Chapter 535: Returning to the Wizard World, Gray Incident! (1)

Shortly after Levi left, starlight gathered into Estella's figure on the surface of the sea.

"You've discovered me? What a powerful perception."

"If I pull him to my side, it might not be a bad thing in the future era of the Dark Wave."

Estella muttered to herself.

She had never seen a human with such mixed bloodlines who could still maintain their rationality.

This was also why bloodline modification wizards had the easiest Strength, but not many people took this path.

Wizards who modified their bloodline modifications often did not end up well. Thinking of this, Estella's figure slowly disappeared from the surface of the sea.

Levi was not in a hurry to return to Dusk Island.

He found an uninhabited island to recover his strength.

"Strange, could it be that a saint of the Church is following me? I'm so careful, how can I be discovered?" Levi thought.

Suddenly, he looked at the starry sky.

The stars shifted and the stars shone.

Spots of starlight gathered in front of Levi and formed a figure in a starry dress.

Levi looked at his Spider Sensing.

"I don't feel anything! Either the enemy's level is too high, or there's no hostility..."

Such a gorgeous appearance let Levi know that the person in front of him was most likely an apostle or saint of the church.

There was also a very small chance that they were powerful wizards who stayed in the human world.

Levi had been avoiding contact with the Church as if he was walking on thin ice.

However, he was still exposed to the Church.

This made him vigilant, Red Lotus Blood was ready to erupt at any time.

He knew that he might not be a match for a saint, but he would definitely not sit and wait for death.

Actually, Levi could not be blamed for all of this. If there was anyone to blame, it was Yax and the others who were too unlucky. They were followed by a saint and indirectly harmed Levi.

"There's no need to be so careful. If I had any hostility towards you, your soul would have already gone to the Underworld Source River," Estella said softly. "Are you a saint of the church?" Levi took a deep breath and said calmly.

Estella nodded.

Levi's heart skipped a beat. He could feel his uncontrollable heartbeat.

He wasn't afraid of saints. He was just afraid that the person behind the saints was a real God!

Furthermore, they were not ordinary Gods. They were the seven orthodox gods. In the astral world, they were also overlords.

Even the powerful wizard civilization had yet to surpass the gods.

It was only because Sauron and the legendary sorcerers had mastered legendary spells that could pose a threat to God that they were able to fight against the gods.

At the very least, according to Levi's current knowledge, the seven orthodox gods were almost the combat power ceiling of the Multidimensional Plane.

Faced with such a saint, even high-level primordial soul wizards would be nervous, let alone Levi.

Even if this saint didn't seem hostile, his divine might was unpredictable. Who could know what a god was really thinking?

"I know that you're a wizard. You might have received the education of a wizard since you were young. The Seven Gods are cunning, hypocritical, domineering, sanctimonious, high and mighty, and arrogant... In short, these adjectives are not wrong. But that doesn't mean we can't be partners."

Estella smiled.

"Senior, you must be joking. I'm just a mortal. It's too arrogant and conceited for me to work with God. I still don't even know who you are," Levi said. "Sorry, I forgot to introduce myself. My name is Estella, the saint of the Church of Stars. Actually, strictly speaking, I'm also a person with an independent personality. I'm not equivalent to God," Estella said.

The Church of Stars.

Levi's mind quickly flashed with information about this Church.

In the end, he realized that he knew very little about the Church of Stars.

This was a Church that did not seem to have much of a presence. It was like the stars in the sky. They were clearly so dazzling and beautiful, but we would never notice them usually.

The Lord of the Stars was a legendary god who herded the stars. He was also known as the "Star Herder" and "Shepherd of the Astral World".

"Then you don't mind if I call you Miss Estella, right? It'll be more intimate this way." Levi tried her best to relax and then smiled.

"Of course not."

"Then, Miss Estella, what do you want to cooperate with me for? With my strength, I might not be able to help you," Levi asked politely, trying his best to show his goodwill.

"You're too humble. You've already helped me. You helped me deal with those ugly Blood Clan," Estella said.

"As a human, the Blood Clan is also my enemy," Levi said.

When Estella heard Levi say that she was human, she could not help but laugh.

"What's wrong?" Levi asked.

"Nothing. I just thought of something funny." She shook her head and continued.

"Actually, I haven't thought about what we can work with yet. I just wanted to tell you in advance and express my kindness to you. This way, we can be considered familiar with each other in the future."

Levi was speechless.

"That's it then. Remember, I'm Estella from the Church of Stars."

This mysterious saint from the Church of the Stars only came to greet Levi before turning into a beam of starlight and leaving.

"I have to hurry back to the Wizard World. The human world is even more dangerous than the Wizard World. I can even encounter saints in a fight." Levi felt a sense of urgency as he watched Estella leave..
