

Wizard 268

Chapter 268: Capture Dragon King Whale, Second-Ring Battle, Level Nine Red Lotus! (1)

On the sea, a twenty-meter-long brass fish was sailing on the surface.

The apprentice wizards stood on the back of the fish to rest and chat.

Brass was the cheapest alchemy material, followed by mithril, luminant gold, and so on.

Even in the wizard world, mithril and luminant gold were precious.

Therefore, large-sized alchemical creatures were usually refined from brass.

This behemoth was White Tower No. 9.

It was the most powerful alchemical creature refined by the Tower Master.

Its combat power in the sea was comparable to a First-Circle Wizard.

For the sake of this assessment, the Tower Master had also invested a lot.

In order to reduce the wear and tear of this alchemical creature and the consumption of Aether Stones, he was usually reluctant to use it.

With the addition of this copper lump, Levi felt more at ease about leaving the island.

To be honest, Levi was very interested in alchemy.

The Gray Tower also had some basic alchemy knowledge.

But he really didn't have time now.

With his current talent, it would take too much time for him to dual cultivate the Meditation Art and spell of the Ocean School of Thought and the School of Death.

Moreover, he had to take care of both pharmacy and breathing techniques.

After he became an official wizard, his lifespan would be extended to 200 years. At the same time, he would have some self-protection power in the wizard world. He felt that he could try different schools' skills.

Levi wished he had 48 hours in a day.

He was like a cultivation machine that was never satisfied.

He was tireless and never slacked off. He was constantly absorbing all kinds of experiences throughout the seasons.

It would take about a day to get to the assessment sea area.

It was rare for the apprentice wizards to gather together. At this time, they were chatting and laughing.

Winnie naturally sat with Levi.

Levi couldn't cultivate while on this alchemical creature, so he chatted with Winnie casually while being on guard for possible enemies.

The first time he went out to sea, he encountered enemies, so Levi could not relax.

At the stern, Noz sat there alone.

He looked at Levi and Winnie with an extremely sad gaze.

"Damn Levi, no... No!"

Noz shouted in his heart.

He felt that ever since Levi became an influential figure in the Gray Tower, his relationship with Winnie became more and more indifferent.

Previously, Winnie would have laughed and chatted with him.

Now, every time he went to look for Winnie, she was always cultivating, and she would always reject him politely.

It was all Levi's fault!

Noz felt indignant.

He did not want to be a spy anymore!

He only wanted the people from the Undead Ship to kill Levi.

Then, he would return to the ship.

It would be even better if he could snatch Winnie away.

Levi felt someone watching him.

"It's him." Levi glanced at Noz.

Noz forced a smile.

Levi smiled slightly.

"You still dare to smile? I will make sure you won't be able to smile. So what if you are a legendary knight? In front of Green Ghost Carter, you are nothing."

Noz snorted inwardly.

Levi felt that Noz was a little strange.

For some reason, every time he met Noz during this period, his Spider Sensing would have a weak reaction.

Although it was very weak, it was indeed a sign of danger.

Noz seemed to be very hostile towards him.

However, because Noz was too weak, this sense of danger was mild to Levi.

Levi could roughly guess that this had something to do with Winnie.

"It's not my fault. Winnie insisted on sitting with me. I also wanted to be quiet for a while." Levi was speechless.

After all, Winnie was his guide. Moreover, when Levi first arrived, he asked Winnie for advice on many things he did not understand. Levi could not be ungrateful.

But deep down, he didn't have any feelings for Winnie.

Naturally, he was a little tempted.

After all, Winnie was good-looking, has an excellent temperament, a good figure, long legs, big breasts, a pleasant voice, and was very proactive.

As a man, it would be too hypocritical to not be moved.

However, he did not know if it was because he was too engrossed in cultivation that he lacked the desire of the secular world.

Levi was completely unable to raise his interest with this faint feeling.

He only has feelings for the proficiency panel.

On the other side, Wizard Marko was sitting upright and meditating with his eyes closed.

Marko and Marlene had completely opposite personalities.

Marlene is gentle, considerate, and kind.

Marko, on the other hand, always has a straight face.

He was stern, old-fashioned, and strict.

This was how most apprentices felt about him.

However, the Tower Master told Levi that he could absolutely trust Marko.

This was an absolutely reliable wizard.

In order not to be targeted by the people from the Undead Ship, Levi, and the others did not follow a fixed route.

An official wizard from the Undead Ship had died, and they would definitely think of ways to take revenge.

The Tower Master had already thought of this.

That was why he was hiding in the dark.

He silently guarded the apprentices.

Levi scanned the area with his Perception, but he did not know where the Tower Master was hiding.

In any case, it wasn't in White Tower No. 9.

An expert like the Tower Master should have a very powerful concealment spell.

Perhaps he was hiding in the deep sea at this moment.

A day later, Levi and the others arrived at the trial sea area safely.

This sea area was called Silent Bay.

There were very few waves here, and it was not within the safe zone established by wizards. There were quite a number of sea beasts, and occasionally there would be some transcendent sea beasts that were comparable to an official wizard.

However, such transcendent sea beasts were not very common.

Therefore, this area was suitable for apprentices to take the trial.

Marko said coldly, "The assessment is starting. Everyone, be careful. Do your best. Safety comes first.."
