Fighting against heaven, against earth, it's endlessly thrilling.

Excluding the obscure Antiquity Age.

The wizard civilization has evolved for three hundred thousand years, achieving achievements ancient, antiquity, and near-ancient epochs never accomplished. ~~can~~

In the Multidimensional Plane, short lifespan is humanity's restrictor.

Yet it's also the driving force for such rapid transformations.

Constrained, they seek change.

The innately powerful longevity species.

Seeing the short-lived species come and go, only feel superiority.

They adhere to ancient laws, content with their current status.

It's only the short-lived species.

Driven by the simple aim of "living longer".

They advance at a speed unimaginable to Heavenly Father and the demons.

In fact, the Underworld is also quite apprehensive of this.

That's why Sauron ventured into the Underworld to negotiate.

Relatively speaking, only the Underworld is willing to lower their standard and communicate with humans.

Sauron's True Understanding of Wizarding is one such concession made by the Underworld,

This legendary forbidden spell allows Legendary Wizards to live a second life.

Profoundly changing the structure of wizard civilization.

The Dragon Flame God was born thirteen thousand years ago in the Nora Era.

To this day, he is 14,211 years old.

He has extended his lifespan twice. .

The first time he consumed a Nine Ring Great Medicine refined from various rare sacred medicines including the Shell Mother Fruit from the Underworld, extending his life by fifteen hundred years.

The second time, he extended his life by consuming a Ten-Ring Divine Medicine refined by the Medicine God using mythical-level Heavenly Materials and Earthly Treasures like the Pine Divine Fruit, extending his life by three thousand five hundred years.

That is to say, his lifespan's upper limit is 15,000 years.

This cannot be considered short.

But wanting to survive the Blood Battle... is very difficult now.

The remaining 800 years, after this ascension, aren't much.

Ascending to level 11 is obviously impossible.

Further life extension is also increasingly difficult.

Firstly, it's hard to find Heavenly Materials and Earthly Treasures.

Secondly, life-extending medicines themselves have numerous restrictions.

For example, the effect of taking the same medicine repeatedly is virtually none.

If one has taken the Shell Mother Fruit or related medicines.

Chapter 2635: Holy Sanctuary Knight, Mythical Advent, Moment of Destruction!

Then taking it again would simply be a waste of efficacy.

Also, any life-extending elixir has a marginal diminishing effect.

The first use yields the best result.

Afterward, each use will be less effective.

Until ultimately, it becomes completely useless.

No matter what kind of elixir, it's all the same.

Dragon Flame God sighed.

Unknowingly, he too stood before Death.

He could reincarnate once more.

He was not afraid of Death.

Only the current situation of the Blood Battle.

Losing a Legendary Wizard becomes exceedingly unfavorable.

Especially when faced with a formidable enemy, never let the demons know.

So, even if he falls.

It can only happen after this battle concludes.

Edmund will continue to keep his Supreme Council seat.

The projection he left behind will occasionally appear around the world.

And the Dragon Flame Magic, this nuclear deterrent tool.

Will be passed to an upcoming Legendary Wizard from the Burning School of Thought, who is a Nine-Ring Perfect Wizard.

Striving for a seamless transition.

Suddenly, his gaze turned to the far-off Ancient Dragon Continent.

"He must be level 9 by now..."

If Dusk Palace Master is level 9.

With his strength, it's already enough to make demons frantic.

His brief exit seems to be nothing now.

It is time to prepare, to seek the second life.

...

Dark Deep Space.

Pazuzu's gaze was cold.

"Damn Surgard... I shouldn't have called him here. Now the great battle begins prematurely, the arrow's on the string, it must be released."

Behind it, fourteen powerful demon silhouettes appeared, looking toward Nora's direction.

Among them, two colossal beings were particularly eye-catching.

One was a giant dragon thousands of miles long, surrounded by a rainbow of flowing light on its surface.

It was slender, graceful, more refined than a regular giant dragon.

Rainbow Dragon, one of the Mythical level Dragon Clan.

It possesses the most extreme speed in the world.

Similar to the ultimate physical defense of the [Star-Spinning Turtle].

Called [Rainbow Light of Multi-dimensional Planes].

It can freely enter and exit the astral world.

In an instant, it can fly through paths many transcendents spend a lifetime traveling and never complete.

Unrivaled martial skills, only speed remains undefeated.

Its strength and life-preserving capabilities surpass those of the Star-Spinning Turtle.

Thus it was sent by the Succubus Queen to assist Pazuzu.

Beside the Master of Rainbows was an even larger gigantic worm.

Its form resembling a burrowing insect, its skin covered with hard scale armor.

Starlight-like dreamlike brilliance shone, transforming into countless world-ending sights.

