Chapter 433: Unpredictable Human Hearts, CityDestroying Battle, Certification Successful! (4)

Fortunately, they were fighting in the sky. If they were fighting on the ground, God knows how many houses and mortals would have been destroyed by the explosion.

On the other side, on the battlefield of the low-level wizards, Doug and Sindert joined forces to fight against the senior first-circle wizards of the Lush Forest Tower. Just as the two sides were evenly matched, the Five Fireballs Technique descended from the sky and engulfed the senior first-circle wizard.

A beautiful and scantily clad second-circle witch stepped on the charred bone powder of the senior first-circle wizard and laughed sharply.

"Thank you, Lord Red Flame Witch!"

Doug and Sindert bowed their heads respectfully.

The scantily dressed fiery Red Flame Witch chuckled and said, "Doug, you said a wizard from the Gray Tower is here. Where is he?"

"Lord Red Flame Witch, that wizard might have run away... I haven't seen him yet," Doug said in a low voice, trembling with fear.

This Red Flame Witch was Lord Claur's new lover. She was the last straw that caused Lord Claur and Lola to fall out. God knows what kind of magic this witch had. To think a mere second-circle wizard was able to take down Lord Claur, a third-circle wizard.

"Oh, I see. It's okay then. Maybe he's really just here to be certified as a pharmacist." After saying that, the Red Flame Witch left.

She was a second-circle wizard, but she did not participate in the second-circle battle. This was because she had encountered a second-circle sea beast, a sea dragon crocodile, in a sea area some time ago. Seeing that the other party was a mixed-blood dragon, she wanted to take it down.

She thought that with her strength, she would've been able to take it down even if it was a mixed-blood dragon. Unexpectedly, that damn second-circle sea beast was fine while she, on the other hand, had been seriously injured by the other party's attack and had yet to recover. She could not even cast some important second-circle spells.

Therefore, Claur had let her slack off when planning the battle plan for this war. He did not let her participate in the second-circle battles because the current Red Flame Witch could only be considered half a second-circle wizard. She was too weak.

In any case, the Tower of Flames had more second-circle wizards than the Lush Forest Tower. They did not particularly lack her.

Just as the battle between the two three-circle wizards in the sky reached a critical moment, a hexagram array suddenly appeared in the sky. Within the mysterious array, a figure wearing a star-patterned robe suddenly descended.

As soon as he arrived, his powerful spiritual force swept across the entire city.

"Stop fooling around! Do you think the Charter is just for show?" The old man coldly berated.

His hair was disheveled and white. He looked casual and unshaven, seemingly a serious wizard who did research every day.

He was Area 8's Star Supervisor, Riemann.

Every region in the outer and inner sea regions had a law enforcer, the Star Supervisor.

They usually had the power to suppress all rebellions, but unless it involved an entire region, they would not intervene.

Now, the war between the two third-circle wizards had seriously affected the order of the area, so Riemann had no choice but to intervene.

Of course, the reason why he was able to arrive on time was that the Lush

Forest Witch had already informed him about the battle beforehand. The Lush Forest Witch realized that her former partner might make trouble for her at any time, and it would inevitably lead to a large-scale wizard war. So, she simply reported it first and asked the supervisor to be prepared.

As the Star Supervisor, Riemann had Space Teleportation Scrolls distributed by the organization, so he could naturally arrive at the location of the incident easily.

In this regard, the actions of the Lush Forest Witches were similar to Tower Master Herman, who had also reported the battle to the Star Enforcer before the battle with Harland.

As a fourth-circle wizard, Riemann was extremely powerful. Normally, a fourth-circle wizard wouldn't appear in such a remote place like the Outer Circle Area. He was here purely because of the organization's mission.

Riemann casually cast a third-circle spell, Sea Giant's Hand, which formed a giant blue palm and slapped Clair away. Then, he said to the Lush Forest

Witch, "Put away your modified creature. This creature will easily go berserk. When the time comes, you might not be able to control it. It's better to use it less."

"Alright, Lord Supervisor." The Lush Forest Witch obediently cast a spell to send the Mountain Giant back to the Lush Forest Tower. Then, she stopped the wizards under her command and coldly looked at the dazed Clair.

How could Clair not judge the situation? This slut definitely had an extraordinary relationship with the supervisor, and there might even be something going on between the two!

Otherwise, why would the supervisor be biased when both had clearly fought?

The other party only sent him flying and not this b*tch.

To think he, Claur, was cuckolded!

Claur was furious.

As expected of a green elf, she cuckolded him without anyone knowing!

"Claur, Lola, you two are the leaders of a third-circle wizard organization, yet you led the wizards under your command to start an internal war, causing huge casualties. Now, in the name of the Star Tower, according to the Pan -Plane Wizard Congress Act, I arrest you. You will be judged by the Wizard Tribunal.'

Claur's expression changed slightly when he heard this. However, he remembered that he had a big shot behind him, so he didn't say anything. Either way, even if he went to jail, that bitch would accompany him.

Plus, he was a third-circle wizard, so the Pan-Plane Wizard Council would not easily give him the death penalty. After all, in the future Plane War, every third -circle wizard was also an important backbone. Therefore, he would at most be locked in Abyss City for some time. After he was released, he could still recover his legal identity..
