Chapter 304: Fighting Nightmare Knights, Eliminating Green Ghost Carter, Obtaining the Stone Heart! (5)

He realized that this energy core had only consumed about 2% of its energy.

"This way, I don't have to worry about the energy problem of Green Ghost

Carter for the time being. Most of the time, I don't need him to use a First-Ring

Spell. It won't consume much energy unless I'm in a combat state."

He recalled that Green Ghost Carter had summoned two Hell Strongmen back at Silent Harbor. Unfortunately, he had been too busy running for his life to think of this.

"By the way, I can get Green Ghost Carter to summon the Hell Strongman and kill it myself. Wouldn't that form a cycle?"

Levi suddenly thought of a problem.

However, the Undead Summoning spell could only be cast once a day. Levi could only experiment with it tomorrow.

Moreover, Green Ghost Carter had already become a living dead. Whether or not he could use a First-Ring Spell like the Undead Summoning that was much more complicated than the Soul Flame was a problem.

However, if it was possible, Levi would not have to worry about the Core of the Undead anymore.

After resting for a night, Levi's injuries had not recovered, but his stamina had almost recovered.

"I wonder how the battle on the Rock Trolls' side is going. Bane shouldn't be able to withstand two first-circle veteran wizard-level Rock Trolls.' Levi disappeared with Green Ghost Carter.

He returned to the rocky beach where the Rock Troll was found.

This place was filled with traces of a huge battle. One could vaguely feel the residual elemental energy from last night's spell collision.

He did not find the Rock Troll or Bane.

He only found the corpses of two Rock Trolls.

He used a storage bag to store the small Rock Troll.

He had an idea to turn the Rock Troll family of four into living dead and reunite them in another way!

This way, he would have five living dead with Green Ghost Carter.

It was already the sixth day. Basically, most people were already rushing back.

Levi was still searching for the whereabouts of the Rock Troll.

As for Bane, Levi was worried that he didn't see his corpse.

In the end, he relied on the Black Snake's Message.

He found the Rock Troll and Bane in a valley.

Among the two Rock Trolls, one of the females was already dead. The other was holding Bane's corpse and gnawing on it, wailing from time to time.

"Dead?"

Levi originally wanted to capture Bane alive and see if he could get some information. Now, it seemed like there was no hope.

Although Bane was strong, he was caught off guard and was sent into the territory of two adult Rock Trolls. In the end, after killing one, he was no match for the other strongest male Rock Troll and died.

"Very good. It won't be a problem to deal with a Rock Troll with the help of Green Ghost Carter."

He was not in a hurry to go forward. He wanted to see if Green Ghost Carter could use a summoning spell. If he could summon a Nightmare Knight, he would directly kill the Rock Troll.

Levi gave Green Ghost Carter an order to use the second -ring spell—Nightmare Summoning!

Green Ghost Carter stood rooted to the ground in confusion.

"The second circle should be out of the question. Let's try the first circle."

Levi got Green Ghost Carter to use the First-Ring Spell, Undead Summon.

Then, Green Ghost Carter muttered something and a green array appeared in front of him.

A Hell Strongman burning with green ghost fire appeared at the array.

"Only one? This old ghost can only summon two at a time. It seems that after becoming a living dead, the effects of spells have decreased." Levi was not discouraged.

This was how the living dead were. They weren't as strong as when they were alive.

It was enough to be able to summon the Hell Strongman. Why would he need a bicycle?

In the future, when he ran out of Core of the Undead, he would summon a Hell Strongman to kill it. Wouldn't it be great if he could produce and sell it himself?

He just didn't know if the summoning would succeed in the future.

After all, Levi had some knowledge about summoning. He knew that the summoned creatures in Hell might communicate with each other. It wouldn't be long before they discovered that the super big fish, Green Ghost Carter, would never return every time he was summoned.

As time passed, Green Ghost Carter's reputation plummeted and it could not be summoned.

However, this was not Levi's concern. At that time, he would not need to use the living dead of the Green Ghost Carter.

With a wave of Green Ghost Carter's hand, the Hell Strongman charged into the valley.

This strongman was three meters tall. In front of the six-meter-tall Rock Troll, he could only be considered small.

