Chapter 373: Power of the Third Circle, Knight's Body,

Second-circle Reversal! (3)

"As expected of an array wizard. Morpheus did the right thing by inviting you here. It saved me a lot of trouble." Harland laughed and was in a good mood.

With the help of two Second-Circle Wizards, killing Herman was a piece of cake.

Soon, he found the weak spot of the array. Marko and Mr. Tim were guarding

"A motley crew, how dare you stand in my way? Die!"

Harland almost instantly cast a First-Ring Spell—Soul Flame!

A simple First-Ring Spell was even more powerful than Green Ghost Carter under Harland's abundant spiritual force.

Boom!

Marko and Mr. Tim barely blocked the attack before retreating.

Harland was different from the White Bone Wizards. They were all ordinary Second-Circle Wizards, while Harland was a senior second-circle wizard.

Therefore, his target was Herman, who was also a senior second -circle wizard. Harland did not care about the others at all.

The three Second-Circle Wizards all rushed into the array, and spells flashed inside. In an instant, the square in front of the Gray Tower was in chaos. The attacks of the apprentices were so weak in front of these Second-Circle Wizards that they could not break through the defensive field of their second-ring spells at all.

"Herman! Come out! Face me!"

"Do you only dare to be a coward in the tower now?"

Harland shouted. With the formation master of the Lost Wizard, Harland was fearless.

Suddenly, something fell from the sky through the gap in the array. The earth trembled and dust filled the air.

After the dust dissipated, a huge metal ball blocked the way. Immediately after, chains that seemed to be made of mithril and Luminant gold suddenly shot out from the metal ball. These chains danced wildly with complicated alchemy runes on them.

The second-ring spell of the School of Alchemy, Chain Whip!

There was a loud slap.

The second-circle defense field of the Bloodthirsty Wizard instantly distorted and was about to shatter. This made the Bloodthirsty Wizard's expression change drastically.

"Alchemical creatures?"

Chains wrapped around the Bloodthirsty Berserk Sorcerer and bound him.

In the metal ball, a bald old man stuck his head out and opened his mouth like an alien. An alchemy cannon appeared in his throat, and the end of the cannon shone, as if a terrifying attack was brewing.

Boom!

A violent white light shot out like a laser cannon!

The Bloodthirsty Wizard's defensive field, which was already unable to hold on, was directly shattered by the white light spat out by the bald man. The upper half of the Bloodthirsty Wizard's body was directly blasted away!

"Harland, my old friend, we meet again." The bald old man smiled, the gun barrel in his throat still smoking.

"You... You're Herman? You're not human anymore?" Harland's expression changed drastically.

Damn it, if Harland had known this would happen, he wouldn't have been human anymore!

Herman descended from the sky and instantly killed the Bloodthirsty Wizard. Although the other party was only an ordinary Second-Circle Wizard, he was also a second-circle. How could the defensive field that belonged to a second circle be shattered in an instant?

There was only one possibility!

He had advanced to the third circle!

"Ah, ah, ah! This is impossible! How could you advance to the third circle before me!" Harland went crazy. He had fought with Herman for more than a hundred years. It could be said that in this world, apart from himself, he knew Herman the best. He spent all day on the ship researching how to deal with him, kill him, find his weakness, and start an arms race with Herman!

The third circle was the sign that low-level wizards had become Intermediate Wizards. The difference between the third circle and the second circle was much greater than the difference between the second circle and the first circle. It could be said that even if all the people he brought this time came, he did not have the confidence to defeat Herman!

And now, the bone wizard and the Spider Witch were still fighting with Marlene and the white snake outside.

"Pinoz, I'll restrain him. Use your array to trap him!" Harland knew that the key to dealing with Herman was the array wizard, Pinoz.

This was because only an array could defeat the strong.

The ball that the Tower Master had turned into kept changing and reforming like a super beast. In the end, it turned into a violent mountain gorilla, but the bald old man's head looked a little funny.

All kinds of second -ring spells landed on this alchemical creature, but they were all blocked by the defensive field formed by the complicated alchemical runes. Moreover, this alchemical creature was made of mithril mixed with Luminant gold. It was expensive to build, and the quality was not something that those cheap brass-refined goods could compare to. These second-ring spells could not stop the advancement of the alchemical beast at all.

Boom! The earth shook. Harland summoned a Nightmare Knight on a Flaming Warhorse and charged at the alchemical beast. The next moment, the Nightmare Knight that was crushing Levi was sent flying by the alchemical beast. Its bones were broken and it fled back to hell.

This was the difference between a third-circle and a second-circle. The first third -circle spell that the Tower Master had solidified for his alchemy body was the most classic and powerful third-circle passive defensive spell—Steel -Burning Protection!

With this third -circle defensive spell protecting his alchemy body, he would be invincible. Even if he didn't have any spell abilities, he could still rely on this iron lump to tear apart an official wizard.

However, alchemical beasts were not only strong in defense, but their attacks were also not weak!
