

Wizard 299

Chapter 299: Shifting Shadows, Killing! (6)

However, with the information provided by the tower, he managed to find some traces of the Rock Trolls. After collecting the aura of the Rock Trolls from those traces, Levi began to track them.

On the fifth day, Levi had been wandering around the inner region. During this time, he had even encountered people from Whale Song Island and that unfamiliar aura once.

Levi could sense that the number of explorers in the inner region had decreased significantly. Many of them had retreated in the face of difficulties, while some had been killed by the people from Whale Song Island.

Now, these people must have gathered a lot of resources from the Shadow Realm that other wizards had found. They were all extremely rich in resources.

This made Levi even more determined to kill these people from Whale Song Island.

Suddenly, Levi stopped, stuck out the snake's trust, and pulled it back. He had been chasing after the Rock Trolls' aura.

Finally, he found the source of this aura, which came from a huge rocky beach. About ten miles away from him, there were four Rock Trolls' presences entrenched there.

"I actually found the Rock Troll Tribe."

Levi's heart skipped a beat.

Rock Trolls usually lived alone. If they were in a group, it meant that it was the mating season. A couple of Rock Trolls were taking care of their offspring together.

An adult Rock Troll had the strength of a first-circle veteran wizard and had mastered four powerful spell abilities such as [Rock Thorn] and [Rock Burst].

Most importantly, the Rock Troll's thick rock armor might not be much weaker than his Black Scale in its Solid State.

Levi could only deal with one of such existences at the same time. There was no way he could deal with so many of them.

However, Levi did not hesitate to head in the direction of the Rock Troll Tribe. He held the Shifting Scroll in his hand and looked determined.

As he got closer and closer to the Rock Troll Tribe, Levi could already hear the jabbering conversation between the Rock Trolls with his Advanced Hearing. They were speaking in the Troll language, and it might be a Troll language that was unique to this Shadow Realm. Li Wei could not understand it at all.

When he was about a mile away from the Rock Troll Tribe, Levi's body was surrounded by black gas. The snack's trust started moving and covered his entire body with Black Scales. His muscles bulged, and Blood Wings appeared behind him. Then, he flapped his wings and accelerated!

There were four Rock Trolls in the Rock Troll Tribe. The tallest was six meters tall, and the shortest was only two meters tall.

This was a family of four. The six-meter-tall Rock Troll was the father, and the shorter five-meter-tall Rock Troll was the mother. They were roasting meat with fire for consumption. Rock Trolls had high intelligence and had mastered the technique of using fire.

The family of four happily roasted meat and chatted.

Suddenly, a “little black dwarf” who was more than 2.5 meters tall and covered in black scales barged in.

The short man shot out black blades as soon as he came up.

The black blade struck the Rock Troll’s body, leaving only shallow scratches. It did not break through its defense.

Only the two immature Rock Trolls were in pain after Levi’s black gas broke their defenses. They were crying out in pain and even had earthen yellow blood nowmg out.

The six-meter-tall troll father immediately flew into a rage. It waved its giant hand and slammed it on the ground, activating its spell ability, Rock Thorn!

Suddenly, sharp stone spikes shot out from the ground under Levi.

The Bright Gold Protection flickered, but it was broken after a while.

The remaining thorns shot towards Levi. Levi used his Frost Giant Armor and solid-state Black Scale to block the attack, and he was sent flying. He used this force to leap high and descend from the sky.

Before the Rock Trolls could react...

Levi held onto the Frostmourne and used his Golden Cross Slash with all his might. He stabbed it into the heart of a small Rock Troll.

Although the little rock troll had the strength of a high-level apprentice wizard, it could not withstand a single blow from Levi.

Its Stone Heart, which had yet to take shape, was instantly shattered by Levi.

It died on the spot!

This infuriated the Rock Troll couple. They charged at Levi in anger.

Instead of dodging, Levi charged at the father.

A giant spiked club had appeared in the troll father's hand out of nowhere and was hurled towards Levi with tremendous force. At the same time, the Rock Troll's spell ability began to accumulate power. Rocks around Levi began to explode like bombs, sending shockwaves and gravel sweeping through the air.

At the critical moment, the scroll in Levi's hand turned into ashes after it was activated. A mighty force descended from the sky. Levi seemed to see the stars in the sky, and in an instant, the world spun, and his figure shifted!

Levi disappeared.

Instead, he was replaced by the Shark Tiger Witch, Bane, who had a sinister look on his face and was ready to kill Levi at lightning speed.

However, in the next moment, Bane's expression changed from sinister to shocked.

Boom!

He had been through hundreds of battles and knew that he might have been tricked. He immediately activated his fastest technique, the Wave Layering Technique.

This kind of cantrip was nothing in front of the Rock Troll's spiked club!

Only a strength-type legendary knight like the Fist of the Empire could compare to the strength of a six-meter-tall Troll.

Bane's robe flickered with the light of runes. He was sent flying by the heavy blow and spat out blood. Behind him, a huge shadow appeared. It was another adult Rock Troll. She was furious and charged at Bane with a huge stone pot.

"Damn it!"

A hundred miles away.

The apprentice wizards of Whale Song Island looked at Wizard Bane who had suddenly disappeared.

"Hahaha, that Levi must have been frightened by us and was preparing to leave the Shadow Realm. In the end, he was discovered by Deli."

"Let's wait for Bane's good news."

The three high-level apprentice wizards were gloating. The silent Jagri sat not far away as if he had been alienated.

Suddenly, he realized that there seemed to be a ray of light descending from the sky in the fog behind his senior brothers.

As the light illuminated this area, in the fog.

A three-meter-tall, three-headed, six-armed, terrifying evil spirit that was holding a sword in each hand suddenly appeared!

Boom,

There seemed to be thunder in the sky

Along with Green Ghost Carter's strange cry.

His three senior brothers were instantly killed in front of the three-headed, six-armed, and nine-sword-wielding terrifying evil spirit! The nine swords danced wildly and were indestructible!

Any defensive cantrip was like paper!

Levi kicked away the heads beside his feet, swiftly put away their storage bags, and released the Saint Scorpions to enjoy the delicacies.

He stood proudly on the ground and looked at Green Ghost Carter, who had appeared out of nowhere. The corners of his mouth curled up, and he licked his lips with his snake tongue. The Black Scale on his body assembled.

"Familiarity breeds contempt....Let me send you off!"
