

Wizard 2711

Chapter 2711: Snake of the End! The Preaching Sounds Across the Ages!

He thought the Council of Ten Thousand Clans would interfere to harass his Dragon.

Now it seems he was overthinking it.

Of course, if those people dare to come.

Believe that Lady Rowling next door, as well as the seniors of Sorren Continent.

They would make sure they never return.

This is also why Levi dares to travel freely.

Tower of Summer Flowers.

Sensing the long-aching aura.

Elena also awoke from her retreat.

"You're finally home!"

She embraced Levi, her black gauzy dress accentuating her graceful figure.

The emotions of longing were overflowing.

"It has indeed been a long journey."

Levi embraced Madam and returned home.

He shared his interesting experiences along the way, celebrating as he went.

Of course, some very dangerous incidents,

such as the experience of being hunted by the Red Crow, he did not mention.

It's all in the past, no need to worry family about it.

...

A month later.

Levi began to attend to business.

He distributed the oddities, rare treasures prepared for the Gondor Three Heroes.

He also gave Elena a Bright Moon-level ocean oddity to perfect her Water God Body.

After that, he found Triss.

"Madam, I found another oddity that I feel might be useful for you."

In the container was a small spider as white as jade.

Morning Star Artifact Snow Jade White Spider.

Triss examined it and nodded, saying:

"Thank you, this oddity is worth 1 billion."

Though she didn't want to owe money, this thing was indeed useful.

"Alright then."

Levi left with a smile.

Triss's voice came from behind him.

"Now the debt is 16 billion, don't forget it."

She watched Levi's figure disappear, then quietly returned to her wizard tower to continue her research.

A while ago.

She had successfully developed the Eight Ring Breakthrough Potion of the Nightmare Sequence.

After handing it over to the Pharmacist Association, she received another authorized usage fee.

In recent years, the Thousand-Year Potion also gradually started to profit.

She continuously used the dividends to repay her debt to Levi in installments.

She even paid interest.

Levi did not refuse this either.

Everyone has their pride.

Especially a strong independent woman like Triss.

If he gave it to her outright,

she would definitely feel uncomfortable.

After all, Levi had long since repaid her for her past kindness.

...

Ancient Banyan Fairyland.

Ayak anxiously found Levi, cawing anxiously.

Suddenly, a round-faced girl appeared behind it.

"Ayak, I'm right here."

It giggled.

Ayak was baffled for a second.

Then it saw the Earth Awakening meditating nearby.

It was so startled that it hid behind Levi.

The Earth Awakening had a somewhat bitter expression.

Who would have thought,

that Ayak, which it had accidentally let go back then,

would turn out to be the master's companion life.

"Okay, spit out the treasure and go play with Vera."

Levi lifted Ayak and poured out the clattering treasures.

After working hard for hundreds of years, it was all wiped out in a moment.

The round-faced girl pulled the sulking Ayak away.

Levi gleefully took stock of the harvest, likely because this trip was farther than the rest.

Ayak brought back quite a few good things this time.

Ninth-level materials and various ores of many kinds.

It even had two Bright Moon Artifacts, both from the Frost God Series, and in total, 36 Frost Artifacts of the Earth, Sky, and Morning Star levels.

With Ayak's single effort,

having this kind of haul made Levi very satisfied.

However, his attention was drawn to a gourd.

"Is this... the Winter Frost Gourd?"

He had already seen the Golden Stone Gourd.

So he was naturally familiar with this item.

Levi was overjoyed.

Years ago, after notifying the congress,

he went to the Panda Continent and searched around.

He turned everything upside-down, but couldn't find the remaining gourds.

Unexpectedly, it had already drifted outside.

He opened the wooden stopper of the gourd and his consciousness entered it.

As if he was in a Frost World.

The dense Frost Power coagulated into a Cold Pond.

Except for that, there was nothing special.

Levi temporarily stored it in the Little Cold Mountain area.

The most important role of the Qi Sect Gourd.

Is to guard the Qi fortune of the Qi Sect.

Currently, in the Panda Clan's Qi Sect, the Spring Thunder and Winter Frost were declining.

The Golden Stone Qi Sect improved a lot after the return of the Golden Stone Gourd.

At least they produced people like Lord Victor and Link.

Next, the Winter Frost Qi Sect can also rise.

...

Two years later.

Nora Calendar 1452.

Blood Battle 1340.

On this day.

Levi, Lord Victor, and Ace were refining a wizard tower in the Ancient Banyan Fairyland.

The thirty thousand-year Dead Soul Wood obtained previously was successfully refined into it.

Earth, Fire, Wind, Water, Thunder, Metal, Frost, Nightmare, Death.

The nine attribute forces intertwined.

An increasingly perfect embryonic form of the tower world was being nurtured.

Above the dome, nine thousand Sealing Stars were shining.

[Light Candle]and[Dusk Spear]quietly lay on the side.

Gathering a large area of Light and Metal Element lands.

"Okay, you may go back now."

With everything done here, Levi told Lord Victor and Ace to each return to their cultivation.

On this trip, Levi had prepared quite a few oddities for them.

The next step would involve slowly absorbing them.

With a thought, Levi withdrew the wizard tower into his mind.

He came to the Ghostly Mansion of the ancient banyan tree.

An area of 5,000 miles entirely of undead land.

Such a vast Undead Cemetery.

Formed by multiple factors like Rest Soil and the Netherworld.

And now, in the center of the Ghost Mansion, there emerged a large section of tree root as thick as an arm.

Around it, new sprouts continued to grow.

This was the root of the Death Soul Tree.

After Levi took the trunk.

He found the roots still had life, so he transplanted them here.

Chapter 2712: Snake of the End! The Preaching Sound Through the Ages!

Afterward, various nutrient infusions and fertilizers were continuously applied day and night.

Unexpectedly, it survived.

This was indeed a pleasant surprise.

The roots of the Death Soul Tree traversed endless space and took root in Hell.

Continuously extracting dense Death Energy into the Ancient Banyan Tree Mansion.

Forming a perfect cycle.

...

Not long after.

Levi, as a special guest, attended the White Dragon Mountain Commercial Summit.

With the Blue Onyx Chamber of Commerce settling in Nora.

The congress also began sweeping reforms.

How to establish a financial system that covers the Multidimensional Plane is an urgent task.

Otherwise, the communication between All Clans can only remain superficial, making deep execution difficult.

Levi didn't understand much about finance either.

But he offered some suggestions based on knowledge from a previous life.

The rest would have to be done by professionals in the congress.

During the summit, dozens of Level 9 experts gathered on White Dragon Mountain, making it a lively event. Levi's consigned Turtle King Fruit, and the nine-level treasure Star Ghost Sword were also exchanged at this time for a Water Element Holy Medicine Water Crane Herb and a Star Spirit's Heart.

In this way, he now has three Star Spirit's Hearts in stock.

Enough for the future advancement of the Three Avatars to Level 9.

As for Elena.

At the Blood Battle Auction twenty years ago.

She also went all out to obtain a Star Spirit's Heart.

All in all, Levi's close ones need not worry about advancing to the ninth-circle.

With his current wealth and status.

Elevating them to new heights is still quite easy.

After intense and heated discussions, the month-long summit concluded successfully.

Levi knows.

