Chapter 396: Paralysis Ring, Seven Generals Formation, Legendary Black Whale! (3)

Seeing this, Levi's blood-colored tentacles shot out and wrapped around the Poison Fire Bone Snake's tail.

"You want to leave after offending me, Levi? Leave the energy core behind!" Boom!

The Poison Fire Bone Snake's tail was pulled by Levi's Vampire Touch.

The Legendary Power from Levi erupted, and the Furnace Heart burned like a nuclear reactor. The Red Lotus Flame Body suddenly exerted strength!

The Poison Fire Bone Snake was still in disbelief when Levi forcefully pulled it back from half of its body that was already in Hell.

Seeing this, ghost fire flickered in the eyes of the hell creature. It seemed to have thought a lot in a short period of time and was quite intelligent.

Just as Levi was about to take the Poison Fire Bone Snake's energy core, the Poison Fire Bone Snake actually seemed to beg for mercy and nodded frantically.

It was Levi's turn to be dumbfounded. He had never encountered such a Situation before.

Most of the hell creatures were either killed by Levi or returned to hell after he killed their summoner.

This was the first time he had suddenly kowtowed to him.

In Levi's impression, the hell creatures were the kind that would rather die than submit. This bone snake seemed to be a little special. It had no backbone...

Levi knew that his chance had come. He guessed that it might be because of his hell affinity or the bloodline of the Black Snake with a Candle. In addition, the Poison Fire Bone Snake had a different personality, which allowed him to completely conquer this hell creature with his martial strength.

Levi said, "I heard that if hell creatures want to stay in other planes for a long time, they need to sign a contract with other planes and acknowledge them as their masters. Do you know how to sign such a contract?"

He had heard from the Tower Master that Demon Harland's second-circle

Three-Headed Hell Lizard was brought out of hell by Harland. Therefore, the Three-Headed Hell Lizard was different from ordinary summoned creatures like the Hell Strongman. It could stay in the human world forever. All of this had to be built on the foundation of the contract between the Three-Headed Hell Lizard and Harland.

The Poison Fire Bone Snake nodded crazily. It was much smarter than the other one-track-minded hell creatures and knew how to judge the situation. Seeing that there was no hope of escaping, it decided to go against its ancestors and damage the dignity of the hell creatures.

On its forehead, a green circular array that looked like a gate to hell appeared.

Then, a wave of spiritual force appeared in Levi's mind.

Levi recited an incantation when he sensed the energy fluctuation. "Almo, Xi

Tuo, Rector..."

Then, a green pattern appeared in Levi's sea of consciousness. This pattern could vaguely be seen as a dark green bone snake. It seemed to be a mini version of the Poison Fire Bone Snake.

"Interesting. Sacrifice a trace of your soul to me and form a Soul Imprint. From now on, I'll be the owner of this Poison Fire Bone Snake, similar to the relationship between Harland and the Three-Headed Hell Lizard." Levi muttered to himself with a joyful expression.

Such a situation was rare. Both parties had to reach an agreement. Most importantly, the hell creatures had to submit to Levi completely and willingly offer their Soul Imprints to him. Levi had encountered many hell creatures before, but none of them were as obedient as the Poison Fire Bone Snake. Hence, they were killed by Levi.

"Very good. You're a snake that knows the big picture. From now on, as your master, as long as you're loyal to me, I won't mistreat you." Levi was in a good mood.

The Poison Fire Bone Snake nodded.

"Do you have a name?" Levi asked.

It shook its head.

"I'll call you Igor then." Levi randomly picked a name.

Originally, he just wanted to take advantage of them and turn them into living dead. Unexpectedly, he unexpectedly obtained a traitorous snake.

With the Soul Imprint, Levi could easily communicate with the Poison Fire Bone Snake. Even if it could not speak, Levi could sense its thoughts.

"Hell is really a good place. I have to go to hell if I have the chance in the future."

Although he said that, Levi did not want to step into hell until he was strong enough. Hell was an extremely powerful plane, and it was one of the top planes in the Multidimensional Plane. During its heyday, it could compete with the gods of the astral world. Although it was suppressed by the gods later on and declined to this day, a starving camel was still bigger than a horse. The powerhouses in the hell plane still far exceeded most Multidimensional Planes.

The reason why Harland could enter the hell plane at the second circle was that he had already transformed himself into a hell creature to a certain extent, so he would not be rejected by the plane. Ordinary wizards who did not have strength above the middle level would basically be courting death if they casually stepped into the hell plane. Furthermore, Harland was only at the shallowest level of the hell plane. According to the research of the School of Death's wizards, there might be nine levels in the entire hell plane. It basically corresponded to the nine-circle system of wizards. Without the strength corresponding to the number of rings, they would be dead if they took the risk of stepping into the deeper hell plane.

After subduing the Poison Fire Bone Snake, Levi ignored it and found an underground cave for it to stay in. Levi also kept Terrell's corpse.

"No wonder he took so long to find trouble with me. It seems that he only called for a helper to deal with me after he advanced." Levi recalled the long wait in the past six months and could not help but mutter to himself.

The spiritual power fluctuation emitted by Terrell was clearly much stronger than half a year ago. That guy wanted to kill him half a year ago, but perhaps he endured it for half a year to be safe. In the end, he only came after he advanced to a senior first-circle wizard and found another dark wizard..
