Chapter 321: Saint Ape Emperor Mu, Black Snake Levi, Supreme Knight, King of the Century! 3

Kane did not waste any time. He immediately ordered the four apprentice wizards under him to charge at Levi.

Of the four apprentice wizards, two were high-level apprentice wizards and the other two were mid-level apprentice wizards. They were all from the Burning Faction. They began their attack by shooting four small fireballs at Levi. Their attack looked very intimidating.

Levi waved his Viper Wand and used Undead Bone Armor to protect his body while moving. The speed of a level 10 Blood Beast allowed him to far surpass the speed of wizards who had not buffed themselves with spells.

He dodged the fireballs one after another.

He attacked one of the mid-level apprentice wizards with a Soul Flame.

Since Levi wanted to pretend to be a member of the Undead Ship, he had to play the part thoroughly. Even when the Pan-Plane Wizard Council investigators came here in the future, they would label Levi as a member of the Undead Ship based on the remaining traces of his spells.

As he evaded their assault, Levi muttered something.

Recently, Levi had been cultivating Withering Ray to the maximum of level 4, and it was now much more potent than his Water Arrow. His Withering Ray glistened with gray light as it shot towards Kane, who was lying on the carpet.

Kane sneered. He waved his magic wand, and a flame barrier formed around him, blocking the Withering Ray.

"How dare you! You dare to attack an official wizard. It seems like you are very confident in whoever is backing you." Kane quickly chanted and cast a spell while waving his wand.

First-Ring Spell, Fireball Technique.

A fireball with a diameter of two meters flew toward Levi.

Seeing this, Levi immediately ordered the Rock Trolls and Green Ghost Carter, who were hiding to the side, to come out along with Hell Strongman, his summoned creature.

As soon as Green Ghost Carter appeared with Hell Strongman, Kane's expression changed.

Kane chided, "Green Ghost Carter, why did you people from the Undead Ship attack my son? You bully the weak. That's shameless of you! Ptooeey!" Green Ghost Carter naturally didn't reply.

Kane the Fireplay Master realized that Green Ghost Carter's face was stiff. There was no trace of a living person's aura on him. It was evident that he was dead.

Kane realized what had happened immediately.

He exclaimed, "You actually killed Green Ghost Carter! How is that possible?

Even I couldn't beat him!"

Kane the Fireplay Master knew how strong Green Ghost Carter was.

It was because he had once fought the latter. Ultimately, the latter won by a slight margin, and Kane escaped death.

Therefore, when Kane saw Green Ghost Carter, he subconsciously wanted to run away.

Kane realized that the true strength of the person in front of him, who looked like a mid-level apprentice wizard, was far beyond his imagination.

Kane wondered whether Levi was a Second-Circle Wizard who was deliberately hiding his strength and playing dumb to take advantage of him.

If Levi could kill Green Ghost Carter and turn the latter into a puppet, Kane speculated that he might also be killed if he continued to fight.

Thinking of this, Kane, who had just started battling and had not warmed up, began to retreat.

He felt it would be more appropriate to lodge a complaint to the Wizard Tribunal.

It was safer to let their members take action on Levi than to do so himself.

As soon as the Rock Trolls appeared, they quickly tore through the defenses and bodies of the few apprentice wizards.

The six-meter-tall male Rock Troll was especially strong. The apprentice wizards' cantrips could not break through its defense. Its attacks instantly wiped them out.

After killing the apprentice wizards, the Rock Trolls, Green Ghoul Carter and Hell Strongman all charged toward Kane the Fireplay Master, who was about to escape.

Kane was planning to fly away on his carpet. A wise man knew how to adapt to circumstances. He was escaping with all his might. He no longer wanted to avenge his son. How could his son's life be more important than his own?

Levi would not let him escape. Green Ghost Carter used Hellfire Rain, a powerful First-Ring Spell, to seal off Kane's escape routes.

Unfortunately, the Rock Trolls' strength was significantly reduced in the sea. They could not unleash many of their spells.

If they were on land, the Rock Trolls would suffice to make Kane suffer.

Levi chanted in a low voice, and the spell runes on the Ring of the Wind Spirit began to shine brightly.

A cool breeze blew over Levi, protecting him. He rode the wind and chased after Kane.

The speed of Kane's flying carpet could not match that of Levi's Ring of the Wind Spirit. Therefore, Levi quickly caught up.

Levi held the Poseidon Trident in his hand. He flapped his Blood Wings, and launched the trident from within the protection of the Wind Spirit Shelter. The trident shot towards Kane.

Kane knew that he had to take this attack head-on, so he did not run away.

The carpet protected him. The spell runes on it flickered, blocking Levi's trident.

In the meantime, Kane had finished casting a spell while being protected by the carpet.

The carpet spread open, and a massive fireball with a diameter of three meters suddenly formed and shot toward Levi.

First-Ring Spell, Big Fireball Technique!

This was the trump card spell of the Burning Faction!

Levi commented, "You and your son are indeed from the same family. All of you like to use the Big Fireball Technique to attack people." He decisively activated Encirclement of Giant Demons, the First-Ring Spell of the Giant Squid Ring.

Dense water elemental energy gathered around Levi's body. Eight transparent water tentacles with suction cups wrapped around him tightly. At the same time, Black Scales appeared under Levi's robe.

Although Levi felt that his Solid State Black Scales and Flame Body should be able to withstand the impact of this big fireball, he had always liked to play safe. Therefore, he did not hesitate to use the Encirclement of Giant Demons.

The big fireball exploded around Levi, and countless flames enveloped him. White steam rose from the sea's surface as if a small sun had risen from the sea.

Kane's expression turned cold. The bracelet on his right hand lit up, and spell runes flickered. Kane was chanting a new spell. Facing such a strong enemy, he had to go all out..