A brand-new era is about to arrive.

No matter the race, civilization, all "use the same gauge for vehicles, speak the same language, adhere to the same ethics, share the same domain, use the same measurement, employ the same currency".

That is the true golden age!

Good things come in pairs.

After the summit ended.

Nainate, president of the White Dragon Commerce, also successfully advanced to the ninth-level realm.

Levi attended the celebration ceremony with Elena.

The Green Bird Knight felt a bit out of place.

Suddenly his wife is a demigod-level existence.

And he hasn't reached Level 7 yet.

This gap, to outsiders.

He definitely seems like he's freeloading.

Emperor Mu and Elsa were both overjoyed.

In Emperor Mu's words.

There's nothing wrong with being a freeloader.

It's a skill too!

...

In the subsequent time.

No major events on the Ancient Dragon Continent, though minor ones were continuous.

Of course, they were all good things.

The Black Knight got married.

The partner is a supernova level witch from the Wizard World.

Of course, not from the Ancient Dragon Continent.

But from other top wizard organizations.

Levi didn't mind this.

Perhaps one day.

The Black Knight could bring that top organization over as well.

The Steel Dragon Knight and the daughter of Gray Eagle Law God, Tifana, also had a noble child.

Named "Sinderson".

Carrying the Soaring Serpent bloodline from his father, he's also a Water Element Child.

Another sure-fire supernova prospect.

Both parents possess Children of the Elements level talent.

The Steel Dragon Knight even has a Mythical-level bloodline.

The possibility of giving birth to an ordinary child is indeed low.

After the myths.

The Thousand Illusion Knight also found a partner.

Again, not within the Ancient Dragon Continent.

But with an ally from the Dreamland Steeple.

Over the years, the two organizations cooperated closely.

Intermarriage between members is also common.

Seeing the 18 Twilight Cavalry successively settling down.

Levi was naturally overjoyed.

By the end of Nora's second millennium.

The organization should still produce many geniuses, even supernovas.

...

Five years later.

Year 1457 of the Nora Calendar.

Blood Battle Year 1345.

In Gondor City.

Gandaph refined the Glorious Sun-Grade Body Refining Artifact Ghost God's Claw.

His Ancient Divine Body now contains the fire, wind, and water three major body-refining talents.

Only the Giant God's Shoulder of the earth element remains to achieve Perfection.

His spiritual force also increased by 1000 points.

He can easily exert the strength of two hundred dragon elephants.

In a maximum state, it can reach two hundred fifty dragon elephants.

Based on the current trend.

When he reaches Eight Ring Perfection, he can achieve three hundred dragon elephants.

His Thousand-Eyed Titan Body Tempering Technique is also at the Seven-Ring Realm now.

It won't be long before he can integrate it into the Dragon and Snake Prison Suppressing Divine Skill.

At that time, under the Eight-Ring Maximum limit.

He hopes to exert four hundred, even five hundred dragon elephants of strength, which is quite exciting to think about.

Exhaling dense Qi, with a thought, Gandaph summoned.

A gigantic phantom with a green face and fangs, like an evil spirit, appeared behind him.

Its sharp claws can easily tear apart the defensive field of an eighth-circle senior wizard.

This is the special spiritual creature born from the Ghost God's Claw.

Gandaph calls it Yaksha!

His current spiritual creature lineup can be described as incredibly luxurious.

There are three that can match eighth-circle senior wizards.

They are the Nightmare Black Dragon, Desolation, and Yaksha.

These spiritual creatures especially complement Gandaph's Ancient God wizard forms with feet stepping on Dragons.

Creating a resemblance to the Buddhist great power and its Guardian Vajra.

Another Bright Moon-level Red Armored Sky Dragon was also refined.

However, its level was not high, and the improvement to Gandaph was not very noticeable.

But Gandaph had exceptionally good luck this time.

Another companion spiritual creature Red Dragon was born.

In this way, it seems he has tangled with a dragon's nest.

Yellow, blue, black, red, all are present.

As the years passed, not long after.

Lord Victor and the Holy Infant also refined their respective Sun Refining Artifacts.

The Golden God Body and Ice and Fire Divine Body took further steps.

Lord Victor gained 900 points in spiritual force.

While the Holy Infant increased their spiritual force upper limit by 900 points.

However, the luck of both wasn't as good as Gandaph's.

Chapter 2713: Snake of the End! The Dao Voice Within the Ages!

No companion spirit was born.

It is most likely that the fortune was absorbed by Gandaph.

On the other side.

Madam Triss, after refining the [Snow Jade White Spider], got the new poison power projection as she wished.

The Black Queen Snake, the Mystic Water Golden Centipede, the Snow Jade White Spider, and the Red Moon Treasure Toad.

With the four poisons in hand, Triss felt she could also study the Poisonous Faction.

As a pharmacist, refining poisons is quite reasonable.

She was not acting on a whim.

The current Poisonous Faction has no presence at all.

The path of poison, in the eyes of many traditional wizards, is not respectable.

If one could develop a small sect,

the sense of achievement would indeed be satisfying.

Triss immediately sought out Levi.

Because Levi cultivates all factions, and due to the [Black Emperor Dragon],

he also had many unique insights into the Poisonous Faction.

He discussed and researched with Triss for many days and nights.

Finally, he solidified Triss's idea of dual cultivation in the Poisonous Faction.

With her current talent, she also has the capital to dual cultivate.

It would not hinder her advancement to the ninth-circle.

And so,

Triss embarked on the path of the Poison Witch.

The combination of poison and medicine, will soon give birth to a poison pharmacist feared by enemies.

...

Ten years later.

Nora Calendar Year 1467.

Blood Battle Year 1355.

Nightmare World.

"Master, here is the information collected on 123 Nightmare Overlords and Monarchs, please have a look!" The Tyrant of Horror handed over a stack of materials.

"Thank you for your hard work, continue to explore and report back." Levi said.

Of the six breathing techniques, two remained unsolved.

One was the Death Ember Dragon.

Levi had a bloodline crystal of the physique type.

He had obtained it at the White Dragon Mountain Market some time ago. .

As it happened,

the one trading with Levi was the Star Splitter.

In its early years of wandering the Multidimensional Planes, it had once encountered an aged [Light Burning Dragon].

It was rumored that the blood of the Light Burning Dragon could extend life.

Its bloodline crystal was said to make one immortal, like an eternal lamp.

Back then, a group of level 9 experts of alien races surrounded it.

The old dragon was already on its last legs, and was eventually taken down.

After a struggle, the strongest Star Splitter acquired the corpse of the Light Burning Dragon.

It turns out the legends were unreliable.

It consumed the blood of the Light Burning Dragon and did not extend its life.

And its bloodline crystal, after being consumed, almost caused it to explode.

There was no way to refine it, let alone becoming immortal.

When sorting its items, it took this to the White Dragon Mountain for trade.

Levi, upon learning of it, exchanged his organization's [Dog Bear Greatsword] for it.

Furthermore, according to the intelligence from the Blood Battle Command Center, the Greedy Star Worm also joined the Abyss Blood Battle.

It is also a physique type and a Mythical level creature.

Although Levi could not defeat it yet,

he already regarded it as resources for his evolution.

He believed that when the time was right, the senior figures in the congress would definitely capture it for him.