If [Star Ring-tailed Snake] is a petty plane destroyer.

Then [Star-devouring Worm] is a super bully of the Multidimensional Plane.

It feeds on planes, occasionally devouring weak gods as a snack.

Notorious, it is known far and wide.

So it was besieged by Heavenly Father, and later fled to the Abyss.

Seeking refuge under the Succubus Queen's skirt.

Star-devouring Worm has a long lifespan, extraordinarily powerful physique.

Possesses a true Undying Body.

Blood Rebirth is merely commonplace for it.

It has more life-preserving tricks, and is sent by the Queen to trouble Legendary Wizard.

Among the remaining demons, many were familiar faces.

Also, some were new faces, all very powerful.

Pazuzu shouted loudly: "Kings of the Abyss! Follow this Demon Lord to flatten Nora!"

It led the charge, transforming into a black storm of destruction rolling forward.

Hordes of overwhelming demonic aura followed closely behind.

...

He is another Legendary Wizard from the Earth School of Thought, [Earth Saint LordRams].

Advanced later than Thousand Mountains Immortal, but his strength was equally outstanding.

His Legendary Profession is [Continent Designer].

Possesses the ability to change continents and reshape mountains and rivers.

His legendary epithet is [Saint Changing Heaven and Earth, Painter of World Designs].

His Demiplane is [Ring Land Holy Land].

"All of you, stay safe." An elegant witch with mature features and royal aura spoke.

[Wind EmpressAndrea].

One of the few witches among the fifteen seats of the Supreme Council.

If [Mist Sky Guardian] is the great shield skilled in defense from the Storm School of Thought.

Then [Wind Empress] is the unstoppable spear of the Storm School of Thought.

She is sharp and confident.

Her Legendary Profession is [Poet of the Wind].

Her Demiplane is [Wind Kingdom].

Her legendary epithet is [Poet Singing the Storm, Monarch Crowned by the Wind].

Thus, all fifteen seats of the Supreme Council were present!

Edmund nodded slightly and then stood up saying:

"Meeting adjourned... Nora is never defeated!"

The unimaginable darkness deep in space.

A terrifying battle is about to unfold.

...

Somewhere in the sea.

Luxurious golden lightning spread across the sky.

Golden light transformed into armor, golden eyes pierced through the thunder.

Golden Walker wielded the Lightning Whip that tore the sea apart.

Two Level 9 Demons were attacking him.

One Stone Statue Demon, one Flame Demon.

Chapter 2636: Holy Sanctuary Knight, Mythical Advent, Moment of Destruction!

"Damn it! Why do they keep targeting me? Do they all think I'm an easy target?"

Unfortunately, he only had a ninth-circle ordinary cultivation.

Facing two level 9 demons.

One of which was that wizard's hated Gargoyle.

Clearly, he was powerless to do anything.

"When will this blood battle ever end?"

The Golden Walker was somewhat frustrated.

He was dispatched by the congress to secretly protect a certain Supernova Linke.

This kid was just too wild.

With merely seven-ring cultivation, he wreaked havoc on the battlefield.

Then he got encircled by several level 8 demons. .

Luckily, he arrived just in time to save him.

He was already numb inside.

Twice now!

The last time he saved the Dusk Palace Master, he was surrounded by demons and found himself in a perilous situation.

This time, it was yet again for the people of the Ancient Dragon Continent.

One could say he achieved a repeat success!

Fate seemed to be mocking him.

Who could have predicted this!

Seeing Linke had already escaped danger.

The Golden Walker suddenly exploded.

He turned into countless golden thunder element particles, vanishing into the world.

"Demon Domain Symphony!"

Yet the Gargoyle and Flame Demon each manifested two layers of Demon Domain.

One was earth-yellow, the other scarlet red.

They merged, resonated, and a violent explosion reaction occurred.

Boom! An invisible shockwave swept across thousands of miles.

With a thud! A disheveled figure appeared, it was the Golden Walker.

"Bad luck, they came prepared!"

He cursed in his heart.

Even his Elemental Holy Body couldn't escape.

He underestimated these two demons.

The Gargoyle and Flame Demon charged again.

He no longer had the strength to use his wizard form.

He could only unleash the Divine Soul Artifact he painstakingly refined to fight the enemy.

This would inevitably cause severe damage to his Spiritual Origin.

In severe cases, he could fall from his realm; in mild cases, require recuperation for hundreds of years.

In short, his hope of advancing to Senior Nine Ring was becoming even more remote.

A resplendent, dazzling golden Lightning Spear materialized.

"Golden Lightning, shine on the heart of the sky!"

Before he could self-detonate the Soul Artifact, sudden changes occurred.

Buzz! Infinite scarlet clouds appeared out of thin air, stretching across thousands of miles.

