

Wizard: Starting With the Knights Breathing Method

Chapter 53: Justice Descends from the Heavens!

Levi did not run away immediately.

After firing the first arrow, he immediately fired the second.

The Red Spider Knight was hidden behind a massive rock in the distance. She withheld her breath as she heard the Earthly Dragon Beast's roar approaching.

Judging from earlier screams, the Green Falcon Knight had likely died, like Black Rhino Knight.

She was still young. She was only 27 years old. With her rare identity and beauty as a female knight, she might be favored by earls or heirs and become a mighty countess!

On the hand, Levi's second arrow had already been shot.

Blinded by blood, the Earthly Dragon Beast stomped on the rocks and dust as it charged toward Levi.

Bang!

The arrow did not hit the Earthly Dragon Beast's vitals.
Instead, it shot toward the Earthly Dragon Beast's front leg.

Levi finally realized that Graff was a fraud.

There was no way of reaching its vitals with one strike.

He might as well shoot at the Earthly Dragon Beast's limbs first and cripple it.

As expected, the Armor-Breaking Crossbow shot into the Earthly Dragon Beast's joints and broke its bones.

After a crack, the Earthly Dragon Beast lost its balance and fell forward, rolling.

Levi looked at the last Armor-Breaking Crossbow. He shot it at the Earthly Dragon Beast's hind leg this time.

Another thunderous explosion.

The Earthly Dragon Beast's scream was heart-wrenching.

"I'm breaking your front and hind legs. How are you going to run?"

As Levi said harshly, he retreated far away and watched quietly. After some thought, he took out his arrow.

It shot toward the Earthly Dragon Beast's eyes.

Finally, the poison that the Red Spider Knight had concocted began to take effect.

The poison that was said to be able to kill hundreds of people with a single drop was indeed extraordinary.

The Earthly Dragon Beast's body, more substantial than a grand knight's, began to tremble.

Not long after, the Earthly Dragon Beast became weaker. Graff did not care about the corpses of his two fallen companions. He grabbed the Black Rhino Knight's greatsword and stabbed it into the Earthly Dragon Beast's eye. He stirred it vigorously to ensure that the Earthly Dragon Beast was dead. Then, he sat on the ground, panting.

He was ecstatic in his heart. He had successfully killed an Earthly Dragon Beast.

Besides the precious ambergris, the scales, skin, and even the Earthly Dragon Beast bones could be sold at high prices.

The meat of the Earthly Dragon Beast could have been sold for a lot of money, but Graff was not sure if anyone would buy the poisoned meat.

Graff had previously calculated that the entire body of an adult Earthly Dragon Beast, including the ambergris, was worth more than 5,000 gold coins!

It was a massive sum of money!

With this massive sum, he could buy a good baron's land and become a noble!

Or rather, he could go to the church, buy a normal official position, and become a noble clergy. From then on, he would no longer need to be a bounty hunter or a smuggler!

He could enjoy his life!

It was all worth it after planning for so long!

As for the death of his two companions, Graff merely felt a tiny bit of disdain.

It would be better if they died. That way, he could give them less ambergris.

The Earthly Dragon Beast was dead, and it was time to distribute it.

Only then did the Red Spider Knight walk over leisurely. Levi also walked around with a calm expression.

"Your Excellency White Wolf, thanks to you, we succeeded. I, Graff, have never seen a master archer like you," said Graff with a smile.

"Cut the crap. According to our previous agreement, let's start collecting the ambergris," responded Levi.

Graff quickly nodded. “No problem, I’ll do it.”

Then, he took out some special small bottles and removed the glands from the Earthly Dragon Beast’s mouth.

Although the Earthly Dragon Beast was huge, the ambergris-producing gland was only the size of a coconut. It was unknown how much ambergris was inside.

A unique fragrance filled the air. Soon, Graff took out all the ambergris. There were thirteen bottles, which was much less than he had expected.

This displeased Graff, whose back faced Levi and the Red Spider Knight. He could not help but sigh in his heart. If there were more than 15 bottles, Graff would not mind giving Levi two bottles. However, there were only 13 bottles now. He hesitated for a moment before finally making a decision.

When he turned around, the short sword in his hand that was used to extract the ambergris gland stabbed toward Levi’s neck.

He shouted, "Red Spider! Do it!"

The Red Spider Knight seemed to have also been prepared for this, stabbing a poisoned dagger at Levi from behind.

She had prepared only one portion of that secret poison but two vials!

A poison strong enough to poison an Earthly Dragon Beast would be lethal to Levi.

Levi thought it was reasonable for Graff and the Red Spider Knight to betray him despite immense benefits.

He had already seen through it. From the conversation between Graff, Red Spider, and the others, he could tell they had known each other for a long time. Their relationship was not ordinary, so how could he, an outsider, not be on guard? Especially at a time like this when they were distributing benefits!

Therefore, Levi had already prepared himself for a sudden attack.

When shooting at the Earthly Dragon Beast, he was confident that he could hit the Earthly Dragon Beast from three to four hundred meters away.

Why had he waited for 200 meters before firing? The goal was for the Earthly Dragon Beast to finish off Green Falcon Knight.

After all, among the four of them, only the Green Falcon Knight's speed could suppress Levi's Frost Wolf Breathing Technique, which was at the peak of Level 4. He could easily endanger Levi. Only Graff and the Red Spider Knight were left after dealing with the Green Falcon Knight and with the Black Rhino

Knight already shredded to pieces. Even if they were to betray him suddenly, Levi was confident he could kill them both!

He executed Frost Wolf Breathing Technique to his best potential!

Boom! Levi's body burst forth with terrifying power!

He jumped almost as high as a person and dodged the Red Spider Knight's stab. He even threw a handful of quicklime at her!

This caught the Red Spider Knight off guard and made her narrow her eyes.

Levi pulled out Frostmourne and slashed at her in a split second.

Take this!

Golden Cross Slash! Ripple Force!

The Red Spider Knight did not expect Levi's breathing technique to reach such a high level.

Furthermore, she thought Levi used a strength-type breathing technique when she saw his burly physique. She did not expect him to be so fast, second only to the Green Falcon Knight. He had obviously cultivated a speed -type breathing technique, which was far above hers!

She used her dagger to block Levi's attack, but the Golden Cross Slash broke her blade.

Her beautiful face turned pale. In the next moment, the sword light of the cross-cut directly split her into four!

The attacks from Graff were caught by Levi's bare hands, filled with black gas. He looked at Graff, revealing his silver teeth and a mocking expression.

"Too weak! Too weak!"

Levi grabbed Graff's short sword and kicked the shocked Graff, sending him flying.

Who was he? How many breathing techniques did he cultivate? How could he hold my sword with his bare hands?

The moment he fell to the ground, countless questions flashed through his mind.

Enduring the pain, he stood up shakily and tried to escape with the ambergris.

Bang, bang, bang!

The arrows were like thunderclaps.

Graff turned around to say something, but he could not. His neck was pierced.

He fell to the ground and died with an unwilling expression.

If he had known that Levi was so influential in close combat, he might not have given up his life for those few bottles of ambergris.

However, there were no ifs in this world!

"Fear makes you forget the most important thing. When facing a master archer, never try to run away with your back facing him!"

Levi walked up to Graff and cut off his head..