So when calculating this way, the only remaining issue for Levi to solve is the Nightmare Traveler.

As for the perception dimension, naturally, he had to seek opportunities in the Nightmare World.

He finished reviewing the Tyrant of Horror's information.

The 123 listed were not the entirety of the Nightmare World.

Only information available in the surrounding Big Domains.

Excluding those beyond the perception dimension and the strange ones, there were five that relatively met Levi's standards.

Among them, four were Legendary:

The Sky Dream Dominator, whose true form is the Dream Worm.

The Dead Poison Dominator, whose true form is the Nine-tailed Giant Scorpion.

The Mysterious Net Dominator, whose true form is the Divine Head Ghost Spider.

The Noisy Tyrant, whose true form is the Corpse Sea Green Fly.

...

What can I say.

If there were more suitable options,

Levi would not have chosen these for evolution.

Especially the Noisy Tyrant, whose true form is shockingly a fly.

However, to be fair, its perception is indeed very strong.

It is said to possess incredibly strong danger prediction abilities.

It has escaped from the talons of level 10 Monarchs many times.

There was another, a Monarch-level powerhouse.

Its true form is a powerful mythical creature from the Multidimensional Plane:

The Snake of the End.

Also known as the "Destructive Giant Python," "Destructive World Demon Snake," and "Lord of Despair."

Unlike the previous Nightmare Overlords, it was not a native of the Nightmare World.

Rather, it provoked a God of the astral world when it was level 9, accidentally devouring several places of worship, consuming billions of believers.

This led to being hunted by that God.

By chance, it had the ability to traverse the Nightmare World.

It then simply came here to rule and dominate.

Successfully advancing to level 10 five thousand years ago.

Self-proclaimed as the "Despair Sovereign."

By the way, the God who hunted the Despair Sovereign is Levi's old acquaintance, Heaven's Merciful Father, Ramon.

The world is vast, yet small.

Round and round, it's always these people connected to Levi.

The Snake of the End also possesses strong perception abilities.

Its perception is not just danger perception,

but a foreknowledge of distant futures.

It's said to be able to predict the fate of the world.

Seeing its destruction and final end in the future.

Of course, these are just mythical tales.

What exactly it's like, Levi does not know.

He just feels that,

this creature probably is what he needs.

However, capturing the Snake of the End is a big issue.

Firstly, Levi's strength is insufficient, and he might need external help.

Secondly, this creature is adept at predicting fortune and misfortune.

Even if Levi had the strength, he might not capture it.

Perhaps the moment he considers it,

it has already sensed it.

After much thought, he decided to first find a way to capture those Nightmare Overlords.

Chapter 2714: Snake of the End! The Preaching Voice Within the Years!

As for the Snake of the End, let it be as it may.

It's him.

Anyone else who dared to plot against a level-10 existence.

Would definitely be considered a madman.

Of course, even against those four Nightmare Overlords.

Levi did not act immediately.

These guys probably have Monarch-level backers, pulling one hair moves the whole body.

He must be fully prepared, without alerting anyone.

Three years later.

Nora Calendar, 1470.

Ancient Dragon Continent.

Clear Spring Qi Sect location, Holy Emperor Palace.

The void within a hundred miles buzzed and trembled.

An adorably plump bearman sat cross-legged in the void.

All around it, streams murmured, rivers roared, the sea was boundless... endless water imagery rolled, depicting a majestic landscape painting.

More than twenty figures above level 6 from the Qi Sect came one after another.

Including the all level 7 Four Sons of Qi Sect.

Emperor Mu, Elena, the White Wolf Girl, and others also appeared.

Everyone was shocked to gaze at that bearman.

"Is Saint Emperor Zhou reaching level 8?"

"It seems so."

"Wonderful!"

"It's been countless years since the Qi Sect had a level 8 powerhouse."

"This day has been awaited for so long."

The most emotionally touched ones were those old bearmen.

Unlike many civilizations.

The Qi Sect starts at the peak.

The former Origin Holy Emperor could even sit and discuss with Sauron.

Afterwards, it was all downhill.

Until the White Emperor's Son era, there was a brief resurgence.

A group of peerless sword practitioners emerged.

Then, it was decline after decline...

Until there wasn't even a single level 6 capable of shattering the void.

Then, with Elena's visit.

The Dark Ancient Tower opened, quietly unfolding the path to the Qi Sect's resurgence.

Followed by the great convergence of planes, joining the Ancient Dragon Continent.

Becoming stronger day by day.

The Qi Sect's situation has gradually surpassed the White Emperor Era.

What was missing, was level 8.

And now, Saint Emperor Zhou is level 8.

It is undoubtedly great news.

Amidst the crowd, Levi appeared quietly.

"Not easy at all."

After the astonishing anomaly.

Saint Emperor Zhou's presence was firmly established at level 8.

He proclaimed loudly: "Ladies and Gentlemen, the Qi Sect has returned to the Level 8 Realm!"

Thousands of Qi Sect disciples cheered in unison.

"Glorious Qi Sect!" .

"Glorious Qi Sect!"

Saint Emperor Zhou stood with arms behind his back, eyes containing the Morning Star.

He closed his eyes as if sensing something.

Vaguely, it seemed as if an ancient sound was echoing.

"When heaven and earth first opened, and everything began, it resembles Origin Qi, which can be divided into the Four Symbols..."

A voice like a grand bell echoed.

All Qi Sect practitioners had their gazes changed, listening intently.

"Did you hear anything?"

"It seems like someone is preaching."

"Who is singing?"

Levi looked around, seeing no one, he asked:

"Elena, did you hear anything?"

Elena nodded and said:

"This voice... I seemed to have heard it once, during an enlightenment!"

Emperor Mu also agreed, shocked:

"I heard it too, do you remember, during my enlightenment day I dreamt I became a monkey, and the voice of that master behind the waterfall was just like this. Could it be, that master is the Origin Holy Emperor?"

Hearing this, the White Wolf Girl also seemed to recall something.

"I've also had such a dream, but wasn't the Ancestor Teacher dead?"

On this day.

All Mortal Qi Sect practitioners.

Heard a preaching voice from an unknown source.

Including Victor in Gondor City, and Link hunting demons on the battlefield.

Levi closed his eyes, lost in thought.

Even though he is not a Qi Sect practitioner, he heard it too...

He felt, the Origin Holy Emperor should be dead.

But as Sauron's fellow.

He might have left something behind, or Sauron helped him leave a fallback.

Thus, he could still influence future generations through enlightenment and such.

Or even resurrect when certain conditions are met.

Or rather reincarnate and be reborn!

Levi felt slightly excited.

Sauron had eighteen fellows.

Will those people return in this era?

The preaching voice lasted for half a day.

All Qi Sect practitioners seized the opportunity for insight.

Buzz! Buzz! Buzz!

One after another aura suddenly erupted.

It was someone achieving enlightenment amid the Tao sound.

At this moment.

Dozens of Qi Sect practitioners achieved enlightenment simultaneously.

Levi saw Elena, Emperor Mu, and the White Wolf Girl suddenly sit cross-legged.

It seemed like they also benefited.

Through connection with the duplication.

Levi knew, Victor also achieved enlightenment at the peak of the Golden Star Sword Tower.