In the sky dome, a crimson star seemed to be descending.

At the center of the star, that familiar black-armored swordsman silhouette sat upon the throne.

He rested his cheek on his hand, looking down with indifferent eyes, completely unemotional.

At that moment of being watched, the Golden Walker felt a sense of creeping unease.

"Is this... the Dusk Palace Master? Has he reached level 9?"

The Golden Walker was shocked.

In such extreme external circumstances, he actually succeeded in the tribulation.

"Could it be he's here for revenge?"

He didn't even need to fight; the Golden Walker already knew.

Right now, he would surely be crushed by the Dusk Palace Master.

This invincible momentum couldn't be disguised.

Given both his and Levi's status and positions.

Even if the other killed him.

The congress would certainly turn a blind eye.

Lost in random thoughts.

Both demons unexpectedly abandoned him.

They sneered as they charged at the figure in the sky.

This was someone of priceless value!

The Gargoyle smashed with its giant fist, shattering the sky for miles.

The Flame Demon clapped its hands, sweeping the Magma Demon Domain.

Levi stood up from the throne.

The Fire Domain transformed into a red flames cloak spanning three thousand miles in the air, fluttering loudly.

The Power Rules condensed into an invisible Power Field Armor, energy climbing steadily!

His fists were entangled with the Power of Six Holy Heavens known as [Destruction Sanctuary].

The Blood Battle Armor on his body buzzed and trembled, thirsting for the demons' bloodlines.

If Levi could personally eliminate ten level 9 demons, it could be unsealed into a Nine-level Treasure!

Current progress: 0/10.

Levi swung his fists to both sides!

Boom! Boom!

Two earth-shattering fist winds poured out.

They were about a hundred miles wide and three thousand miles long!

The Gargoyle's giant fist shattered piece by piece, disintegrating.

It showed an expression of disbelief and astonishment.

It dominated the dual earth Demon Domain and possessed an invincible body.

Its physical defense was first-rate among demons.

But under this punch, it felt the long-lost... despair.

Boom! The fist wind blasted it away like dead wood, its body exploded.

The Nine-colored Emperor followed up, appearing, and swung down the greatsword with both hands!

Crack! The Gargoyle completely crumbled!

"Blood Sacrifice Blood Armor!"

The Gargoyle's shattered flesh, crystal core, demon soul, blood... all materials surged into the Blood Battle Armor, bringing a sensation of comfort.

Current unseal progress: 1/10.

On the other side.

The Flame Demon saw the Gargoyle being blasted to death with a single punch, it was already terrified.

It dared not clash with Levi, turning to flee.

The fist wind tore open the sea, delving into the crust, shaking tens of thousands of miles around.

A Lightning Whip wrapped around, entangling the Gargoyle.

Finally, the stunned Golden Walker reacted and took action.

Levi recited the Invisible Secret Word, instantaneously moving beside the Flame Demon.

Another simple yet destructive punch of the Destruction Sanctuary!

The Flame Demon's Molten Armor shattered with a boom.

Levi exhaled, his form expanded to a hundred miles high.

He caught the Flame Demon's throat with one hand, revealing a cruel smile.

"I've heard you're a Fire Demon; care for a close encounter with the Sun?"

Rumble! His whole body turned scarlet, like a Burning star.

A Solar Windstorm radiating thousands of miles suddenly erupted!

The Flame Demon struggled desperately, eyes filled with terror.

As if it wasn't the demon, but the person before it was!

Its Demon Claw and Levi's crimson-scaled body clashed violently, sparking intensely.

The Crimson Emperor Dragon was not a defensive breathing technique.

But it still granted Levi the defense that brought despair to the Flame Demon.

This was the power of Super Myth!

Before long.

The Flame Demon in Levi's palm was already shattered beyond recognition by the storm.

He crushed it, blood sacrificed, to the Blood Armor.

Chapter 2637: Holy Sanctuary Knight, Mythical Advent, Moment of Destruction!

Current unlocking progress: 2/10.

Then his form returned to normal, slightly gasping for breath.

His gaze shifted away, the Golden Walker stood there, seemingly a bit at a loss.

"Thank... thank you, I've already apologized to Louise earlier, alas, greed got the better of me, I almost made a grave mistake, I..."

The Golden Walker hadn't yet finished speaking when Levi's form had already disappeared.

This made him breathe a sigh of relief, his feelings immensely complex.

As a Ninth-Circle Wizard, apologizing to someone.

Still, a proud member of the Golden Lightning family.

One can only say the times have changed.

Previously, he never understood.

Why the congress always had him protect the Dusk Palace Master or those related to him.

Until today, he finally understood the congress's good intentions.

