

Wizard 434

Chapter 434: Unpredictable Human Hearts, CityDestroying Battle, Certification Successful! (5)

"Lola, you reported the collusion between the third-circle wizard Claur and the dark wizard organization, the Black Sun Steeple. The Pan-Plane Wizard

Council has looked into it and found it to be true. According to the Pan-Plane Wizard Congress Act, you don't need to go to the Wizard Tribunal for the time being, but you have to pay a fine of 100,000 Aether Stones and enter a 100-year observation period. If there is no major violation of the law during this period,

You will be exempted from prosecution."

"Thank you, Lord supervisor. I fought against Claur for my own protection, and it was not intentional. I have a slate recording all the illegal acts that Claur committed in the past few years." Lola waved her hand, and streaks of light fell into Inspector Riemann's palm.

"Alright, I've received all the evidence. You can leave for now," Riemann said calmly.

"You adulterous couple framed me? I didn't collude with the Black Sun Tower!" Claur's expression hanged drastically. "B*tch, you actually reported me? And it looks like you started a long time ago. At that time, we were still partners!" Lola didn't say a word and left silently.

"There are witnesses and evidence, yet you still dare to quibble. Claur, surrender now!" Riemann sneered. As a fourth-circle wizard, he was confident.

Claur's face turned ashen, and he suddenly laughed wildly. "In that case, I won't pretend anymore. I'll lay my cards on the table. I am indeed a member of the Black Sun Steeple! Brothers, I'll retreat first! We'll meet again if we're fated!"

Boom!

Claur threw out a scroll that was engraved with a pattern that looked like a black sun.

Fourth-circle spell, Black Sun Annihilation!

Claur's expression was cold.

Indeed, the Black Sun Steeple had once looked for him and tried to persuade him to join the dark wizard organization, but he did not agree because he did not want to give up his identity and status in Area 8. These were the fruits of his hard work after toiling for a hundred years.

But now, since things had come to this, Claer didn't hesitate anymore.

As the scroll was torn apart, the shadow of a black sun appeared.

Riemann's expression changed.

Fourth-circle spell, Sea Sky Wall!

Between Riemann and the black sun, a blue curtain that was hundreds of meters tall suddenly rose, forming an indestructible barrier.

The black sun exploded soundlessly, destroying everything!

It was as if the surrounding light was attracted over, causing the entire bay to instantly turn dark...

It was a fourth-circle spell created by Black Sun Adam, a Black Sun Steeple's genius dark wizard with the dual talents of Child of the Fire Element and Heart of Darkness!

Rumble!

A shockwave swept out and the Sea Sky Wall was torn apart.

The shockwave rushed toward Riemann.

However, thanks to the Sea Sky Wall and the distance, the shockwaves couldn't tear Riemann's fourth-circle defensive field.

But the Hot Wind City... It was done for.

Countless houses were destroyed, and God knows how many mortals and wizards suffered. Only the Tower of Flames and the Lush Forest Tower avoided the impact, relying on the wizard tower's defensive array and the fact that they were far away.

Riemann's face was livid.

"He really is a dark wizard?" He couldn't help but curse in his heart. With this, the casualties seemed to have become even worse.

"That damned Black Sun Adam! He's always giving us trouble." Riemann searched for Claur's aura, who had gone to God knows where, and disappeared from the harbor.

Three days later, Hot Wind City was in a mess, like the scene of the ancient city Pompeii's end after the volcanic eruption.

Other than a few wizards and apprentice wizards, the vast majority of mortals and apprentice wizards died from the aftershocks emitted by the fourth-circle dark wizard spell, Black Sun Annihilation, leaving no bones behind.

Lola's expression was complicated as she looked at the ruins of Hot Wind City. Her heart was filled with bitterness. Because she had made preparations in advance, the losses of the Lush Forest Tower this time were not too great, but it was still very uncomfortable.

At this time, no one could care less about Levi, who had come all the way here to be certified as a pharmacist.

In the Deep Sea hundreds of miles away from the bay, Levi opened his eyes.

"The battle should be over. Why is it so f*cking hard for me to get certified as a registered pharmacist? I didn't do anything, but I was involved in an inexplicable internal strife. If the Lush Forest Witch is dead, I would have to go to Area 7 to be certified."

There was no Pharmacist Association in Area 10. Otherwise, Levi would have gone there instead of coming to Area 8.

Besides, he still had one more thing to do, and that was to find Doug.

Thinking of this, Levi started to head towards Hot Wind City. His Spider Sensing gave no warning, so it seemed that the danger was not great.

When Levi arrived at Hot Wind City, he was dumbfounded.

"Why is there a large piece missing from such a big city...?"

There were ruins and wreckage everywhere, and the aura of death and sadness permeated the air.

"Are third-circle wizards that powerful? This should be fourth-circle strength..." Levi was suspicious.

If this was also caused by a third-circle wizard, then the Tower Master, who was also a third -circle wizard, was nothing in comparison!

Putting that aside, Levi began to search for Doug's aura. He wondered if the latter was still around after three days and the city was gone.

With his snake tongue, he quickly found Doug's aura. Sindert's aura was gone, and God knows if he was dead or where he had run off to.

Thinking of this, Levi changed his appearance slightly. Although changing his appearance was not very useful for wizards who relied on spiritual force to identify people, it was better than nothing..
