

Wizard 460

Chapter 460: Flame Prince! Top-notch Vision! (3)

At that time, the family had already promised to betroth Stella to a genius wizard of the Flame King's Al Hidd Family. That genius wizard was the current head of the Al Hidd Family, the Third-Circle Wizard Lehman, nicknamed the "Flame Prince".

At that time, the Colin Family was a reputable force in the Yellow Earth

Continent. Although they could not compare to the three giants, Wham, Al Hidd, and Jostar, there were several Second-Circle Wizards in the family who were also very glorious.

Stella's actions caused the Colin Family to lose all face.

At that time, the Tower Master was just an apprentice of the Second -Circle Wizard Organization's Gray Tower.

He did not have money, strength, or status. Even his wizard talent was very ordinary.

Later on, the Colin Family repeatedly requested Stella to return to the family but was rejected. They personally sent people to the Gray Tower, but they were chased back by the first Tower Master, Salman. The Colin Family could not just let Stella start a Second-Circle Wizard War.

Helpless, the Colin Family expelled Stella from the family and listed her as a taboo. No one was allowed to mention her in the family. Later on, she gradually declined because of the suppression of the Al Hidd Family.

After all, although the Colin Family had a small secret realm entrance, this secret realm only opened once every 200 years. It was not something they could open just because they wanted to. The resources they had collected during the last time they opened it had almost been exhausted in the past 200 years.

After understanding the situation of the Colin Family, Levi easily arrived at the location of the Colin Family under the lead of Macken.

This place was located in an extremely hidden valley. The wind inside was relatively weaker, and there seemed to be an array shelter and concealment outside.

If it wasn't for this kid leading the way, Levi would have had a hard time finding it.

Macken came to the array at the entrance of the valley. There were several apprentice wizards guarding it.

"Please let me in. This is my savior, Sir Levi," Macken said.

When the guard saw Levi and felt the pressure of a First-Circle Wizard, his face turned cold. He glared at Macken as if he was blaming him for bringing a stranger back to his family.

"Take out your membership card. I need to verify your identity," the guard said to Levi. He was probably afraid that Levi was a dark wizard and would lead the wolf into the house without any objections.

After Levi showed his membership card, the guard's expression immediately changed. Even Macken could not help but be stunned.

"Someone from the Gray Tower?"

Levi smiled and said, "Yes, what's wrong?"

He had actually expected that if the other party checked his identity, he might mind his identity as Gray Tower, but he still had a glimmer of hope.

"Sir, please leave. The Colin Family does not welcome people from the Gray Tower," the guard said.

"Sir Levi is my savior. He's only here as a guest. Why won't you let him in?"

Levi took a deep breath and calmed himself down. If it could be resolved peacefully, it was better to use emotion and reason. It was not Levi's style to touch people. He was a law-abiding citizen, not some lawless dark wizard...

"I'm just looking for the head of the Collins family to discuss some cooperation. There's no need to be in such a hurry to reject me, right?" Levi said. The aura of a senior first-circle wizard spread out, and a powerful spiritual wave swept past the guard.

"Go back. Although our Colin Family has declined, it's not something a First-Circle Wizard like you can shake." The guard was fearless and sneered. "So there's no room for negotiation?" Levi's voice turned cold and his face darkened like a venomous snake ready to strike.

The guard was so frightened by Levi's aura that he didn't dare to make a sound. Then, he remembered that he had the backing of the Colin Family and said with a trembling voice, "Wait. I'll call the family head and let him decide."

He was really afraid that the person in front of him would kill him in a fit of anger. He was just a gatekeeper, so it was better not to risk his life like this.

Not long after, a blue-robed wizard arrived at the door on a First-Circle Wizard Tool that was similar to a kite. He was the current head of the Colin Family. After seeing Levi, he narrowed his eyes and said, "I'm Dwayne Colin. May I know why you've come to the Colin Family?"

Levi smiled and said, "I want to talk about cooperation with you guys."

Dwayne thought for a moment and calmly said, "Then please come in and talk." Would he be afraid of a First-Circle Wizard in his family's base camp?

Moreover, the Colin Family was a legal wizard organization and was protected by the Pan-Plane Wizard Council.

In the guest hall of the Colin Family, Levi also saw the other two First-Circle Wizards of the Colin Family, a man and a woman. They looked at Levi with an unfriendly expression.

"Tell me, what kind of cooperation do you want to talk about?"

Dwayne asked.

"I heard that the Colin Family has the entrance to a small secret realm. It will open in less than two months. I want you to name a price for me to go in too," Levi said.

Upon hearing this, the expressions of Dwayne and the others changed slightly, but they concealed it very well. However, Levi still noticed it. It seemed that the secret realm was real.

"Sir, please go back. We don't have a secret realm here," Dwayne said.

"Sir Dwayne, what do you think the three aristocratic families on the Yellow Earth Continent will do if they find out that a small family like Colin has a secret realm entrance?" Levi asked calmly..