His heart was bitter, and he mocked himself: "I didn't expect, it was the Supreme Council that saved my life, saved the Golden Lightning family."

...

Outer Sea of the Ancient Dragon Continent.

The Dusk Squad, Guardian Four Dragons are engaged in a fierce battle with the invading Level 9 Demons.

Others are hunting those demons taking advantage of the chaos to invade.

With the supreme treasure bounty, Level 9 Demons swarm to the Ancient Dragon Continent.

This place attracted a ton of demon firepower.

Fortunately, the Ancient Dragon Continent is strong enough.

Just the four giant dragons are enough to make them suffer.

Triss's Sea God Chess unleashed its power.

Cavalry, king, pope, chariot and each serving their roles.

Also, hidden within are projections of toads, centipedes, Black Snakes and other poisons.

Elena likewise accompanied by swarms of special spiritual creatures.

Energy Sect, knights, path of the wizard coordinating with each other, slaughtering all around.

Suddenly, a Black Armor figure appeared.

He merely waved casually.

The demon army surrounding the two women was wiped out entirely by the Sun Storm.

"You succeeded?" Elena's gaze couldn't conceal her excitement.

This signified the birth of the first-ever Level 9 Knight.

This is a groundbreaking, significant event!

Levi nodded slightly.

"Sorry for making you worry. How are things here? If everything's fine, I'll go support other battlefields first."

Triss: "Don't worry, we're okay."

Elena: "You should go help the Dusk Squad first."

Seeing this, Levi headed towards the other Level 9 battlefield.

The Dusk Squad of three were using a grand array to hold back six Level 9 Demons.

Four Flame Demons, one Stone Statue Demon, and one Fish Demon.

The strongest is the Stone Statue Demon, already Level 9 Middle Stage, seemingly grasping the Four-layered Demon Realm.

In terms of both quantity and realm, the squad wasn't in advantage.

But this is Nora, and all three are Legendary Reincarnation-level figures.

The demons couldn't take them down.

The battle deadlocked, needing a breakthrough.

Duke Rumon, wearing Star Smoke Armor, exuding fierce momentum.

"We must kill that Level 9 Middle Stage Demon..."

His mind was pondering how to utilize his trump cards to eliminate this demon.

Buzz! Ripples spread through the void, a figure in Black Armor appeared.

"Levi?!"

Duke Rumon's face lit up with joy.

Lady Molly and the Ice Sea Witch also felt invigorated.

"Congratulations on reaching Level 9, quickly come help us hammer down that Level 9 Middle Stage Stone Statue Demon, this thing is too tough!" Duke Rumon said. . ʀANöBĚŚ

Levi laughed heartily.

"Alright, I'll take on this Stone Statue Demon alone."

"I'm kidding, can you really handle it alone?" Duke Rumon asked.

"Of course," Levi said.

"Let him go, he was an eighth Level who killed Level 9 demons like crazy, now that he's Level 9, he'll definitely ascend to slay gods," Lady Molly joked.

"Be careful."

Levi stepped out, appearing next to the Stone Statue Demon.

Destruction Sanctuary rotated, obliterating all.

The Stone Statue Demon was not willing to show weakness.

Five-layered Demon Realm pressed down, terrifying Stone Giant Fist smashed in.

Boom! Levi erupted with full force, his sanctuary swelling infinitely, like a sunrise ascending into the sky!

Fist wind mixed with red flames engulfed the Stone Statue Demon.

Bam! Levi slightly retreated, the Stone Statue Demon was sent flying far away.

Its right arm that clashed with Levi's punch already had cracks spreading.

"This..."

It didn't even have time to be shocked as Levi's killer move already came again.

"Retreat!"

It was decisive.

Though the supreme treasure was good, the Dusk Palace Master successfully reached Level 9.

These Level 9 Demons couldn't possibly kill him, could they?

Boom! A Demon Mountain pressed down, explosively disintegrating.

After the earth-shattering explosion, the Stone Statue Demon vanished.

The other five demons all displayed their wizard talents, preparing to flee.

"You all stay!"

Levi didn't pursue the Stone Statue Demon.

Level 9 Middle Stage wanting to leave, indeed hard to keep.

Better to take the chance to eliminate some Level 9 Early Stage Demons.

He and the Dusk Squad erupted with full force.

Not long after.

Three Level 9 Demons had been jointly killed by the group.

There was also one demon with some skill that actually managed to escape.

Duke Rumon patted Levi's shoulder.

"Just advanced and scared off a Level 9 Middle Stage Demon, you're really something."

"Thanks to everyone for lending a helping hand, Levi sincerely appreciates it."

"You're welcome, we're leaving now, we've got other areas to support."

No time for pleasantries, the squad left.

On the other side.

Seeing their teammates dying or injured.

