Chapter 375: Power of the Third Circle, Knight's Body,

Second-circle Reversal! (5)

"Phew, I'm finally safe. Damn it, my array disc also landed in the Gray Tower. I suffered heavy losses."

"Morpheus lied to me. Herman has already advanced to the third circle. Fortunately, I escaped quickly."

Pinoz hid in the reef to recover his spiritual force. The second-circle array— Sea Demon Cage—was the strongest trapping array he had mastered. Even a third -circle powerhouse would be trapped in it for a short while. If the array had not bought him some time, Pinoz would not have been able to escape.

Of course, at the same time, the consumption of spiritual force by this second-circle array was also extremely terrifying. Pinoz had just mastered it not long ago, so he did not dare to run around now, afraid that he would be caught. At that time, he would be at his wits' end. Although the array was powerful, the consumption of spiritual force was far from what spells of the same level could compare to.

In any case, Harland had his first circle array, the Shadowless Maze Array, to conceal his aura and figure. He was confident that unless other wizards of the third circle or above passed by, no one would be able to detect that he was hiding 50 kilometers away from the Gray Tower.

"I'll hide here for a few days to recover my spiritual force. I'll escape after the storm is over." Pinoz was glad that Harland, that fool, bought him some time. Otherwise, even if he was an array wizard, it would be difficult for him to escape without being prepared.

Sure enough, just as Pinoz had expected, when the Second-Circle Wizard, Marlene, flew over here, she did not notice that there was a person hiding in the reef.

This made Pinoz heave a sigh of relief. He drank a bottle of potion and began to meditate to recover his spiritual force.

Under the surface of the sea, Jorman's slender and white body swept past. Jorman's snake tongue sniffed. He could vaguely sense that person's aura was in the sea in front of him, but he could not see that person. This made Jorman a little anxious.

At this moment, Levi stuck his head out of the Dragon King Whale's mouth and waved at Jorman.

Jorman understood and immediately swam down.

"Jorman, do me a favor. I know where that person is." Levi revealed a strange smile and flicked his tongue.

He had been following the fleeing Second -Circle Wizard all the way here. With the Black Snake's Message, Levi had completely locked onto that person's figure until that person hid his figure and aura on the island.

However, the other party was a Second-Circle Wizard after all, so Levi did not dare to make a move. He lingered here and waited for an opportunity until Jorman arrived.

"He should know some kind of concealment spell. Jorman, let's join forces and kill this enemy," Levi said.

As a second-circle transcendent creature and a mixed-blood of the Dragon Clan, Jorman was very powerful. With Jorman's help, Levi felt that there was still a chance to deal with this person.

Jorman nodded. He also felt that the enemy was in the sea not far away, but his snake tongue was not as useful as Levi's, so he could not accurately locate the enemy's range.

"Very good. Next, you go and restrain him head-on. He's on the reef on the right side of the island. You can directly use an area-of-effect spell-like ability to attack the island indiscriminately. He will definitely come out. After he comes out, the two of us brothers will cooperate and kill him in an instant without giving him any chance!"

Levi smiled sinisterly. He was not confident in dealing with a Second -Circle Wizard, but with the powerful Jorman, it was not a problem.

The man and the snake made a plan. Then, Jorman quickly swam towards the island. On the other side, Levi hid in the mouth of the Dragon King Whale, ready to let Leviathan send him up at any time and give the enemy a fatal blow.

When Jorman was about five kilometers away from the island, the expression of Pinoz, who was hiding in the array, changed. He sensed a powerful aura coming through his detection spell. It was the white snake.

Yes, he should be just passing by like Marlene. My aura is completely concealed. Even if this transcendent creature's Perception is sharp, it shouldn't be able to discover me. Pinoz comforted himself. At the same time, he wondered if he should escape. However, after some thought, he decided to wait. He didn't believe that the white snake could discover him.

What Pinoz did not know was that Levi had already locked onto his location through the Black Snake's Message. Even if he hid his aura through the array and disappeared from Levi's perception, it was useless because Levi could sense where his aura disappeared. Once Pinoz moved away from the array, his aura would leak out again and be sensed by Levi again.

Jorman soon arrived at the island. He was very obedient to Levi. Without saying a word, he directly released an indiscriminate icy breath at the island reef. Ice spread and froze the island inch by inch.

Hiding in the Shadowless Maze Array, Pinoz thought that he was safe. His expression changed. "This damn furless beast, how did it know that I was here? Or was it pretending to test me? That's impossible. When I escaped, I used Perception, but no one followed me."

Although he was hesitant, when the frost covered this place, Pinoz still flew out. His movements were very fast, and a second-ring spell blasted towards Jorman. Jorman's snake body was covered in a spell-like ability, Frost Armor, which blocked the second -ring spell attack. The giant snake swung its tail and directly swept through a thousand troops, and Pinoz immediately dodged..
