

Wizard 503

Chapter 503: Mortal Body, Crushing the Blood Clan! (4)

The monster laughed wildly and turned into a blood light. The huge blood claw sent the knight Hogg flying.

The armor deformed and tore, and a deep claw mark appeared on the knight's chest. Countless ashes danced around him, quickly healing his injuries.

"Interesting. Not a bad self-healing ability," said Yasad with a smile. His terrifying claw attacks became more and more ferocious.

The speed of the knight Hogg was far inferior to Yasad's. There was no way for him to dodge.

He was sent flying by the sharp claws again and again, and the wounds on his body increased. His self-healing ability could no longer keep up with the speed of the wounds.

"Too weak, too weak!" Yasad attacked Hogg frantically.

Hogg was like a kite with a broken string. He was continuously struck by Yasad in the air, and in the end, he landed on the stone wall of the cave with a bang.

Clan are only so-so."

Hogg weakly leaned against the stone wall, revealing a relieved smile.

His bones were broken and he was bleeding profusely. He was on the verge of death and was seriously injured.

"Stubborn little bun." Yasad looked calm on the surface, but he was also slightly shocked on the inside.

This human's willpower and physique were much stronger than he had imagined. If he was given more time, he might become a legendary knight.

"It's over." Yasad increased his speed, his arm transforming into a bloody blade that wanted to tear Hogg into pieces.

There was a thud.

Yasad seemed to have bumped into something hard.

He was sent flying and landed on the ground.

He looked ahead and saw a burly figure standing in front of the Hogg knight.

This was a well-proportioned middle-aged man with silver hair and a beard. He had a kind of majestic and masculine beauty.

He didn't seem to have done anything. He just stood there and blocked his terrifying attack.

"If he's the strongest mortal, then what about me?" Levi asked with a smile.

"Who... who are you? This is impossible!" Yasad's face was crazy as he rushed forward again.

His attacks rained down on the silver-haired middle-aged man like a storm.

The sharp claws and the blood saber seemed to have cut into the steel body. Sparks flew everywhere, and the sound of metal colliding could be heard.

Levi did not move and allowed the Primary Blood Clan to hit him a hundred times.

Yasad panted as he looked at the human in front of him. The human's clothes had been torn apart, revealing his body that was covered in dark golden scales.

Yasad's attacks only left light scratches on the dark golden scales. Then, these scratches quickly healed.

In other words, he had not broken through this person's defense at all!

How was this possible?

He was a noble Primary Blood Clan!

How could there be a human who could block his attack?

Even a legendary knight couldn't resist his attack.

And from the looks of it, this person's methods were not those of a wizard!

"You're not human! What kind of monster are you?!"

Yasad asked in horror. This person was definitely not human, but some powerful monster that exceeded his understanding! It might be a Lizardman or a dragon descendant!

He felt fear.

The last time he had such a feeling was a hundred years ago. He had unintentionally provoked a wizard hidden in the human world.

However, the man in front of him did not look like a wizard at all, and he did not use any spells.

He used his physical body to block the attack of a Primary Blood Clan.

"Damn it, you're the monster! Your entire family are monsters! I'm a human!"

Levi broke through his defenses and flew into a rage.

His figure suddenly disappeared and turned into a bloody light.

He hated people calling him a monster the most!

"I, Levi, am a pure human with 100% human blood!"

Before Yasad could react, Levi's large hand had already grabbed his neck tightly.

The violent black gas completely imprisoned him. Yasad was restrained by Levi's huge force and could not move.

As a Bloodthirst Knight, it was naturally easy for him to deal with a Primary Blood Clan of the lowest level.

He took out the Spirit Binding Ring and chanted an incantation.

An illusory circle appeared in the Spirit Binding Ring.

Then, it landed between Yasad's eyebrows and wrapped around his soul.

Not long after, Yasad stopped struggling.

Levi put him down. Yasad lowered his head and bowed to Levi.

This was a sign that the Spirit Binding Ring had succeeded in forcefully forming a contract.

Levi made Yasad stay at the Bug House.

He was elated. He did not expect to contract a Primary Blood Clan so easily.

"The Primary Blood Clan who were once extremely terrifying to me, now it seems that their strength is only so-so." Levi sighed.

With the passage of time, other than the hidden power of the Church, he was basically invincible in the world.

Levi looked at the corpses on the ground and could not help but sigh.

Although he could save these people in advance, he did not have a good impression of the Church.

Therefore, he chose to attack last.

The reason why he saved the knight Hogg was naturally because of the other party's breathing technique and sword skill.

While Levi was secretly watching the battle, he realized that this knight Hogg must have cultivated some powerful physique breathing technique similar to the Undying Bird Breathing Technique.

Not only did it have self-healing abilities, but it could also prevent others from self-healing.

This breathing technique was really heaven-defying!

This breathing technique fusion should belong to Levi!

Thus, he saved Hogg.

Hogg was shocked. His mind was filled with the scene of Yasad being subdued by that man..