Chapter 287: Eleventh Level! (3)

Some of these sub-dimensional portal bubbles were the Realm of the Unbelievers of other schools.

The other part was the uninhabited Shadow Realm.

"It's like this. In a month's time, there will be an entrance to the Shadow Realm that will overlap with the Realm of Azure Cloud. The coordinates will be in the open seas of our sea area. According to the 'Shadow Realm Peaceful Development Act' of the Pan-Plane Wizard Council, other than the dark wizard organizations and dark wizards, all the wizard organizations and wizards in the vicinity are qualified to send people to explore this Shadow Realm."

"At the same time, according to the rules of the bill, in order to prevent the various forces from causing a large-scale civil war between official wizards due to the uneven distribution of resources in the Shadow Realm, the effective strength of the wizard community would be weakened."

"Therefore, in the exploration of the Shadow Realm, the strength of the wizards who enter would be divided according to the size and danger of the Shadow Realm. At the same time, it was advocated that wizards should carry out friendly mutual assistance and peaceful win-win exploration to avoid military conflicts."

"The realm that is about to appear this time was called the "Black Fog Realm". According to the classification standards of the Pan -Plane Wizard Council, it is a small-scale low-risk realm. The upper limit of the dangerous factors in it would not be higher than the second-circle."

"This time, our Gray Tower also got a quota, but our tower only has two first-circle wizards now. Mr. Tim and I will go to the Star Tower to study for a year next month. This opportunity is very precious, and Tower Master doesn't want us to give it up."

"We can't lead the team, and Granny Marlene and Tower Master are both in the second-circle, so they don't have the qualifications to enter."

"Although there are certain dangers in the Shadow Realm, there are some precious resources that are not available in the Realm of Azure Cloud because the Shadow Realm had not been developed."

"Many key resources can only be found in the Shadow Realm. For example, the alchemy material 'Stone Heart' that Tower Master needs has once appeared in the Black Fog Realm."

"Levi, the Stone Heart is extremely important to our Gray Tower. If Tower Master has this material, he has a high chance of successfully advancing to the third-circle."

"This way, our Gray Tower will become a third-circle wizard force in one fell swoop, and we won't have to listen to Whale Song Island for everything."

"As for small characters like the Undead Ship, there is a chance to destroy them in one fell swoop."

"Therefore, I hope that you can lead the team to the Shadow Realm. You only need to find the Stone Heart. If you find the Stone Heart, you can obtain a reward of 1000 points or 500 Aether Stones from the tower."

"Other than that, we won't ask for the other resources, medicinal herbs, or the Wizard Tools of the dead explorers that you obtained in the Shadow Realm.”

“You can choose five apprentice wizards yourself. That way, even if the six of the apprentice wizards go, we won’t break the rules of the Pan-Plane Wizard

Council.’

Mr. Marko’s expression was solemn, and so were the others.

When Levi heard about Stone Heart, he could roughly guess what Tower Master wanted.

Alchemy heart...

In the end, he had still come to this stage.

Levi was not in a hurry to refuse.

He calmly asked, “Teachers, I understand what you’re saying. However, although I’m a legendary knight, whether it’s attack methods or knowledge, I’m definitely not as good as the First-Circle Wizards led by other forces. I’m afraid that I won’t be able to complete the mission and disappoint everyone’s expectations of me.”

The difference between First-Circle Wizards was not small. Mastering one First-Ring Spell was considered first-circle, and mastering seven or eight First-Ring Spells was also considered first-circle...

"Don't worry about that. We've already discussed this with the wizard leading Sighing Sea Breeze. After we enter the secret plane, that official wizard will help us to the best of his ability. Sighing Sea Breeze has always had a good relationship with us. If you encounter any trouble that you can't solve, you can ask those wizards for help," said Marko.

"How about this, teachers? Give me a month to consider it. Moreover, I still need more detailed information about the Black Fog Realm." Levi was not in a hurry to refuse.

To be honest, he was indeed a little tempted by the things inside. However, he had never explored the Shadow Realm before, so he was a little uncertain.

"Alright, we won't force you to do this. After all, the reason why the Shadow Realm is called the Shadow Realm is that there must be a certain degree of danger. After you go back, take a good look at the information about the Black Fog Realm," said Marko.

Levi nodded and left the seventh floor of the White Tower after receiving permission to do so

In the conference room, Tower Master sighed, "The number of official wizards in our tower is still too small. It's indeed a bit too much to trouble this kid."

"Hmph, it's fine as long as you know. Although Levi is a legendary knight, other organizations will definitely send their most experienced First-Circle Wizard to lead the team in order to obtain more rewards. Levi will be at a disadvantage." Ms. Marlene looked displeased.

She was not satisfied with the plan proposed by these people.

"Tower Master, if it really doesn't work, let me go," said Marko.

Tower Master shook his head and said, "Let's wait for Levi's reply first. I've consulted a wizard who has entered the Black Fog Realm before. He knows some more secret information about the Black Fog Realm."

"The place where the Stone Heart is located is close to the center of the Black Fog Realm. There seemed to be an indescribable power there that could disrupt a wizard's spiritual force and affect a wizard's spellcasting. That was why I wanted Levi to make a move. In my opinion, if they really entered the center of the Black Fog Realm, those so-called experienced wizards might not be a Match for Levi.."