The demons battling the Guardian Four Dragons also fled to save their lives.

Dusk Palace Master Level 9, the situation has stabilized.

If not running now, then when?

Levi caught up with one of the Level 9 Early Stage Demons, exterminating it solo.

Thus, the Blood Battle Armor progress was unlocked to: 3/10.

The situation here on the Ancient Dragon Continent settled down.

Let the members handle the remaining defeated troops.

Levi's form dissipated, heading off to support other areas of Nora.

...

Blood Battle Command Center.

Lucy, overlooking the entire situation, withdrew her gaze.

Chapter 2638: Holy Sanctuary Knight, Mythical Advent, Moment of Destruction!

"The crisis on the Ancient Dragon Continent has been averted, and Levi has successfully reached level 9. The dynamics of attack and defense have now changed. From now on, any Level 9 demon encountering him will only have the option to hide... and that Golden Walker is still sensible enough."

The Golden Lightning family was once a major contributor to the wars initiated by the Wizard Council.

Unfortunately, the successive generations have become increasingly disappointing.

Now it seems there is still some room for redemption.

Lucy let out a long sigh of relief.

She couldn't help but smile and sent a message to Levi.

[Congratulations on your promotion!]

...

Black Abyss City.

In front of the Black Abyss Sovereign floated a blood-colored crystal ball.

Dimly visible were countless terrifying blood-colored phantoms floating and sinking.

He looked at the thin blood moon hanging high in the sky.

"It's starting again... Blood River, you are truly boring."

However, upon thinking that Levi had reached level 9,

He suddenly felt.

This persistent Blood River might not be able to last much longer.

...

The river of time flows endlessly.

Time Castle.

The wise Time Dragon's eyes reflected that black-armored figure galloping on the battlefield; its expression was calm, without the slightest ripple.

It picked up the pen and wrote:

[The development of the story is starting to become interesting. He might be the one who can truly rewrite everything and make the story start anew; or he might just be a fleeting meteor, burning brightly but briefly, causing a change in a single Chapter but remaining an insignificant ripple in the overall narrative. Regardless, I'm quite happy to see him continue on, as the stagnant Multidimensional Plane starts to stir...]

...

Land of Darkness.

A demon figure was speeding.

It was the Shadow Swordsman Margo, a Level 9 Shadow Demon.

It was ordered to launch a sneak attack on Levi and obstruct his tribulation.

As a result, it was unfortunately hit by Dragon Flames.

Fortunately, the Queen once bestowed upon it a life-saving trump card.

After deploying it, it managed to escape with its life.

"I don't know if that Levi is dead or not. With so many external forces interfering, his Tribulation should be terrifying... If he survives even this, then his power is too terrifying."

Margo was originally at Level 9 Mid Stage.

After using the life-saving trump card, it now fell to Initial Realm.

Its power was only at the level of controlling a three-layer Demon Domain.

Suddenly, Margo seemed to see two figures entangled on the sea surface below.

One was clad in a blue robe, a Grand Wizard.

The other was a Level 9 Flame Demon.

It dissipated its form and went into stealth.

Since it wasn't sure if the task of killing the Dusk Palace Master was accomplished.

Then it would hunt a Grand Wizard as insurance.

To avoid being blamed by the Shadow Queen later.

...

Somewhere in the New World.

The Sea Covering Wizard and the Level 9 Flame Demon had been battling for a long time.

He had advanced to Ninth-Circle for a millennium, and was now close to touching the Senior Nine Rings Realm.

The Flame Demon before him was also nearing Level 9 Mid Stage.

With a gesture, the three-layer Demon Domain's pressure loomed.

"Hold on for a moment longer, reinforcements are on the way."

With his own power, it was too difficult to slay the Flame Demon alone.

But the Flame Demon had killed a Supernova.

If he let it leave, he couldn't put his mind at ease.

His heart was somewhat anxious.

The frequency of Dragon Flames seemed to be slowing.

The Legendary Wizard seemed tired too.

Suddenly, the void shattered.

An ominous shadow flowed out, transforming into a shadow demon.

It suddenly appeared behind the Sea Covering Wizard.

Gripping a shadow-condensed sharp blade tightly, it thrust forward!

"Die!"

Margo's face twisted with ferocity.

Rip.

The blade pierced the chest of the Sea Covering Wizard.

The latter's expression changed, hastily deploying the Elemental Holy Body.

Seeing this, the Flame Demon pushed the Demon Domain to its utmost, forcing the Sea Covering Wizard out.

He spat blood, looking dispirited, clearly injured.

"Shadow Demon Assassin!"

Only these naturally-born assassins.

Could sneak up behind him undetected.

He sighed inwardly, realizing today he could not avenge the Supernova.

He could barely handle one Flame Demon.