On a certain battlefield.

Link, who was fiercely slaying with the Sword Array demon-slaying, also achieved enlightenment.

He fought with even more joy.

Levi was mentally shaken.

What kind of power is this?

What state is the Origin Holy Emperor in?

High above the sky.

Saint Emperor Zhou suddenly opened his eyes.

He also achieved enlightenment, although his cultivation did not improve.

But the insights just gained far exceeded what could be earned through decades of hard cultivation.

"Zhou..."

A faint voice drifted by.

Saint Emperor Zhou looked up at the sky.

At this moment, he seemed to see a different kind of scenery.

A fairyland-like seven-colored world descended slowly upon the sky dome.

Saint Emperor Zhou looked towards others, as if they didn't see this world.

He then looked at Levi.

It seemed like Levi saw something, looked over, and nodded slightly.

Receiving Levi's affirmation.

Saint Emperor Zhou flicked his sleeve, stepping into that seven-colored fairyland.

And just like that disappeared in front of everyone.

Elena and the others woke up from enlightenment, not seeing any trace of the Holy Emperor.

"Where is Zhou?"

"He might have gone to a new world, a 'Realm' that only those who reach level 8 of the Qi Sect can see, just like the 'Six Holy Heavens' I mentioned to you."

"I see."

"A new era for the Qi Sect has arrived."

Suddenly.

Levi felt some anomalies in the Ancient Banyan Fairyland.

Gold and blue rays rose from the Golden Light Cave and Little Cold Mountain.

They were the Golden Stone Gourd and Winter Frost Gourd.

Levi opened the fairyland.

These two rays shot out.

Then, they rushed to the sky and vanished into the void.

Meanwhile.

In the Thunder Realm on the Nora Continent.

Within the Thunderbolt Holy Tower, a primordial soul wizard of the Lightning School of Thought was cultivating.

He held a purple gourd emitting threads of lightning in his arms.

Suddenly, his expression changed dramatically.

"What's happening to my Thunderbolt Gourd..."

But then the purple gourd trembled as if it had its own spirituality.

He tried desperately to grasp it, to control it, to no avail.

Finally, it transformed into a bolt of lightning, disappearing before his eyes.

He shattered the void in pursuit, but couldn't catch up.

"A treasure worth three billion just washed away, it's a sin!"

At the Clear Spring Sect's gate.

A bolt of lightning shattered the void, rushing into the high heavens, merging into the seven-colored world.

Levi stood with hands clasped behind his back, smiling.

"So, the last gourd didn't even need to be sought..."

"Once the other six are gathered, it will naturally return, marvelous."

Chapter 2715: Qi Sect Sixth Realm! Encircling and Slaying the Mythical!

Noticed the descent of the Seven-colored Fairyland.

Not just Saint Emperor Zhou and Levi.

On the Tower of Heaven, Edmund, clad in a red robe, gazed deeply.

"Are the powerful figures of the Qi Sect about to return?"

He was not surprised by all this.

In fact, long before the grand convergence of planes.

He had known of the existence of the Qi Sect.

Knew that Sauron had once visited Panda World.

However, he was also unsure about what arrangements Sauron had left.

Could only passively wait for the story to develop, unable to do anything.

"Interesting, let's wait and see."

...

Seven-Colored World.

Here, fairy energy swirled, and the peaks hung suspended.

Waterfalls hung upside down from the Nine Heavens, birds, and beasts shuttled through the mountains and forests.

Saint Emperor Zhou stepped on auspicious clouds and mist, swimming freely within.

It was drawn by the sound of a call that seemed to come from antiquity.

Eventually, Zhou arrived at a central immortal peak radiating in seven colors.

It towered ten thousand feet high, as if made up of peaks of seven different colors.

Colorful auspicious clouds floated everywhere, enveloped in seven-colored mist.

The mountain winds were in the shape of seven colors.

"Seven Treasures Gourd..."

Saint Emperor Zhou was shocked, muttering to himself.

This Seven-Colored Immortal Peak was precisely constructed from the seven gourds of the Qi Sect.

Cang Mountain, Spirit, Flowing Cloud, Clear Spring, Spring Thunder, Winter Frost, Golden Stone!

And that voice of preaching came from here.

Zhou hurriedly said, "Junior Zhou, the contemporary head of the Clear Spring Sect, pays respects to the Mixed Element Ancestor!"

At this scene, he could only think of the great figure of the Qi Sect who seemed to have created heaven and earth.

"What era is it now?"

"Ancestor, since you and Sauron discussed the Dao and initiated the Four Symbols Qi Sect, three hundred thousand years have passed... May I ask boldly, what is your current situation?"

Zhou did not lose his rationality.

Years would change many things.

The former ancestor, even if still living.

May not be the same person as before, it's uncertain.

Harming him is not impossible.

Of course, Zhou chose to trust this ancestral grandmaster more.

"It's been so long."

The voice seemed to express infinite emotion.

It continued, "Acquired Sense Qi, Innate Conviction Qi, Heaven-Man Connection, Shattering Void, Limitless Primordial Chaos... After reaching the peak of the Qi Sect's fifth realm, I sought the opportunity for the Sixth Realm, but found it elusive. I searched for the reason, pondered deeply. Finally, Sauron told me, it wasn't my fault, but the world's fault. The principles of the Qi Sect are inherently not well-aligned with this universe. Seeking to prove the Dao of the Sixth Realm and step into level-10 will be much harder than other paths."

Zhou asked:

"Ancestor, why is it not aligned?"

"Only the supreme will of this universe can know that."

"Does the universe have a will?"

"Perhaps it does. The operation of the Land of Darkness and the Multidimensional Plane requires objective rules and trajectories. At the beginning of antiquity, who set these? Who delineated Earth, Fire, Wind, Water, Frost, Gold, Thunder, Light, Darkness, Life, Death... everything must have an explanation. Will does not necessarily have to be something specific, a person or thing, it objectively exists, yet is very hard for us to discover. 'The way that can be spoken of is not the true way, the name that can be named is not the true name,' the wizard's truth is forever untouchable, and the Dao of our Qi Sect is the same."

"Then, Ancestor, may I boldly ask, are you dead or alive?"

"I am dead, I failed in pursuing the Sixth Realm, but I also did not die. My thoughts, my will, the entire meaning of my existence, have long been integrated into that 'Mixed Element Dao Scripture.' I am the Dao Scripture, and the Dao Scripture is me. The voice of preaching you hear, the old man you dream of when you achieve enlightenment, that is me. Therefore, I can still communicate with you across the ages, three hundred thousand years later."

"..."

The words, seemingly from the Mixed Element Ancestor, left Saint Emperor Zhou a bit dazed.

With his realm, he clearly still found it difficult to understand all this.

Yet the Seven-colored Immortal Mountain began to tremble with a buzz.

On its surface, characters containing the profound truth of the great Dao began to emerge.

"In the beginning of heaven and earth, all things began..."

This is the Dao Scripture that every Qi Sect disciple must comprehend daily for cultivation.

It is not a cultivation secret technique, not a method, just a scripture.

Yet it seemed to come alive.

All the characters flew out, gathering together one by one.

Accompanied by the chanting of countless Qi Sect disciples past and present.

