Chapter 422: Legendary Giant, Each Wisp of Breath Turns into an Arrow! (4)

According to Dinos' original route, he wouldn't have passed through this uninhabited sea area. Unfortunately, he encountered a rare hurricane, one of the three disasters of the Endless Sea. The sudden terrifying wind swept the merchant ship into this dangerous sea area.

Never mind if he entered an uninhabited sea region. With the power of the wizard ship that the family had ordered from the Seven Waters Steepe, he could safely cross it under normal circumstances.

But right after that, the ship was attacked by a group of dark wizards who had escaped from the Underwater Prison some time ago. Currently, there were four first-circle dark wizards around, one a senior wizard and three ordinary wizards.

"Foolish fellow, if you offend the Golden Lion Jostar Family, you can forget about staying in this sea region in the future," Dinos said coldly.

He was a top-tier grand knight and practiced the Golden Lion Breathing Technique passed down in his family. On top of that, he had just advanced to become a first-circle wizard some time ago. With the many first-circle Wizard Tools that his family had given him, he was able to fight against two first-circle wizards.

Besides Dinos, there was another first-circle wizard on the ship, his personal butler Ford. This butler was currently being held back by a first-circle dark wizard, allowing him no time to care about anything else.

At this moment, all kinds of spells were unleashed as the two parties bombarded each other. A large number of mortal sailors had already been killed or injured, and the apprentice wizards were not much better.

Dinos hated himself for not working hard enough in his wizard training. Otherwise, with the resources of the Golden Lion Jostar Family and his rare talent of double affinity, he would have become a senior first-circle wizard long ago.

"I don't care about the Jostar Family. I've never even heard of it. I've even entered Abyss City, so why would I be afraid of your family's revenge? Hahahaha, naive brat! Brothers, if we steal this wizard ship, we won't have a problem even if we don't work for the next thirty years."

Three dark wizards were restraining Dinos and Ford while the remaining first-circle dark wizard was slaughtering wantonly on the ship. Blood flowed like a river on the deck. Although there were alchemy cannons on the ship, the apprentice wizards controlling them had already been killed.

This first-circle dark wizard was the leader of the group, Sea Ghost Wizard Ygges.

He was a criminal imprisoned on the first floor of Abyss City, with the strength of a senior first-circle wizard.

This allowed him to have the powerful physique of the Sea Clan while also having the ability to cast spells as a wizard. Therefore, he quickly became the boss of this criminal gang with his powerful strength.

Dinos watched helplessly as the dark wizard burned, killed, and robbed the ship. He could only deal with two first-circle wizards at most, and the other accompanying first-circle wizard, a butler of his family, was only an ordinary first-circle wizard. He could only deal with one.

Other than himself and the butler, the other accompanying apprentice wizards were just a bunch of rabble to the Sea Ghost Sorcerer Ygges.

"I am going to become a legendary knight like my ancestors! How can I die here?" Jostar roared furiously.

Golden fur began to grow all over his body, and circles of majestic golden mane grew on his neck. At this moment, Jostar seemed to have transformed into a young lion!

"Hehe, never mind that you're just a grand knight, so what if you're a legendary knight?" The dark wizard who was fighting Jostar sneered.

On the other side, Yggesi laughed wildly as he went on a killing spree. He broke through the layers of blockades and prepared to enter the safety cabin of the merchant ship to snatch the Aether Stones inside.

An old mortal sailor was about to operate the alchemy cannon when he was discovered by Ygges. The latter immediately shot a Water Arrow at the sailor's head.

"Hahaha, awesome! I haven't killed so comfortably in a long time. Weak humans!" Ygges laughed maniacally, licking his lips with his scarlet tongue.

He looked at the sailors and apprentice wizards who were rushing over like ants and began to chant an area-of-effect spell!

At this moment, Ygges's body suddenly began to tremble. His limbs, fingers, and even the blood in his body, his soul, and his spiritual force began to tremble uncontrollably. His spellcasting action was forcefully interrupted halfway, and his chanting was forced to stop.

At the same time, an ice arrow condensed from ice came crashing down, shattering the defensive force field on Ygges' body before dissipating.

Ygges instantly realized that he had been ambushed, but even if he knew, he could not do anything.

At this moment, his body seemed to have been paralyzed. He could not do anything but tremble uncontrollably!

"Is this a paralysis spell?!" Ygges suddenly remembered something terrifying.

In the next moment, a figure appeared in front of him like a cannonball. A fireball that had long been prepared engulfed Ygges. The flames burned fiercely while Ygges screamed in pain. After he regained his mobility, he quickly extinguished the Fireball Technique with a spell. He had a strong physique that was comparable to the Sea Clan, so even without the first-circle defensive field, a simple Fireball Technique could not kill him.

But right after, green vines grew out from the deck and wrapped around Ygges.

First-circle spell, Green Vine Love.

"Damn it!" Ygges roared in his heart.

He looked at the man who had descended from the sky on the deck in front of him.. It was this man who had cast the Paralysis Spell on him and made those green vines capture him!
