Chapter 519: Level 12! Dragon Body Born, Red Lotus Hellfire! (4)

Levi's Spider Sensing had never gone wrong. Therefore, Levi silently left the place and continued heading north.

He went to the Evernight Kingdom. He visited Snow Capital City and many other cities. In the ruins of some cities, he even stumbled upon some breathing technique inheritance diagrams and gold

The blue frost had long destroyed these cities; now, they were as silent as tombs.

It was the same for Hapes' hometown, Icicle Islands. The natives had all turned into Blue Frost Undead, wandering the Snowfield endlessly. They were only freed from their suffering after Levi killed them.

Levi muttered to himself, "Where did the Goddess Knight go? She's a legendary female knight, after all. The Twilight Knights need her. Never mind. If she ever visits the Wizard World, we'll meet again."

He left the Northern Territory and headed for the Emerald King City.

He wanted to see how the Jade Royal Family was faring. If they were on the brink of destruction, he might as well secretly steal the breathing techniques from the King's Treasure Vault.

The Jade Royal Family had been established for a long time, so they should have collected some breathing technique inheritance diagrams from the people.

There was a high chance that the Giant Iron Crocodile Clan's Iron Crocodile Breathing Technique was in the King's Treasure Vault. Levi might even be able to obtain the Dragon Breathing Technique there.

In the Shining Tavern in Green Dragon Territory in the Emerald Kingdom, a travel-worn, ordinary-looking wandering knight held a glass of Blood Wine. The scarlet wine slid down his throat like blood.

"What a sweet taste it has."

This wandering knight was Levi, who had rushed straight to the capital.

He listened to the conversations of travelers from around the world in the Shining Tavern, collecting valuable information.

The towering headquarters of the Holy Brilliance Church was also located in the Emerald King City.

However, Levi had yet to learn where the Heavenly Mountain was located.

Logically speaking, if a mountain was supposed to be in their headquarters, it should be visible.

"Or perhaps the Heavenly Mountain is a secret realm?" Levi pondered.

He mumbled to himself, "The Van Helsing Family's inheritance is in the Church of Holy Light. The William Family's Blood Artifact is also in their possession. These scoundrels are plundering everywhere. There must be a treasure trove hidden in the Heavenly Mountain."

Levi walked out of the tavern and looked at the church.

Based on the information he had gathered, the Jade Royal Family was now in danger despite things appearing calm on the surface.

After recuperating, some of the southern nobles, who had relied on the war to bolster their forces, had begun to move and annex the Jade Royal Family's territories.

The southern nobles even had a young, top-notch grand knight in Yellow Sand Province who showed promise in reaching the legendary knight realm within ten years!

Although the royal family had recovered from the previous war, the strongest person appeared to be the Nation Protecting Divine Sword of the Seven Godly Sword.

Nation Protecting Divine Sword was a powerhouse close to becoming a legendary knight but was quite old. It was unknown if he could become a legendary knight in his lifetime.

If he managed to do so, perhaps with him serving as a deterrent, the royal family could survive for some time.

Levi also learned that the Wilderness Brotherhood, which had not been heard of for a long time, had started to stir up trouble again.

Although these guys were not very strong, they could smell opportunity from a mile away. Once the Wilderness Brotherhood appeared, the world would welcome turmoil.

With Andrew and the two legendary knights guarding Levi's territory, Levi was naturally unafraid of the Wilderness Brotherhood causing trouble for them.

However, this was not necessarily the case for the other lords.

Other than the Wilderness Brotherhood, two new organizations had been growing and expanding over the years, beginning to be active within the seven countries.

The two new organizations were the Death Society and the Church of the Moon God!

Levi could easily guess the powers behind these two new organizations. They were the blue frost faction and the Demonic Feast Alliance.

For the gods of the astral world or the Multidimensional Plane rulers, the best way to conquer a plane was undoubtedly through faith and religion.

As long as faith took root among the people, even if the faction failed to conquer a plane now, their teachings would be passed down from generation to generation for them to make a comeback at any time.

Therefore, the number of heretics and cults that the Seven Orthodox Churches had to deal with was increasing.

There was the Wilderness Brotherhood, the Death Society, the Church of the Moon God, as well as older heretic organizations such as the Silent Monastery, God of War Temple, and the Bird of Death's Voice. More and more factions joined the fray, bringing their own beliefs to the stage of this era.

All this was just the prelude to the awakening of the Dark Wave. With the emergence of the Dark Wave, the elemental power from other dimensions would gradually seep into the human world. The Doomsday Era in the human world may end here.

If that was the case, there was a high possibility that some wizard factions would secretly participate in the future and take a share of the benefits from the vicissitudes of this era.

Levi was a bystander of the times. He stayed away from all this, gleaning information and watching from afar, ready to fish in troubled waters at any time to gain benefits for himself before running away.

In the past, Levi was too weak to participate in such disputes. Now, he had absolute power. He would be fine as long as he did not clash with the Seven Orthodox Churches.

After staying in the Emerald King City for a few days, Levi left quietly because he felt it was not the best time to attack the King's Treasure Vault yet.

However, Levi returned soon after he left.

Yasad, Schinn, and Levi sat together in a small courtyard in the Emerald King City.

Now, Schinn was Levi's Blood Slave, and Yasad was Schinn's Blood Slave.

Through this, Levi could also be considered to have gained control of Yasad..