Transforming into a bear-man elder in a Four Symbols Qi Sect Robe, his visage weathered.

He stood with hands behind his back, integrated with Heaven, resonating with the Dao.

"Ancestral Grandmaster, are you returning? What should the disciple do?"

Saint Emperor Zhou's expression was uncontrollably excited.

The Qi Sect had been in decline for countless years, countless times dreaming back to the initial era.

Could this day arrive?

The bear-man elder shook his head and laughed:

"I never left; how could I speak of returning."

"This... Ancestor, one more thing, the Mystic Sky Spirit Tree you left was taken to the Demon Realm Abyss by a traitor, now it is likely in grave danger."

"No worries, I'm already aware. Everything is as it should be."

The bear-man elder spoke profoundly, then slowly dissipated.

Saint Emperor Zhou, somewhat anxious, said:

"Ancestor, where are you going?"

"I am still here, always here, you should go back now."

A calming voice echoed.

Saint Emperor Zhou left the Seven-colored Fairyland with complex feelings.

He saw countless Qi Sect disciples looking up expectantly.

The Four Sons of Qi Sect came forward, asking:

"Lord Saint Emperor, did you meet the Ancestral Grandmaster?"

"Yes."

Upon hearing a definite answer.

Chapter 2716: Qi Sect Sixth Realm! Encircling the Godlike!

All the Qi Sect disciples were incredibly shocked.

Even Levi, who had already guessed it, felt a bit emotional.

"The path of the Energy Sect is truly extraordinary."

A group of people surrounded the Holy Emperor, talking incessantly.

Levi also returned to the Ancient Banyan Fairyland.

The next era would be the new age of the Qi Sect. .

This ancient transcendental system could also bloom a second spring.

It might even advance further.

...

Abyss.

Layer 167.

This was the private garden of Flame Demon Tyrant Kasas.

On this day.

This Level 10 Flame Demon, as usual, came to observe the growth of the "Magic Vine."

Ever since it bore gourds.

For the past hundred years, this Magic Vine changed almost daily.

Now, it had already reached a height of a hundred thousand zhang.

The dense vines and leaves blotted out the sky, continuously spreading afar, covering thousands of miles.

This scene, like a true World Tree.

"Good, good indeed."

Flame Demon Tyrant, like a farmer reaping a harvest, couldn't hide his joy.

To nourish this Magic Tree.

He spared no expense.

Consuming his countless years of stored cores of the Abyss entirely.

Just level 9 ones, there were forty-nine.

As for other levels, they were too numerous to count.

With such meticulous care, this Magic Tree had not disappointed him.

Visible growth by the day.

Gourds hung high under the tree.

Demonic aura of different attributes was pervading within.

Dense life force burst forth, as if there was a heartbeat sound.

Suddenly, the seven demon gourds buzzed, shooting beams of light.

"A hundred years of nurturing, it's finally about to emerge?"

Flame Demon Tyrant murmured, somewhat expectant.

He had a premonition these seven "Demon Fetuses."

If used well, might further enhance his strength.

"Kings and princes, is there a certain breed among them!"

This Surgard can be the Fire Demon Lord.

Casas can be too!

He radiated a level 10 presence, sweeping towards the Magic Tree.

A terrifying Flame Demon pressure erupted!

"I am Flame Demon Tyrant Kasas! Submit to me!"

A giant Flame Demon silhouette emerged as tall as the heavens and the earth.

He grasped in the void, easily manipulating tens of thousands of miles.

The seven beams of light were sealed within, colliding frantically, to no avail.

Flame Demon Tyrant sneered: "I nurtured you, naturally, I can destroy you, I am your father, don't be ungrateful...call me daddy!"

This overbearing will pressed towards the seven beams of light.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The seven beams of light frantically gathered elemental power.

Then turned into seven uncertain doll silhouettes.

After their birth, they kept growing.

Their presence climbed level by level, until reaching the Ninth Level Realm.

But before Flame Demon Tyrant, still inadequate.

He waved his large hand, grasping the seven dolls in his palm.

"So disobedient, indeed Demon Fetuses! Good, very good!"

Flame Demon Tyrant opened his blood-filled mouth to swallow them.

When unsure, just eat them directly.

Rumble!

An unexpected change happened: the towering Magic Vine started to stir.

It manipulated this world, spreading overwhelming demonic power.

Caught off guard, Flame Demon Tyrant was entwined.

He unleashed terrifying Flame Demon flames, burning the Magic Vine.

Yet on the Magic Vine flowed pitch-black Demon Water, extinguishing it.

Then a chilling aura burst forth, freezing the Flame Demon Tyrant.

Meanwhile, the seven dolls broke free from the restraint.

They cheered and leaped together.

Combining into a white doll.

Faintly, it actually carried a nearly level 10 presence.

It opened its mouth, spewing forth seven distinct demonic aura powers.

"Damn it, what kind of ghostly thing is this!"

Flame Demon Tyrant hadn't expected, one day he'd fail under a tree.

The Magic Vine continued to extend vines, piercing its invulnerable Demon Body.

They ignored the high temperature, traversing within, roaming.

Within every piece of its flesh, bone, and every organ.

All were like capillary vines.

A sense of helplessness spread.

He felt he was being sidelined.

The vines were reshaping his body, even his consciousness.

The more he struggled, the tighter the binding became.

And that white doll's presence grew stronger.

Bang! Accompanied by a breakthrough of some critical point.

The white doll's presence reached level 10!

At the same time, terrifying Seven-colored Tribulation descended from the sky!

It transformed into a beam, drilling into the dying Flame Demon Tyrant.

Inside it had dramatically changed, becoming a shell for the parasitic Magic Vine.

Then, the two fused into one.

Seven-Colored Qi surrounded it.

Finally.

A silhouette of a handsome black-haired youth in seven-colored robes emerged.

His eyes encompassed everything with a hint of madness!

"Seven Qi Combined to Form Demon Soul, ancient eras nurturing Demon Fetus, the True Magic Vine sculpting Demon Body, indeed the first demon of creation! I am... Primordial Demon Lord!"

Boom!

Accompanied by the Flame Demon Tyrant's fall.

An even more terrifying level 10 existence was born.

A being named [Primordial Demon Lord] transcended the tribulation.

He exuded an unparalleled presence, reigning supreme through eternity.

With each gesture, Seven-colored demonic aura burst forth.

Seven distinct anomalies caused the Abyss' 167th layer to tremble.

"What are you? Where is the Flame Demon Tyrant?"

Suddenly, the mountain-like, statue-like demon body descended.

It was the [Green Steel Demon King], lord of the Abyss' 168th layer.

Flame Demon Tyrant's neighbor.

Feeling the commotion here, he came to investigate.

Only to find a strange figure that seemed neither demon nor not.

The black-haired youth glanced at Green Steel Demon King.

The latter, though an experienced level 10 demon, had a chilling sensation.

Chapter 2717: Qi Sect Sixth Realm! Encircling and Slaying the Mythical!

It punched out, and the fist wind stretched for ninety thousand miles, tearing apart everything in its path.

"You ask what I am? I am a demon, a true demon!"

The black-haired youth waved his hand, and the Yin Yang Fish composed of seven-colored demonic aura rotated.

The fist wind sank into it, like clay oxen entering the sea.

"This..."

