

Wizard 432

Chapter 432: Unpredictable Human Hearts, CityDestroying Battle, Certification Successful! (3)

Suddenly, a terrifying explosion sounded in Hot Wind City, spreading throughout the bay. As if this was some kind of signal, all kinds of spells whooshed throughout the bay.

Levi sneakily poked his head out of the sea like a kappa only to see two groups of people fighting in the air on the streets of Hot Wind City.

"What's going on? Why did they suddenly start fighting?"

Levi looked at the battlefield in front of him. Flames soared into the sky and smoke filled the air. He was stunned.

Could it be that some dark wizard organization had ambushed the Hot Wind Harbor Wizard Alliance?

The confusion lasted until he saw two dazzling third-circle wizards rising from the Tower of Flames and the Lush Forest Tower respectively. Then, the two third circle Wizard began to attack each other with spells.

These two third-circle wizards were the Master of Flames and the Lush Forest Witch!

"No way. Wasn't their relationship as husband and wife simply inharmonious?"

Is there a need to escalate it to the level of a war between third-circle wizards? Damn it, my plan to become a registered pharmacist is ruined..."

Levi watched the battle from afar. The two parties fought fervently. As a mere first-circle wizard, he naturally did not dare to join in the fun.

If it were not for the fact that the Wizard World had not invented a satellite that covered the Endless Sea and mobile phones for communication, Levi would have called the Star Tower and reported this matter by now.

Was this their rule of law?

People were fighting in broad daylight, and even official wizards had begun to attack each other.

On the other side, the battle between the two third-circle wizards had already produced real flames.

"B*tch, I'm the leader of the Hot Wind Harbor Wizard Alliance! Don't go too far!" The Master of Flames Claur cursed.

Claur was a middle-aged man with gray hair at his temples. He had the aura of a noble. He was wearing a red robe. With a wave of his hand, he threw out five fireballs as if they were free. For a third-circle wizard like him, this kind of second-circle cantrid was easy.

The terrifying fireballs exploded in the air, and Levi could feel the aftermath of the explosion from the bay.

On the other side, the green-robed Lush Forest Witch Lola, who was taller than her husband Claur, sneered. "Don't forget, Claur. I agreed to merge the Lush Forest Tower into the Hot Wind Harbor Wizard Alliance because of our relationship back then. Now that you and I are no longer partners, I would have moved out of here long ago if not for the sake of your reputation. I didn't expect you to be so petty. To think you schemed against me and used me. If it weren't for my identity as a second-circle senior pharmacist, would you have been able to recruit so many first-circle wizards? Just with you? Can you do it?"

The two third-circle wizards seemed to have some sort of grudge, and they fought like enemies.

The battle was getting increasingly intense. Out of consideration for his own safety, Levi stopped watching and left the place temporarily. However, he did not go far. Instead, he found the Dragon King Whale and hid at the bottom of the sea.

The reason why he didn't leave was that he was still concerned about his pharmacist certification, and he wanted to find out why Doug and the others were hostile to him.

By now, Levi had already memorized the auras of Doug and Sindert. After the battle was over, he would return and find Doug to get things straight. Otherwise, he would have to worry about being targeted in the future.

The battle in Hot Wind City was still ongoing.

However, the key to this war was not the weak apprentice wizards below, but the first and second-circle wizards, and the most important third-circle wizards.

Lola was like a green goddess. She knew some elven spells, to begin with, so she used an obscure elven language to chant and cast her elven spells. It was a spell ability that was close to the Plant Faction of the Life Faction. It was just that as a green elf who was naturally affable to plants, the power of similar spells cast by Lola was immense.

Lola's wicker-like hair began to grow longer, turning into shiny vines or whips. These vines extended in the air and wrapped around Claur's fireballs. At the same time, in the Lush Forest Tower, a 10-meter-tall giant wearing beast skin over his hard rock skin jumped out. The giant waved his huge axe and slashed at Claur.

This was a Mountain Giant, the bionic source of the Earth Faction's first-circle spell, Mountain Giant's Wrath. It was a creature from the Multidimensional Planes, and its adults generally had third-circle strength, but it was extremely rare.

Lola's Mountain Giant had been modified by her Life School of Thought's experiments and spells. She had installed all kinds of powerful biological prosthetics. For example, the Mountain Giant had the head of a second-circle mixed-blood Dragon Clan, the dragon halberd whale.

At this moment, the dragon halberd whale opened its bloody mouth and spat out a water column that was much more exaggerated than the Dragon King Whale Leviathan, using the water to suppress the fire.

In addition, there was a pair of wings on the Mountain Giant's back that covered the sky. The wings flapped and the wind whistled as the fire was blown towards the Tower of Flame's camp.

"You b*tch, just to deal with me, you actually woke up this monster. You... You're infuriating me!"
Claur's face turned red as he chanted, and a terrifying third-circle spell began to brew.

Third-circle spell, Sun Flame Explosion!

It was as if a small Sun had appeared in the sky above Hot Wind City. A fireball with a diameter of five meters hovered above Claur's right hand, and his red robe fluttered in the wind.

Boom!

The Sun Flame Explosion collided with the Mountain Giant!

Terrifying flames spread in the air, and the city trembled.. Third-circle power was terrifying!