

Wizard 423

Chapter 423: Legendary Giant, Each Wisp of Breath Turns into an Arrow! (5)

In the end, the Poseidon Trident, which had been enchanted with the power of the Golden Revolving Slash, flew through the air and pierced through Ygges's body. It did not lose its momentum and nailed its target to the wall of the cabin.

Levi arrived in front of the malevolent-looking Ygges at lightning speed. He used the Undying Fire Claw to pierce Ygges's chest and crush his heart.

"I didn't expect to be able to use the Paralysis Spell successfully on my first try. I might have used the rest of my life's luck here." Levi was speechless.

He had been hiding in the body of the Dragon King Whale and watching the battle from below the sea.

After some observation, he felt that with his strength, it would not be difficult to deal with these dark wizards. Plus, he was very short of money now, so he had the thought of making a move.

What really made him make up his mind was that he tried activating the Paralysis Spell when Ygges was casting the spell, and he unexpectedly...

Succeeded.

It was as if the heavens were telling Levi that his chance to make a fortune had arrived.

After being hit by the Paralysis Spell, Ygges had stood rooted to the ground, trembling as if he had gone crazy. Levi did not hesitate and decisively took action. First, he used the ice arrow he spat out to break Ygges' defense. Then, he let Leviathan use Dragon King's Breath to shoot himself out like a cannonball, allowing him to approach the other party at lightning speed. He followed with the Fireball Technique, Green Vine Love, and finally, the Poseidon Trident. The series of attacks was executed smoothly, and Ygges died on the spot.

Ygges was too careless. He probably thought that there were no other wizards in this uninhabited sea except for him and the merchant ship. Therefore, when Levi hid in the mouth of the Dragon King Whale, none of them discovered him when using their Inspection Spell. Perhaps they had used the spell and thought that it was just a passing Dragon King Whale, so they didn't think much of it.

Either way, the moment Levi appeared, he instantly killed a senior first-circle wizard. He did not even use his knight ability.

"The Paralysis Spell is really godly." Levi could not help but sigh.

After he dealt with Ygges like a god descending to the mortal world, the surviving sailors and apprentice wizards all looked at the trident-holding burly wizard in shock. They were stunned for a moment.

The other three ordinary first-circle dark wizards turned around and looked, scared out of their wits immediately. A burly man holding a trident had appeared out of nowhere and put their boss's corpse right into his storage ring. At this moment, the other party was looking at the three of them with a money-grubbing gaze that only people who looked at the Aether Stone would have.

"Damn it, it must be a dark wizard hunter!"

These first-circle wizards immediately retreated from the battle, wanting to escape.

Dinos and his butler were overjoyed. They said in unison, "Sir, please help us kill these people. The Jostar Family will definitely repay your kindness!"

The dark wizard hunter who had suddenly appeared was extremely powerful, so much so that the two of them, who were fighting with the dark wizards, had no idea how the other party had killed Ygges.

Levi didn't need them to tell him to make a move. After all, he was currently in dire need of money, so he needed to gain some harvests from the dark wizards to replenish his finances.

Blackgold Scales covered his entire body, and he shot out. The Poseidon Trident was brandished brazenly, killing one of the escaping dark wizards directly with the Golden Revolving Slash.

As that dark wizard fled, he had thrown first-circle spells at Levi. Levi did not even dodge, allowing the spells to hit him. He quickly caught up with the other party, and the Poseidon Trident beheaded him.

As for the other two wizards, one was seriously injured by Jostar while running away. While he was panicking, Levi took the chance to tear him in half like a demon god before throwing the corpse into his storage bag.

The last first-circle wizard was quickly killed by Levi and the other two.

After doing all this, Levi looked at the blonde wizard in front of him and smiled calmly. "Sir Jostar, you don't mind me taking these dark wizard's corpses away, right? You should know that people in my line of work rely on this to make a living."

Jostar was still immersed in Levi's terrifying aura. He quickly snapped back to his senses and nodded while saying, "Of course... I don't mind!"

Levi put away the spoils of war from the dark wizards. After going through them, he did some calculations. Putting aside the other spoils of war, their bounties alone were worth 4,000 Aether Stones.

"A great profit." Levi sighed in his heart.

May I know your name, sir? Your chivalrous deeds have won the respect of the Jostar Family. I am Dinos Jostar, son of the Golden Lion Lyon Jostar." Jostar introduced himself.

"Levi," Levi said concisely.

"Sir Levi, you're also a knight, right?" As a top-tier grand knight, Jostar could naturally tell that Levi's black-gold scales were formed by the black gas of a Knight, similar to the golden fur of his family.

"Yes," Levi said.

"As expected! Thank you for your help, sir. Please don't be in a hurry to leave. I'll get the servants to tidy up the ship and then invite you to a banquet in the banquet hall. I'll also send you a thank-you gift from the Jostar Family," Dinos said.

He could feel that Levi's knight path was very powerful, and the latter might even be in the legendary knight realm that he had always dreamed of!

Although a legendary knight was not considered much in other parts of the Wizard World, it held an extraordinary significance in the heart of the Jostar Family.

After all, the ancestor of their family, Rhine Jostar, was a legendary knight. His legendary title was: Lionheart Knight!

It was the Lionheart Knight who built the prosperous Golden Lion Jostar Family from scratch in the Wizard World, making it one of the top three-circle organizations in the Yellow Earth Continent's Area 7.

Therefore, the Jostar family had always had a special persistence and fondness for legendary knights. Unfortunately, since the death of the Lionheart Knight, the Jostar Family had never produced a true knight genius although they produced many double affinity wizard geniuses who had smooth-sailing paths as wizards. Even Golden Lion Lyon of the Jostar Family, the most outstanding genius in the past 200 years and a famous third-circle wizard in Area 7, had not broken through to the Legendary Knight Realm.

Since the other party had extended an invitation, Levi naturally would not refuse.

He had his reasons for helping. When he was dealing with Manla from the materials store, he had some understanding of the Jostar Family. He knew that it had a good reputation in the wizard world. They knew how to repay kindness, so Manla liked to work with the Jostar Family. It had always been a stable supplier of materials to the store.

It seemed to indeed be the case.

Levi, who had succeeded in his plan, stood with his hands behind his back like an expert. He stood alone at the bow of the ship and waited for the banquet. In the meantime, the Dragon King Whale followed in the deep sea below the ship.

"Sir, is that sea beast below your companion?" The butler came to Levi's side and asked.

"Yes," Levi said.

"My name is Fort, Young Master Jostar's butler. Thank you very much for this time, sir. If anything happened to Young Master Jostar, my old bones would have been unable to return and face the family head," The butler said.

He had just experienced a great battle, and his spiritual force was exhausted, so his face was pale.

"It's fine. I'm a dark wizard Hunter. Killing dark wizards is my job. You don't have to thank me," Levi said.

"Sir Levi, are you going to Area 8?" The butler asked.

Levi nodded.

"That's great! We're heading to the Yellow Earth Continent in Area 7 and will pass by Area 8. I wonder which island you're heading to, Sir Levi?" Butler Fort said. Thoughts flashed past his mind and he invited Levi to travel with them on the ship. It would be safer if they had a powerful wizard to accompany them for the rest of the journey.

"There's no need. Thank you for your good intentions. I have a sea beast mount, and it's faster than a ship. I'm in a hurry, so I'll leave after the banquet." Levi declined with a smile..