BOOM!

A collision.

The Hell Strongman was sent flying.

The Rock Troll only took a few steps back.

The difference in strength between the two sides was obvious.

Thankfully, the Hell Strongman was faster and more agile.

It got up, dodged, and continued to attack.

Green Ghost Carter also took this opportunity to finish casting the Soul Flame and attack the Rock Troll.

With Green Ghost Carter's Hell Strongman as a meat shield to attract the firepower, Levi's body was covered in Black Scales, and Karmic Flames burned his body. Frost condensed his arms, his black feet bent, and his Blood Wings spread open. The Nine Swords Asura evil spirit appeared behind him.

He held Lion King's Pride, the only weapon he could still use, and charged at the Rock Troll.

The six-meter-tall Rock Troll was extremely strong. It sent the Hell

Strongman flying again and again. Cracks began to appear on the Hell Strongman's body. Clearly, it wouldn't be long before it was torn apart by the Rock Troll.

However, the Rock Troll had just experienced a huge battle last night. There were still many wounds on its body, and earth-yellow blood flowed out. This blood was rich in Earth elemental energy and was also known as "Stone Blood". Although it was not as precious as the Stone Heart, it was still a rare good thing.

An intense battle resounded throughout the valley. Under the siege of Levi and Green Ghost Carter,

In the end, the Rock Troll was defeated and killed by Levi.

The Hell Strongman had been torn apart again. Green Ghost Carter's reputation among the Hell Strongman group continued to decrease, and its favorability decreased by 1.

Levi looked at the big fellow that had breathed its last. The most important thing for him to enter the Shadow Realm this time was the Stone Heart.

He got Green Ghost Carter to guard the valley while he dug out the Stone Heart from the two Rock Trolls.

It was a translucent stone ball.

One of the Stone Hearts was larger and contained an extremely rich Earth elemental ability. A khaki aura rolled in the stone ball.

This was the alchemy material that the Tower Master needed.

The other one was slightly smaller, but it should be enough as alchemy materials.

After some thought, Levi decided to give the bigger one to the Tower Master.

This might increase his chances of advancing to the third ring.

After putting away the Stone Heart, Levi collected the Rock Troll's blood.

These things were good things whether they were kept as casting materials or potion materials in the future or sold for money.

"I've really made a killing."

Levi was overjoyed.

He used the Seal of Hell to inject the green energy core he had just taken from the Hell Strongman into the brain of one of the Rock Troll mothers.

After a while, the Rock Troll mother stood up.

Its five-meter-tall burly body was filled with pressure.

"Hahahaha, the Seven Generals of the Living-dead Family can finally make a comeback." Levi was a little excited.

Even though these two adult Rock Trolls had become living dead and had reduced their combat power, they definitely had the strength of a First-Circle Wizard, or even stronger. It could only be said that they were no longer as powerful as experienced wizards.

In addition to Green Ghost Carter, he had three living dead servants with the Strength of a First-Circle Wizard. Who below the second circle could defeat them?

In a non-combat situation, the energy consumption of the Rock Troll was much higher than that of the Green Ghost Carter. However, as long as he did not use spell-like abilities, the energy core of a Hell Strongman was enough to last him for a period of time.

He took away Bane's storage item. Bane's body had been torn apart and half of it had been eaten. He couldn't be a living dead anymore.

He had completed the Tower Master's mission perfectly and even obtained an extra Stone Heart. It could be said that he had gained a lot. He had to hurry back to the entrance.

He temporarily put the corpses of the four Rock Trolls and Green Ghost Carter into his ring and quickly rushed towards the entrance.

Along the way, there were basically no apprentice wizards still in this Shadow Realm.

He did not find Jagri, so he must have left. Although that kid was only a mid-level apprentice wizard, as an apprentice of the Island Master of Whale Song Island, he had a lot of good things on him.

If Jagri and Levi were not enemies, Levi felt that he could become good friends with him.

However, their factions were different. If they met again in the future, Levi would still kill him without hesitation. Otherwise, it would be troublesome if he grew up.

Levi arrived at the entrance without any obstructions. After making preparations, he left..