But with the addition of an elusive shadow demon, he was certainly not the opponent.

He turned into water vapor, escaping into the vast ocean.

"I'll force him out with the Fire Demon Realm, you finish him with the Shadow Demon Domain!"

The Flame Demon plunged into the sea, slapping downward.

Boom! The terrifying demon domain covered a radius of a thousand miles.

Then, nearly ten thousand miles of seawater boiled under the intense heat.

The white mist coalesced into the slightly bedraggled figure of the Sea Covering Wizard.

"Such trouble... Do I really need to use the trump card granted by my teacher?"

As he escaped, he pondered countermeasures.

Swoosh! A chilling sensation swept over him.

Shadows surrounded on every side, front, and back, an entire Shadow Country.

The Shadow Domain descended! Thousands of Shadow Blades shot forth!

Margo hid in one of the shadows, attacking the Sea Covering Wizard.

"These ordinary Ninth-Circle Wizards are still easy to kill."

It pondered so.

The protective layers around the Sea Covering Wizard shattered, and his wizard form exploded.

In an instant, a blue spear of the Soul Artifact appeared in his hand.

The vast power of the water element converged.

The spear flew out, transforming into a giant fish stirring the ocean.

A towering water curtain shielded him.

"Futile!"

Margo's demon claw tore fiercely.

The water curtain was violently ripped apart.

Its palm revealed a Shadow Dagger, slashing towards the Sea Covering Wizard's neck.

If it hit, surely a head would roll.

The Sea Covering Wizard, helpless, continued elementalization.

Bam! The dagger dispersed him.

After re-forming, his complexion grew even paler.

The dagger contained Demon Domain power; the Elemental Holy Body was not truly invincible.

"Let's see how long you can last."

Margo's ghostly form slashed eight attacks, sealing off all directions.

When about to deliver the ultimate strike, it halted...

Whoosh! An intense red light, traveling at incredible speed, rushed in like a comet.

It tore apart the Shadow Realm, seemingly ripping through time and space.

Then, a massive dragon claw gripped its neck, suffocatingly tight.

Margo turned its head with difficulty, looking at the majestic half-dragon, half-human form.

He breathed scorching breath; his pupils were like the Sun.

This... this seemed to be the Dusk Palace Master.

He advanced to level 9?!

In an instant, Margo felt struck by lightning.

It's over; the assassination mission had utterly failed.

It couldn't imagine the troubles this person would cause demons after reaching level 9.

It didn't have time to think about these things.

A dense sense of death hovered around it.

Its form twisted, morphing into a struggling shadow.

Levi held firmly like an iron vice, peering at the shadow demon before him.

"If I'm not mistaken, the demon interrupting my promotion earlier was you, right?"

"No... it wasn't me, we shadow demons all look the same, you must be mistaken."

Margo instinctively responded.

Levi smiled.

He opened his mouth, as if a sun was gestating within his throat.

Boom! The Destruction Sanctuary twisted into a sphere, then converged into the explosive breath of the Crimson Emperor Dragon.

It shot for ten thousand miles before dissipating!

A lava seaway over a hundred miles wide took form.

Levi looked at the headless shadow demon corpse, crushing it to pieces.

"Dare to disrupt my promotion, I'd recognize you even if you turned to ashes."

Chapter 2639: Blood Battle of a Millennium, Mythical Crystal, Supreme Treasure Rankings!

The Shadow Swordsman Mage, Margo, has fallen!

The Blood Battle Armor buzzed and trembled, absorbing his flesh, demon soul, and crystal core.

Current unlocking progress 4/10.

Levi turned to look.

The level 9 Flame Demon had already slipped away.

These guys had countless times tried to assassinate Levi.

Now, they were already scared out of their wits by Levi.

The Sea Covering Wizard looked at Levi in front of him.

Emotions of shock, excitement, and complexity intertwined.

He had grown too fast.

When he was about to advance to the ninth-circle, Levi was still just a sixth-circle wizard.

Time has passed, and Levi has already achieved Eight-Circle Perfect Cultivation.

He has even pushed the mid-level knight realm to the unprecedented level 9.

The Shadow Demon Assassin, who almost severely injured himself, was actually killed in one blow.

This kind of power is simply unimaginable.

From now on, this senior of mine has already been surpassed by a junior.

Just like how the waves of the Yangtze River push the waves before them.

"Thank you, Sir Levi."

"You're welcome, sir. You have guarded the Ancient Dragon Continent many times. I remember this kindness. You are seriously injured. I will send you back to the Sorren Continent."

"It's fine, just some loss of the Spiritual Origin. I can still fight..."

Before the Sea Covering Wizard could finish, Levi grabbed him and sped towards the Sorren Continent.