The Green Steel Demon King's expression changed.

Boom! The next moment, the fist wind returned to attack itself unchanged!

Crack! The indestructible Vajra Demon Body was shattered.

The wind tightens pull call!

Neighbor's business, what's it got to do with me!

The Green Steel Demon King employed the best strategy out of thirty-six strategies and quickly fled.

In the Abyss, strong individuals are as numerous as clouds; naturally, someone will come to deal with this demon.

Meanwhile.

The 663rd layer of the Abyss.

A figure entirely pitch black, like god-like demon, opened its ancient eyes.

It is the Ancient Star Demon Lord, the most wise Fallen Star LordOgrian of the Abyss.

On its demon body, there are countless star spots.

Each spot seems to connect to another world.

It muttered to itself, as if calculating something.

Suddenly, its expression changed.

"How can there be such a demon? No, it's not a demon, what is this thing?"

Immediately, it closed its eyes.

Out of sight, out of mind.

After all, it lives on the 663rd layer of the Abyss, carefree and without worry.

For now, the urgent matter is to step into a higher realm.

Becoming the servant of the Supreme Will of the Abyss is stronger than anything.

...

Seven-colored Fairyland.

On the Immortal Mountain, the scriptures of the Mixed Element Dao Scripture flash like stars.

In the ethereal void, the sound of lecturing spreads and dissipates.

Dimensions beyond common understanding.

Above the Qi Sect Fifth Realm, the higher realm.

This is "above the Nine Heavens," this is "White Jade City."

In the Jade Palace, there is a consciousness seated here.

It is like a human, like a bear, like a male, like a female, difficult to gaze upon.

It is composed entirely of Dense Qi and scriptures.

It is a "life form" beyond the realm of ordinary understanding.

It sits atop a mat, with a duster beside it.

In its hand is a scripture composed of Chinese characters, the Tao Te Ching, reciting it.

[All things carry the yin and embrace the yang, blend qi to achieve harmony...]

Suddenly, it reveals a smile.

This is the smile of enlightenment!

"Sauron says, diligently studying this scripture helps me understand the path of the Energy Sect, allowing me a glimpse into the elusive Sixth Realm... Sauron honestly does not deceive me, a demon fetus is also a mystical fetus, a true demon is as well a true immortal, this Sixth Realm, is quite interesting."

...

Seven years later.

Nora Calendar 1477.

Blood Battle 1365.

Levi is 1900 years old.

He opens the proficiency panel.

Levi—————

Light Giant: Twenty-stage (1/20 million)

...

Recently, the Light Series spells.

He has researched and developed a complete series.

From first-circle to eighth-circle, including protection, attack, defense, life preservation, etc.

When reaching ninth-circle, on a whim.

He developed a summon spell similar to Primordial Magnetic Giant Soldier.

Which is today's Light Giant.

Levi lightly pointed his finger.

Sky light gathered like a river.

The endless power of light congealed into a giant with a dignified figure.

On its chest, there is also a flashing indicator light.

"I will attack in Ultraman Tiga Form!"

In a thought.

This Light Giant emitted a terrifying light beam.

Cutting through all things, dissolving everything.

A level 9 demon simply cannot withstand its attack.

"Not bad, it can be considered top-grade."

Levi was very satisfied.

He believes.

His spell will definitely spread throughout the Bright Faction. The Light Giant against demons could be said to be perfectly matched.

After finishing this. .

He broke through constraints, stepped into the Second Layer Heaven.

Then, wrapped in Double Holy Realm Power, Levi sped through the heavens and earth.

His speed became even faster!

Upon completing the ability experiment, he passed through to Sorren Continent.

He saw the Daydreamer who had just finished a meeting.

"Levi, is there something you need?"

"Senior, I'd like to ask for your help."

"Speak."

"I want to take action against some Nightmare Overlords in the Nightmare World, but relying solely on my own strength, even if I can defeat them, it might alarm the Nightmare Monarch behind them. Therefore, I'd like to ask if you have any strategy? As compensation, the profit division from Dreamland Steeple can be increased by another percent, and when you take action against Lost Monarch in the future, if I reach level 10, I will certainly assist you."

Seeing Levi wanting to collaborate with him.

The Daydreamer smiled.

"I understand, give me the list of targets you want to act on, and I can help analyze them for you... we can jointly develop a more detailed and comprehensive plan."

"Thank you, Senior!"

Levi put his anxious heart at ease.

With the assistance of this Legendary Wizard.

The plan is already half successful.

After the conversation.

The Daydreamer said:

"You don't need to rush this matter, meanwhile, there will be a major move by the congress over here, there is an action that you may want to participate in? It involves level 10."

Levi's expression froze.

"Level 10... With my current strength, do I have the qualification to participate?"

The Daydreamer chuckled and said:

"If you think you are qualified, then you are."

"Then please tell me, Senior."

"I will take you to the Supreme Council."

"Alright."

Thus.

Levi followed the Daydreamer to the round table.

Mr. Silver, Lady of Thunder, Edmund, Gullwig, Wind Empress.

A total of six Legendary Wizards.

Looking at Legendary Profession and Sect perspective.

Besides the Daydreamer. All are skilled in attack.

They weren't surprised to see Levi arrive.

"Please sit."

Edmund invited Levi to sit.

He said, "Demons have already launched two all-out invasions against us, we managed to defend, next, we want to take the initiative to counter-attack once, the target is to kill the Greedy Star Worm. This guy, under Pazuzu's orders, has been continuously devouring worlds near Nora for the past few hundred years, affecting the progress of plane convergence, it must be killed!"

Wizard: Starting With the Knights Breathing Method

Chapter 2718: Qi Sect Sixth Realm! Encirclement to Slay the Mythical!

Wizard: Starting With the Knights Breathing Method

Upon hearing this,

Levi's heart stirred.

As expected, the legendary wizards were preparing a Mythical Crystal for him.

Of course, given the Greedy Star Worm's habit of devouring worlds, even without Levi's request, these legendary wizards would find a way to deal with it themselves.

Edmund said, "According to intelligence, we have preliminary knowledge of the Greedy Star Worm's location. I need everyone present to exert force simultaneously, striving to annihilate it the moment it shows up! Otherwise, if Pazuzu and others react, we won't have another chance... Additionally, for this operation, a special friend will assist us, and after this operation, he may become part of our Supreme Council."

Levi said:

"Do you seniors need me to do anything?"

The Frost Witch said:

"Can you place us all in the Nightmare World?"

"I've never tried, but if it's just six legendary wizards, it should be possible."

"Good, then hide our six true forms in the Nightmare World. You will act as bait to lure the Greedy Star Worm out. Then, instantly summon us back from the Nightmare World."

"Seniors, can't we hide in the Exotic Treasure Inner Heaven and Earth or some small world?"

"No, such methods might be interfered with by the Greedy Star Worm's power, but the Nightmare World is of too high a specification for it to interfere."

"Understood."

Next,

The legendary wizards spoke to Levi about precautions.

After making his own preparations, the operation began.

...

Three years later.

Nora Calendar Year 1480.

Land of Darkness.

Deep in the boundless space.

Abyssal mouth suddenly appeared.

Billions of teeth, like those of a seven-gilled eel, spinning.

A suction like a black hole emerged.

