

Wizard 493

Chapter 493: First Breakthrough, Boiling Beast Blood, Golden Snake Disturbing the Sea! (6)

The Violet Witch also came to the bottom of the sea. Streams of water turned into chains and bound the wizard Black Wings.

The streams of water transformed into swordfishes that bombarded Black Wings, who was entangled by Levi, like guided missiles.

She was a senior first-circle wizard from the Ocean School of Thought. Spell control was her forte.

On the other side, Black Wings was extremely aggrieved. He hurriedly controlled the Black Iron Curtain to rush to the bottom of the sea. The curtain twisted into a ribbon and sent Levi flying. Then, it wrapped around the wizard Black Wings and was about to escape.

Black Wings was panicking now. With his third-circle Wizard Tool, he could deal with a Violet Witch without any problem!

However, with the addition of this bloodline-modified monster like him and the powerful Alchemy Creature covered in barbs, how could he defeat it?!

Seeing that the wizard Black Wings wanted to run away, the Violet Witch would not let him succeed. One second-ring spell after another swept towards him.

The more Levi fought, the more violent he became. Terrifying electric currents flashed on the silver tendons, and all of them poured into Black Wings's body along with Levi's attacks.

Black Wings was a second-circle bloodline modification wizard, and his body was solidified with powerful passive defensive spells. He was not afraid of electric shocks of this level, but such frequent electric shocks still made him feel extremely refreshed, affecting his movements.

The Blood Clan Touch wrapped around Black Wings's feet and kept eating his Black Scale.

Not only that, but Levi also activated his Dragon's Intimidation ability.

He could tell at a glance that the supernatural organs transplanted by the bloodline modification of the wizard in front of him were basically from mixed-blood dragons.

Therefore, Levi thought of a Golden Snake Special Effect that he rarely used: Dragon's Intimidation.

It had to be known that Dragon's Intimidation was an ability that could only be born from sub-dragons.

Behind Levi, the phantom of a golden snake with wings on its back and a horn on its forehead could be vaguely seen coiling around the Nine Swords Asura as it looked at the wizard Black Wings with indifferent golden eyes.

Boom!

A terrifying Dragon's Might swept out!

Many weak sea beasts nearby were affected by the Dragon's Might and fainted!

This was Levi's Dragon's Might!

It came from the phantom of a golden snake that seemed to have emerged from a legend!

After the Dragon's Might, Black Wings felt that several modified prostheses on his body actually began to tremble involuntarily.

The biological prostheses installed by bloodline modification wizards could not be perfectly integrated with the supernatural organs born from the knight's breathing technique.

Therefore, the wizard Black Wings clearly knew that this kind of Dragon's Might attack would not be affected by his Second -Circle Wizard spiritual force and willpower.

However, his dragon wings and scales were trembling uncontrollably. He immediately felt his body become extremely heavy and had the urge to prostrate himself. This was the suppression of the bloodline level since ancient times!

"This monster in front of me actually has such a high-level Dragon Clan bloodline in his body!" Black Wings was shocked.

The third-circle Wizard Tool consumed a lot of spiritual force and spell power. After such a long battle, Black Wings could no longer hold on.

He was terrified and only wanted to leave the seabed.

However, the seabed was the domain of the Ocean School of Thought.

In the battle below, he was firmly suppressed by all kinds of sea spells cast by the Violet Witch.

The other monster kept using its huge strength to attack him again and again.

Boom, boom, boom!

Blood qi soared into the sky! Machinery roared!

Rlhvvo unstoppable forces erupted!

Black Wings was forcefully dragged into the endless abyss.

The Violet Witch was also shocked. This guy in front of her was too powerful!

Savage, violent, ugly!

But no matter what, this person seemed to be on her side, which made the Violet Witch feel much more at ease.

She would use her control spells to assist from the side and attack with second-ring spells from time to time.

With the help of a second-circle senior wizard, Levi and the Tyrant became more and more energetic as they fought. They pressed Black Wings firmly against the cliff of the abyss at the bottom of the sea.

Lightning Strike and Tyrant's Giant Axe rained down on the other party.

The cliffs cracked layer by layer, and countless rocks fell into the abyss, as if there was an earthquake at the bottom of the sea.

The wizard Black Wings's third-circle Wizard Tool floated quietly at the side without moving.

This was because Black Wings's head had been shattered by the Corpse Digger's giant axe in the chaotic fist. He had died long ago.

There was naturally no one controlling the third-circle Wizard Tool.

He had never been good at fighting in the Deep Sea. Now that he was at the bottom of the sea, he was completely suppressed by Levi and the Violet Witch.

Until Black Wings was smashed into meat paste by Levi and the Corpse Digger.

Levi heaved a sigh of relief. He looked at the rock wall in front of him calmly.

The Tyrant beside him was still chopping meat with his axe.

"Stop fighting, he's dead..."

Levi casually grabbed a lucky fish that passed by this place and tore it apart. He roasted it with his Flame Body and swallowed it on the spot.

All the inhuman forms disappeared and he returned to his silver-haired wizard form. He leaned on the Corpse Digger's right arm and burped.

Violet looked at all of this in a daze.

As a Second-Circle Wizard, what kind of scene had she not seen?

She had never seen such a scene before!

He threw Black Wings's meat paste into the Bug House and let the Saint Scorpions share it. Levi kept his head separately and prepared to exchange it for the bounty in the future.

He didn't take the powerful black curtain-like Wizard Tool.

The Violet Witch did not act rashly.

The two of them looked at each other again. Levi was the first to break the awkward silence.

"Is this a Wizard Tool?"