It is too dangerous in Nora right now.

Legendary Wizards and level-10 demons are engaged in battle.

The Dragon Flame God's spell can't cover everything.

After the last full-scale invasion, the demons have gathered much strength.

Plus, with Surgard's involvement, the demon forces are unprecedentedly strong.

Levi does not want to see his benefactor fall here.

...

Sorren Continent.

Black Abyss City.

Levi's figure appeared.

The Black Abyss Sovereign sat suspended in mid-air.

In front of him, a powerful evil will came from within the world of blood.

A moment later, he opened his slightly weary eyes.

"It seems you succeeded. Congratulations."

"Thank you for the congratulations, senior. I have brought the Sea Covering Wizard. He was ambushed by the Shadow Demon Assassin and his Spiritual Origin was injured." §

"I'm okay..." the Sea Covering Wizard whispered.

The Black Abyss Sovereign said, "You should rest for a while. The demons are currently retreating. Without you, it won't affect the battle. If your injury becomes more severe, it will impact your advancement to Senior Nine Ring. Go back home."

"Okay, teacher."

The Sea Covering Wizard listened to his mentor's words.

After thanking Levi again, he hurriedly went home to recuperate.

Levi asked, "Senior, is there anything else I need to do now?"

He could sense it.

The Black Abyss Sovereign was likely contending with the River Will from afar.

It seemed peaceful, but it was extremely dangerous.

"There isn't anything on my end. You can go to the Tower of Heaven and see the Dragon Flame God, and relieve some of his pressure," the Black Abyss Sovereign gazed toward the center of the continent.

"I understand. Take care, senior."

Levi turned and left.

The Black Abyss Sovereign withdrew his gaze.

His eyes showed relief and hope.

...

Tower of Heaven.

The Dragon Flame God had only been sitting there for half a day.

To a Legendary Wizard, even sitting for a hundred years won't cause fatigue.

On the surface, he appeared as usual, but internally, he was utterly exhausted.

In close proximity, Levi felt as though he faced a vast and silent ocean of spiritual force, feeling a premonition of something ominous.

"It seems like this is the first time we're meeting, Mr. Levi."

"Yes."

"What brings you here?"

"I want to see if I can do anything for you, senior."

"Hahaha, for now, there's nothing you need to do. Just survive."

After a brief silence.

The Dragon Flame God looked up to the high heavens.

He seemed to hear the painful wails of demons.

And the sound of a Legendary Wizard Tool shattering.

"The battle over there is coming to an end, and Nora has been defended."

"Thanks to all the seniors, without their support, the sky would have already fallen."

"Without Nora and the wizard civilization, we wouldn't exist either. Even a Legendary Wizard cannot exist detached from civilization; otherwise, with all the overwhelming power, it would just be a Dragon Slaying Technique. I suppose those traitors to civilization understand this point most clearly."

"Yes."

"When I was young, I was quick to anger and explosive. More wizards died by my hand than by yours. I initially had a Dual Fire Talent, admired power, and was combative. Before becoming a high-level wizard, my life aside from cultivation and research was all about scheming and competing with other wizards. Looking back, if I had been a little less lucky back then, I might have ended up like Simon, dead at the hands of a Three-Headed Dragon Abomination."

Saying this, the Dragon Flame God glanced at Levi.

"That's right, I was the one who killed Simon."

The Dragon Flame God simply gave a slight smile and continued:

"After becoming a high-level wizard, my vision gradually moved away from the bottom of civilization, and I began to focus on the middle and upper levels. I started to travel across the Multidimensional Plane, seeing more alien races and more views, and gradually realized that I was somewhat paranoid and naive."

Levi said:

"People see different things at different heights and stages, so there's no real 'naive.' Expecting an apprentice wizard to focus on the trends of civilization is broad talk. In their hearts, they only think of earning more Aether Stones to go further on their path of cultivation, which is not wrong. Everyone walks this path."

The Dragon Flame God slightly nodded.

"Indeed, I've always believed that people change over time, constantly altering and shaping new selves with growing power, realms, and vision. After I became a Grand Wizard, I became a congressman and took on a high-level position in the Nora Council.

Chapter 2640: Blood Battle Through a Millennium, Mythical Crystal, Supreme Treasure Rankings!

What I have seen is that this emerging large civilization of Nora is under constant pressure from the outside world. The wizards may seem powerful, but they could be overthrown at any moment.

I have seen those legendary wizards of the past, who always undertook actions that went against their personal desires for the greater good of civilization, gradually gaining some understanding."

Levi said:

"Indeed, that's what makes them admirable."

The Dragon Flame God shook his head.