Swallowing a small world with civilization on it.

Amidst the screeching crustal friction, explosion sounds.

A world, decimated.

The Star-devouring Worm.

Giant Beast devouring stars!

Soon after, the abyssal mouth vanished without a trace.

Suddenly, in the darkness, two giant eyes appeared like searchlights.

It pierced through the endless void, looking ahead.

A black-armored swordsman happened to be passing by.

He was in a hurry, heading towards Nora.

"Dusk Palace Master... hehe, truly 'seeking a needle in a haystack,' today I came across this gift, and I won't be courteous in taking it."

With a tremble in deep space,

The hunt began.

Using the Star-devouring Worm's level-ten methods,

It quickly caught up with the Dusk Palace Master.

The Star-devouring Worm knew very well the axiom that villains die from too much talking.

Without saying much, it suddenly opened its bloody maw behind the Dusk Palace Master.

A horrifying force of suction came.

Levi turned around and saw the incomparably vast black hole mouth.

His body uncontrollably flew towards it.

The Star-devouring Worm's sinister laughter echoed.

"Surprised? Unexpected? You're too far from matching me in the Abyss!"

Bang! Levi's body exploded into nothingness.

Soon after, the world of red and black reflected in the darkness.

One, two, three... up to six powerful auras appeared instantly.

Edmund, the Frost Witch, Mr. Silver...

From afar, Levi's form emerged, his heart pounding.

Looking at the astonished expression of the Greedy Star Worm, he exhaled and grinned:

"Translate for me, what exactly is a damn surprise!"

"You deceived me!"

The Greedy Star Worm tried to escape.

But found its body unable to move.

A biting cold wind swept in, freezing the entire world.

Under this power of extreme cold, space, even time, slowed down.

The Frost Witch, a cold expression on her face, appeared with the form of a Giant Witch Minister behind her, hands joined.

Legendary Spell Time Freeze!

Behind Mr. Silver a divine-like Silver Armor phantom appeared.

He held a Divine Bow, string drawn like a full moon.

Magnificent, radiant silver lightning illuminated the night sky.

Legendary Spell Silver Arrow!

The Lady of Thunder bathed in glorious purple lightning.

She sat regally on the Throne of Thunder like an Empress, her long legs displayed through the slit of her purple dress, with a purple sun of lightning behind her.

With a pointing gesture, the overwhelming power of the Thunder God gathered into a supreme divine authority, a Thunder God Illusion emerged across the sky.

In its hand was a greatsword, slashing across the sky like a rainbow piercing the sun.

Legendary Spell Thunder God!

The Wind Empress chanted verses about the storm.

With each poetic verse that fell,

Came fierce winds from all corners of the Universe.

They mercilessly obliterated everything before the Empress, waging war across the Greater World!

Legendary Spell Universal Wind!

Meanwhile, the Daydreamer seemed to do nothing.

In reality, he had begun long ago.

Surrounded by no less than six legendary wizards,

The Greedy Star Worm seemed lost in a dream.

Just a momentary sink.

It missed all opportunities for survival.

It never got the chance to use any trump cards! .

One Legendary spell after another exploded in the Land of Darkness.

The most dazzling, undoubtedly, was Edmund's Eternal Blazing Sun.

Under limitless light and heat,

All other Legendary spells paled in comparison.

This was an overwhelming strike!

An assured lethal blow!

Across the world, those who could remain unharmed under such an assault were few.

There were some, but they didn't include the Greedy Star Worm.

Boom!

After a world-shattering explosion,

Everything ended.

The Lord of Greedy Star deserved to be an undying existence.

Despite such a terrifying blow,

It was not dead.

Its true form revealed, a bright red charred worm-like being.

With an extremely tenacious life force, it resisted these terrifying powers.

Chapter 2719: Qi Sect Sixth Realm! Encirclement and Slaughter of the God!

Wizard: Starting With the Knights Breathing Method

But Edmund had already made preparations.

"Blazing Universe!"

He closed his eyes, embracing this cold universe with both hands!

Endless light and heat turned everything in Levi's sight into a scarlet world!

If viewed from a God's Eye View,

One would find a heart-like giant phantom appearing in the Land of Darkness.

It pulsed, making the universe resonate with it.

The star-devouring worm trying to sever an arm to save itself was drawn into it.

"Edmund!"

Carrying immense resentment, this Level 10 Strongman vanished without a trace.

Levi murmured, his expression shaken.

"Lord Emmon's Demiplane... Blazing Universe."

In his heart, the legendary honorifics for this Grand Council Chairman emerged.

[The undying flame of the dust world, the sun that never sets!]

Along with his legendary profession [Mortal Dust True Yang]!

At this moment, he gained a deeper understanding of these.

"Council President, are you alright?"

Seeing Edmund after he had absorbed the star-devouring worm,

Others couldn't help but express their concern.

"No worries, the first step was successful... Next, we go to meet another friend. Levi, you should head back, the ensuing battle is too dangerous, and we can't ensure your safety." Edmund said.

Levi said solemnly, "Take care, seniors!"

He was so eager to advance to Level 10.

To fight alongside these seniors.

Unfortunately, his strength was still insufficient.

He traveled the Void, returning home quickly.

Six Legendary Wizards quietly headed to the next battlefield.

...

Abyss, 660th Layer.

The atmosphere was filled with love, sex, and the aura of procreation.

A milky white liquid flowed, transforming into an ocean.

If Levi were here, he would recognize it.

This is [Pleasure Water].

It was one of the raw materials he used in refining the Succubus Potion.

Here, it is endless and inexhaustible.

Above the ocean of pleasure, a magnificent purple bedchamber floated.

Towering figures indulged and reveled within it.

On the throne, the succubus queen enjoyed all this, emitting alluring hums.

Suddenly, she opened her eyes, her expression shaken.

"Damn it, the Lord of Star Devouring is in trouble too, is this wastrel Pazuzu capable or not? Why is it always my people who die every time!"

The succubus queen, filled with coldness, said.

Though she cursed, she had no intention of leaving the throne.

For this Blood Battle, she had already done her best.

...

The Land of Darkness.

The Demon Camp.

Pazuzu, plotting the next all-out war, widened its eyes.

It hadn't yet recovered from the sudden attack on the Greedy Star Worm.

When new sudden events simultaneously erupted.

In the Deep, a magma-flowing abyssal well manifested.

Appearing before them was not its owner, the Flame Demon Tyrant Casas.

But an unfamiliar figure in a seven-colored mystical robe.

His black hair danced, exuding an evil air and an unrivaled domineering aura.

"Who are you?" The Master of Deep Diving, Shuster of the Abyss's 235th layer, sensed changes here, quickly arrived, revealing the true form of a Level 10 Fish Demon.

The black-haired youth raised his hand, releasing seven-colored Sword Qi all over the sky.

Thunder, flame, frost...

The Master of Deep Diving dared not face it head-on, leaving behind a Black Sea to counter it, then left.

The present demon strongmen were somewhat baffled.

They could sense the demonic aura of the black-haired youth.

Yet at the same time, they felt something different about him.

"What audacity."

Pazuzu snorted coldly, sending forth a terrifying imposing pressure.

The black-haired youth, having just entered Level 10, was naturally far from a match.

