

Wizard 452

Chapter 452: Spirit Binding Ring, Subduing the Fire Elemental Spirit! (1)

On the Black Fire Island.

Jorman opened his mouth, and his snake jaw almost fell to the ground.

Levi's figure fell to the ground. Rumble! Dust flew everywhere.

His body began to deflate. At the same time, the familiar hunger overwhelmed him. Levi directly poured the food he had prepared into his mouth.

Levi only sat up in satisfaction when he finished a storage bag. He was still in a weak state after using the Red Lotus Blood.

The Saint Scorpions had already swarmed forward and feasted on the witch's soul and flesh.

The soul and flesh of a Second-Circle Wizard. Levi felt that it would not be long before these little fellows underwent another transformation.

If it weren't for the fact that the Seal of Hell couldn't turn the existence of the second-circle into a living dead, Levi would definitely leave this woman's corpse intact. He wouldn't have been so cruel.

"Jorman, stay here for a few days. You can go back in a few days. I need you." Levi patted Jorman's head.

He needed Jorman to protect him during these few days when he was weak.

Jorman nodded and used the cold air in his body to freeze a large piece of ice. Then, he coiled it on the ice.

It was a frost-type transcendent creature and did not like the heat of Black Fire Island.

With Jorman's protection, Levi felt much more at ease.

Only then did Levi look at the Fire Elemental Spirit that was drifting erratically. At this moment, the Fire Elemental Spirit was the same as the evil spirit whose spirit body had been scattered. It was clearly in a weak state. Its worldview had collapsed. The monster in front of him actually ignored the fire-type spell ability that he was so proud of.

"Why aren't you running? Do you want to fight?" Levi said calmly.

The level 1 Fire Elemental Spirit already had the intelligence of a human child. It was also a witch's pet, so it should be able to understand what he meant.

However, this guy clearly stayed where he was and did not know what to do. He did not dare to run or fight.

It wanted to run, but the Red Flame Witch had its Spirit Binding Ring, which was a special Wizard Tool that could forcefully enslave transcendent creatures.

Seeing that the Fire Elemental Spirit did not run away, Levi also had some doubts in his heart. He asked Jorman to keep an eye on this guy while he went to the place where the Red Flame Witch died and took out a silver bracelet from a pile of flesh.

"It's actually this?"

"I thought this woman used a School of Spiritualism spell like Nature's Secret Language to control this Fire Elemental Spirit. I didn't expect her to use Spirit Binding Ring."

If Levi did not have some knowledge of the School of Spiritualism in order to learn the spell Nature's Secret Language, he would not have known about this unorthodox Wizard Tool.

This Wizard Tool only had one use. After defeating the transcendent creature, it could forcefully contract a transcendent creature whose realm did not exceed its own.

A Spirit Binding Ring could only contract one transcendent creature, and the price of this thing, even if it was the lowest first-circle, was as high as seven to eight thousand Aether Stones, ten times that of a conventional First-Circle

Wizard Tool! The price of this Wizard Tool was not inferior to a Second-Circle Wizard Tool at all.

Moreover, in the Realm of Azure Cloud, there was basically nothing for sale, and one could not buy it even if one wanted to.

Because the materials needed for this Wizard Tool were especially precious, it resulted in a high cost.

Generally speaking, only the elders of the wizard families of the School of Spiritualism would prepare this for the juniors they valued the most. After all, having a Spirit Binding Ring was equivalent to having a first-circle transcendent creature helper out of thin air.

"I wonder where this woman found these precious things."

He didn't know the identity of the Red Flame Witch at all. He only knew that she was Doug's accomplice and Claur's subordinate. She should be a fugitive dark wizard.

He didn't know that the Red Flame Witch used to be Claur's mistress. Many of her good things were given to her by Claur.

He put away the Spirit Binding Ring, erased the spiritual mark of the Red Flame Witch, and replaced it with his own spiritual mark.

Then, he looked at the ignorant and frightened Fire Elemental Spirit and said,

"In the future, you can live if you acknowledge me as your master. Otherwise, I'll kill you!"

The Fire Elemental Spirit nodded frantically.

When Levi saw this, he nodded in satisfaction. He smiled and made himself look as kind as possible.

"I don't know if you have a name. I'll give you a nice one. You'll be Ace."

Ace nodded like a chick pecking at rice. From now on, Levi was his master.

"Very good. The Black Fire Island's transcendent creature garden has gained another general. Now, our members are the Poison Fire Bone Snake Igor from Hell and the Dragon King Whale Leviathan from the Endless Sea. We're all from all over the world. It's fate that we're gathered together. From now on, Leviathan will be your big brother. Igor, you're the second brother. Ace, you're the third brother. You have to get along well and don't cause trouble for me," Levi said.

Now that Levi had more and more pets under him, it was necessary to rank them according to their seniority.

In terms of seniority, although Leviathan was not as powerful as Ace, Leviathan had made a lot of contributions to Levi. Naturally, he was the big brother!

Leviathan was quite pleased to hear that he seemed to be the big brother. He seemed to be thinking in his heart, "I've contributed to Levi. I've shed blood for him."

The fire bead in Igor's eye sockets spun. He was thinking about how to please Levi again. This Bone Snake from Hell was extremely smart and cunning..