"In fact, there's nothing to admire. I once asked a deceased legendary predecessor of the Burning School of Thought, and he said that when you reach the legendary realm, most people will unconsciously shoulder the burden of civilization, not out of selflessness, not out of idealism, unrelated to dedication; it's a natural instinct... just like a mother nurturing her child."

He continued:

"When I truly stepped into the legendary realm, I received a letter."

"A letter?"

"Yes, a letter from the past... or maybe from the future."

"Was it a letter from Sauron?"

"Yes, the letter mentioned a word, which is the character of my wizard form. You might not know what it means: it's 'dragon'."

Levi's emotions surged.

The Dragon Flame God's gaze was reminiscent as he continued:

"In the letter, Sauron asked me what the significance of [legendary spells] is. Is it to slay gods, exterminate demons, or to rule or destroy the world?"

Legendary spells are powerful. The [Eternal Blazing Sun] of the Grand Council Chairman can easily tear apart a large world and erase it from the map, but this seems to have no meaning.

Sauron asked me if legendary spells could bring more convenience to my life or make me live longer. It seems not.

I also don't need to use legendary spells to show off my abilities in front of ordinary wizards, and those powerful true gods would not regard me highly because of legendary spells.

Upon reflection, the meaning of legendary spells seems scarce. Protecting the civilization that gave birth to me is one of them; it's the existence of civilization that bestows it with meaning.

The reason why legendary wizards are called [legendary] is also due to the oral transmission among people, or in the epic stories penned by bards and writers.

Legendary isn't a realm; it's an honorary title. Just like the legendary knights of the Doomsday Era, they lived their lives into legends."

Levi nodded slightly, seeming to have some enlightenment.

"Thank you for your guidance, senior."

The Dragon Flame God waved his hand.

"This doesn't count as guidance; you have already comprehended and practiced it, although you may not have noticed it yourself. I observed your current life trajectory; what is the ultimate motivation for your cultivation? Is it eternal life, or the ability to do as you please? It surely can't be the elusive truth, hahaha."

Levi said: "All of the above."

The Dragon Flame God nodded and said:

"You are about to achieve doing as you please. In fact, in the current Multidimensional Plane, there are few who have the ability to restrict you, and they may have no interaction with you at all. As for immortality, longevity, and the undying, it's very hard but also very simple; you'll understand after you become legendary."

During their conversation, powerful and vast auras began to return to the Sorren Continent.

Those legendary wizards have returned.

Levi counted and found none had fallen.

But some seemed to be in poor condition.

For example, the Frost Witch.

She landed beside Levi, slightly panting.

Her cold and beautiful face was somewhat unusually flushed.

She had a large hole filled with demonic aura in her chest, temporarily sealed by spells.

Inside, a ferocious and twisted dragon shadow struggled.

It glowed on its surface, crashing incessantly.

The Dragon Flame God's expression shifted slightly.

"Did you seal the Master of Rainbows in a Demiplane?"

The Frost Witch nodded. .

"Better to keep it with me than to let it be a menace outside."

"How are you doing now?"

"I'm fine; it will settle down in a while."

She seemed indifferent to her own injuries, instead looking at Levi.

Her right hand, as if covered with thin frost on ice skin jade bone, gently patted his shoulder.

"Congratulations on reaching level 9."

Levi felt the coolness on his shoulder.

"Thank you, madam... Is your injury really alright?"

"No worries, it won't take long for it to freeze stiff; nothing in this world should be colder than my heart." The Frost Witch's words came with a hint of smile.

What Levi felt was only warmth.

"I'll head back now... Lehger, you've worked hard."

The Frost Witch let out an almost imperceptible sigh and returned to her Sky City.

"You should go back; there's nothing more for now."

The Dragon Flame God's figure dissipated.

Levi left the Sorren Continent.

Everything he saw was filled with war and demonic aura.

This invasion was more intense.

Surely, some level 9 experts have fallen.

Countless ordinary wizards or members of the Nora Wan Clan have perished or been injured.

...

The Land of Darkness.

"What is going on? How could the swift Master of Rainbows be captured by the wizards?"

The projection of the Succubus Queen gazed sternly, questioning the Wind Demon Lord before her.

Pazuzu said, "The Frost Witch sealed the Master of Rainbows inside a Demiplane to keep it; isn't she worried about the Demiplane being destroyed and implicating herself?"

"Mad woman..."

The Succubus Queen muttered.

It was clear she had an impressive impression of the Frost Witch.

"What is the situation of the battle?"

"Not good. So far, more than forty level 9 demons have fallen... It's all Surgard's fault for launching a massive war without authorization; we weren't ready, and we had to move out entirely. However, there's some good news: it seems the Dragon Flame God is about to fall. This time, Surgard indeed pushed him to the edge, forcing him to use previously unexhibited means, likely burning his lifespan; he won't live long."