He simply swept towards the Deep in space, with a group of demons pursuing.

When Pazuzu and the others were about to enclose him,

Suddenly in the distance, figures of Legendary Wizards appeared.

"It's a trap, retreat first!"

Pazuzu sensed the presence of Edmund and others, deciding to temporarily withdraw.

This black-haired youth was too uncanny.

No one knew his origin.

It suspected he might be a wizard's plant, a spy in the Abyss.

Turbulent demonic aura quickly dispersed.

Leaving only the black-haired youth standing in the Deep in space, gazing at those Legendary Wizards ahead.

Edmund asked, "Could you be the Origin Holy Emperor?"

The black-haired youth smiled, "I can be him, and also not... but right now, I prefer others to call me the Primordial Demon Lord Xuan!"

The Frost Witch's expression was grave.

From this newly emerged Level 10 being,

She perceived traits completely different from Legendary Wizards.

This was an indescribable feeling.

She asked:

"You contacted us, you probably have something to ask."

The black-haired youth said, "I want to leave this universe. This isn't the place I should be, nor should I be for this universe."

His words sounded puzzling.

Yet the Legendary Wizards present seemed to have some understanding.

Especially Edmund, the Grand Council Chairman.

The Multidimensional Plane, vast and boundless, infinitely fascinating.

It is home to billions of life forms... but not for everyone.

Across endless ages, some anomalies always arise.

There will be true "foreigners" arriving in the Multidimensional Universe.

This is no secret to beings like Edmund.

Ancestor Wizard Sorren was a foreigner from another space-time!

His concepts, allegories, and phrases, differing from this universe,

All came from the homeland Sorren mentioned in his letters.

Edmund pondered for a moment, then said, "We can cooperate. You assist us in conquering the Abyss, then we will find a way to send you to the place you wish to go."

The black-haired youth extended his hand, smiling:

"Pleasure to cooperate!"

Chapter 2720: Rescuing a Level-10! Green Emperor Dragon!

The dark-haired youth left.

He refused the invitation to join the Supreme Council.

He said there were other matters to resolve.

However, if it involved battling the Abyss, he would come.

Edmund and the others returned to the Supreme Council.

At the round table, the Frost Witch asked:

"This Primordial Demon Lord carries a body full of demonic aura. Could he be influenced by the Abyss Will? Collaborating with him might be as dangerous as seeking a tiger's help."

Mr. Silver also expressed his concern.

"This person is somewhat peculiar, hard for me to grasp. After all, he is still somewhat different from the Origin Holy Emperor... We must be cautious in our dealings with him."

Edmund nodded slightly.

"I had these concerns before, but before meeting Xuan, the Origin Holy Emperor had already reached out to me. After communicating with him, I feel that collaboration isn't a big issue. If he truly becomes a threat to Nora in the future, we will eliminate him."

Lady of Thunder said, "That may be true, but the potential of this Primordial Demon Lord is quite terrifying. He masters all the sects of the Energy Sect, and upon initially reaching the tenth level, he turned against the Flame Demon Tyrant Casas. If he grows, there may be few within our Supreme Council who can surely defeat him."

The Daydreamer smiled slightly.

"I don't think there's a need to panic. The Primordial Demon Lord seems uninterested in the disputes over interests in our world. My spells have observed his words to be truthful... Moreover, in Nora, there are also multiple sect co-practitioners, including knights and wizards on dual paths. I believe Levi's ability is enough to suppress him in the future."

Upon hearing Levi's name, everyone nodded slightly.

"That's true."

Edmund said:

"Rest assured, everyone, this matter won't be a problem. Our current priority is to unite more tenth-level powers, forming alliances to resist the Abyss. As time progresses, the situation will increasingly turn in our favor. We must seize this time to gain more allies. When the right opportunity arises, it will mark the beginning of our counterattack against the Abyss."

He added:

"Next, there is a friend about to reach the tenth level. If nothing unexpected happens, it will be the first alien race powerhouse in the Supreme Council... However, it has encountered some small troubles, and the Daydreamer and I may leave Nora for a while. During this period, I ask you all to protect Nora well!"

"Who is it?" Lady of Thunder asked.

"The Blue Dream Star Lord, the president of the Blue Onyx Chamber of Commerce. It reached the tenth-level realm a thousand years ago but encountered some accident, getting trapped in the dream of a powerful God in the astral world. Recently, through the bloodline secret technique, it called for help in dreams to its descendants left outside. After the Daydreamer and I studied and analyzed, we feel it's a genuine matter, so we plan to make a trip."

Edmund's expression remained calm, showing no fear of confronting powerful Gods.

The Daydreamer laughed:

"I have some research on dreams and have had experiences similar to the Blue Dream Star Lord, so I will participate in this action. Additionally, I have some interest in the renowned Dream Lady, and this is a good opportunity to see."

According to the "Star Realm Atlas" of the Wizard World:

Dream Lady Hillin.

Resides in the Thousand Hills Countries, with the Divine Kingdom located behind the Door of Beautiful Dreams.

She is a powerful Divine Power User.

Her God's Authority involves dreams, illusions, sleep, and more.

Under her command, there is also a group of Subordinate Gods.

Among them, there is a well-known Intermediate Divine Power User.

Sleep God and Dream God Chupnos.

And this being is now slumbering within the Lost Monarch.

Most people steer clear of dreams.

Such abilities may not seem as destructive as flames, lightning, and other abilities.

In reality, they are even more terrifying.

Many people find themselves unwittingly deeply trapped in dreams, unable to extricate themselves.

The Daydreamer deeply understands this.

The best way to eliminate fear is to face it.

He will inevitably have another showdown with the Lost Monarch.

Testing his skills against a powerful deity in advance is also beneficial.

Especially with Edmund on his side for support.

Their combined strength can shake almost every presence on the Multidimensional Plane.

Additionally, among demons, there is also a terrifying entity skilled in the path of dreams.

Eternal SlumberCelestia.

The lord of the 657th layer of the Abyss.

She is also a potential enemy of Nora.

Not participating in the Blood Battle now doesn't mean forever abstaining.

"Be careful, you don't need to worry about Nora. We will protect it here, waiting for your triumph!" the Frost Witch said.

In recent years, for all-out war,

Edmund and a group of legendary wizards ran east and west.

All to recruit more allies.

All legendary wizards believe.

The Blood Battle will surely be overcome.

Because they have a strong and reliable Grand Council Chairman.

As the saying goes among the legendary ones:

The undying flame of the mundane world, the Sun that never sets!

He has a heart that can set the entire universe ablaze!

...

Above the Nine Heavens, at the Jade Palace.

An elder bearman held a whisk, looking down with lowered eyes.

A figure leisurely approached, hands behind his back.

His black hair was flowing, and he exuded freedom.

The visitor was Primordial Demon Lord Xuan.

He arrived in a mysterious realm that only those in the Qi Sect Sixth Realm could access.

Origin Holy Emperor said:

"Sauron is right. Our path doesn't align well with this universe, but traveling to another universe is easier said than done."

The black-haired youth said:

"We have to try. Do you remember? Sauron once described the myths of another world. There are countless Gods and Buddhas there, a resplendent heavenly path. I feel that's where the Energy Sect truly belongs. Here, just reaching the tenth level requires us countless years of planning."
