

Wizard 350

Chapter 350: Legendary Six-Dimensional State! Blood Awakening Realm! The Beginning of Transcendence! (4)

In the White Tower, Marlene continued to patiently develop her potion.

The Tower Master told her that he would come out of seclusion in less than half a year. By then, he would be a Third-Circle Wizard. Now that the Tower Master was at the most critical moment, he could not be distracted. Therefore, he asked Marlene to lead the other wizards and apprentices, as well as Jorman, to guard the Gray Tower well. If they encountered a crisis, they could use the token left behind by the first Tower Master to contact him. He was now working in the Star Tower, so he should be able to provide some help.

As long as he could hold on for half a year, after the Tower Master reached the third circle, it should not be a problem for him to tide through the wave of level 3 sea beasts.

In this Endless Sea region, the water element was thin, and the sea beasts that were born were generally weaker. Basically, third-circle transcendent creatures were at most. Therefore, even if a beast tide came, the probability of a third-circle transcendent creature appearing was not high. With the strength of Marlene and Jorman, these two second-circle transcendent creatures, they should be enough to guard the Gray Tower. However, this was not necessarily the case in the deeper inner sea region. The water element there was even richer, and transcendent sea beasts with third-circle or even fourth-circle transcendent sea beasts might appear. The appearance of such a sea beast was a destructive blow to a low-level wizard organization. In history, there were many wizard organizations that had been destroyed by such transcendent sea beasts.

Other than the sea beasts, the Tower Master also told Marlene to be careful of the dangers of the sea beasts. These intelligent humanoid races were more dangerous and cunning than the sea beasts!

Currently, the Gray Tower was more prosperous than ever. There were two Second -Circle Wizards guarding it, but it was slightly weaker when it came to First-Circle Wizards. Marko was a senior First-Circle Wizard, and Mr. Tim was an ordinary First-Circle Wizard. Other than that, Levi was the only one who could be considered a First-Circle Wizard.

Although Winnie and the other high-level apprentice wizards were about to become official wizards, they didn't have the supplementary potion to advance by force. With their aptitude, it was hard to guarantee the success rate.

Marlene was slightly worried. Other than the sea beasts and the Sea Clan, the Undead Ship might also take advantage of the sea beast tide to cause trouble. That Demon Harland would definitely not let this matter rest!

He had just advanced to the second circle and had only mastered two second-ring spells at the moment. His strength was definitely inferior to that old ghost Harland who had stepped into the second circle for a long time.

Marlene only hoped that the Tower Master would make a breakthrough as soon as possible so that he could take charge of the Gray Tower.

The Gray Tower, Whale Song Island, and other organizations were located at the edge of the outer ring of the Endless Sea. The water element here was much thinner than the inner ring of the sea, but there were still many sea beasts living in the dangerous sea that no one stepped into.

Various sea beasts appeared on the surface of the water from time to time. There were even some sea beasts that could fly in the air. For example, sea fish like the "Six-Eyed Flying Fish" could fly up into the sky and dive into the Deep Sea.

These sea beasts had reproduced without interference for hundreds of years, and their numbers were increasing. This sea area could no longer bear the burden. They gathered together and prepared to attack the territory of the wizards. They wanted to take back the homes that originally belonged to their ancestors and use monstrous waves to destroy the wizard tower.

Among these sea beasts, there were some strange humanoid creatures. Most of them looked like strange people with fish scales or carapaces. There were also some strange creatures.

For example, some of them had a human upper body, eight legs, and a black horn in their hands. There were also yellow humanoid creatures with densely packed holes all over their bodies that looked very horrifying. There was also a red muscular giant with a body that was red and full of demon-like muscles. It looked like it could kill a supernatural sea beast with a punch.

These creatures were all members of the Sea Clan! They were intelligent humanoid creatures, born transcendent creatures like the Blood Clan.

The Sea Clan was a general term that included hundreds and thousands of races and tribes. Overall, according to the extraordinary biology of wizards, they could be divided into four groups: the crustacean clan, the scales clan, the fur clan, and the mollusks clan.

Of course, other than that, there were also some very small groups.

The birth of the Sea Clan could not be verified. According to the research of some wizards, the Sea Clan should be a failed product on the path of some sea beasts evolving into intelligent creatures. Therefore, they retained many characteristics of sea beasts.

In short, this race was born with the same intelligence as humans. Not only did they have some innate spell-like abilities, but some of the wise people of some races were also powerful Spell Casters that had been passed down from generation to generation. They had mastered the same spell power as wizards and could even communicate with their "gods".

There were as many as 1,000 people in this Sea Clan. They belonged to the same Sea Clan and were led by the lord of this sea region, the Deep Sea Baron, Baghdad.

The Deep Sea Baron was a seven-meter-tall giant in a gorgeous green robe. He was sitting on a coral throne on the head of a second-circle extraordinary sea beast. His muscles were so well-developed that even the legendary knight Emperor Mu would feel inferior to him. Between his palms and toes were webbing. He had a huge mouth of the abyss that was as exaggerated as the venom. Inside were sharp and fine teeth. He spoke in the language of the sea race with a loud voice.

"Many years ago, those evil existences called wizards invaded our home. These hateful foreigners expelled our ancestors to those small, cramped, and barren sea areas. For tens of millions of years, our ancestors have fought endlessly with these foreigners for generations.. They failed again and again and stood up again and again! Because we are unwilling! What flows in the blood of every member of the sea is the noble bloodline given to us by the supreme Lord Sea God!
