Chapter 526: The Saint Descends! Rob the Treasure Vault!(5)

It was better to be safe. In any case, he only had one water element affinity left. With so many breathing techniques, he should be able to give birth to a related Special Effect, right?

With this in mind, he left the capital. After such a battle, there was a high chance that not many mortals who escaped the blood sacrifice would survive.

After the Blood God descended, he remained silent. Terrifying blood flames coiled around the sky and filled the entire city.

The expressions of the Seven Saints changed drastically as they took out their Sealing Sacred Objects!

These Sealing Sacred Objects were all made from the remains of saints. Any

One or them was as powerful as a level 3 BIOOC Artifact or a tmra-circle wizard Tool.

Then, seven different holy objects that emitted seven-colored light lit up and expelled the blood flames!

At the same time, a figure stepped out of the void. It was a youth who looked to be in his teens. He wore linen clothes and was barefooted. There was a holy halo above his head. His eyes were deep and distant, emitting waves of divine might!

The saint of the current Holy Brilliance Church.

Ye Lin!

As soon as he descended, the Blood God's expression changed. He clearly did not expect this saint to be so powerful in such a short period of time.

"This Blood River of yours is really a cockroach that can't be killed. Why are you always asking for trouble? You fail again and again, and you make a comeback again and again. Looks like those guys from the Underworld can't sit still anymore. They're using you to constantly test my bottom line."

The young man had a benevolent expression and spoke in a mature manner, as if he was an elderly wise man.

The Heavenly Father often walked the world in the image of a wise man.

The Blood God remained silent. Without another word, a terrifying blood light spread out and a torrential Blood River surrounded his body.

In this world, a battle comparable to the Fourth-Circle Wizard War was taking place here.

In the sky above the Jadeite Royal City, it was a scene of doomsday.

The battle between the Blood God and saints! The four incarnations of the high-level Blood Clan members were also fighting the Seven Saints with Sealing Sacred Objects!

The other level 2 Blood Clan members took this opportunity to quickly fly towards the Church.

Yax, Guillermo, and the other Blood Clan turned into blood light and appeared in the church.

From the looks of it, they knew the entrance to Heavenly Mountain. Yax looked at the sacred painting.

At this moment, the Saint Painting was spinning like a vortex.

Yax didn't hesitate. He entered and Guillermo quickly followed.

At this moment, Heavenly Mountain was silent.

Because the Seven Saints and saints were all restrained outside, there was no one around.

Yax quickly flew towards the top of Heavenly Mountain. As far as he knew, Heavenly Mountain was sealed with all kinds of treasures that the Church had plundered from the human world since ancient times.

No matter what the battle outside was like, as long as they could snatch a few treasures from Heavenly Mountain, the Blood Clan would have profited!

In particular, the William family's Blood Artifact, the Blood Feather Bow, was also sealed here. He had to take it away. Then, he would use a mystic technique to find the location of the Blood Imprisonment Awl and find the mysterious person who had defeated Schinn and escaped with the Blood Imprisonment Awl!

Only by combining these two powerful Blood Artifacts could he truly unleash their powerful might!

Previously, because he had been busy with the blood sacrifice, he had not settled scores with the mysterious person who had destroyed the Blood Clan.

And after this blood sacrifice was completed, it was time to settle the score.

Yax and the others soon arrived at the top of the mountain. Here, there was an incomparably magnificent temple.

In the temple, there was the statue of the Heavenly Father and the seven angels beside him.

Around these statues were various items and scrolls of various shapes. There were also corpses as white as jade. Under one of the angel statues was a huge bow that was two meters long.

The bow was made of blood-red ribs, and the bowstring was the dragon tendon of a powerful mixed-blood dragon, emitting a demonic and strange aura.

"Blood Feather Bow!"

This was the main reason why Yax took the risk to come here.

After all, even if he snatched the other Sealing Sacred Objects and Wizard Tools, there was a high chance that he would not be able to use them.

"You guys take the others. I'll break the seal on the Blood Feather Bow," Yax said.

"Sure, I'll snatch this saint's remains today." Guillermo looked at a skull in the light shield in front of him. This was the remains of a certain saint.

"This sword is not bad. It's mine."

These Blood Clan experts chose their targets one after another. Then, the eight immortals crossed the sea and displayed their mystical abilities, attempting to break through the seal protecting the treasure.

Yax tried using his ordinary attacks and realized that he could not break this white seal at all.

He could not help but curse the Church. At the same time, a crack suddenly appeared on his forehead. In the crack, a single blood-colored eye appeared and spun strangely.

This was the origin of his name, Bloodeye!

If this Bloodeye consumed some of its origin power, it could barely release a ray attack comparable to a level 3 Blood Clan!

This spell-like ability was named “Bloodeye Suppression” by Yax.

A crimson-red light shot out from Yax’s eyes and swam around the white light barrier like a laser.

Yax’s face started to look weak, but in order to get the Blood Feather Bow, he had to give it his all.

In the end, a hole was finally torn open in the white light barrier. Seeing that the crack was about to close, Yax quickly used his hand to scoop up the Blood Feather Bow.

In the next moment, the crack had already closed. The sealing power of the Sealing Sacred Objects was even more terrifying than he had imagined. It was not so easy to break.

"Did I succeed?" Yax put away the Blood Feather Bow. He looked pleased..
