Chapter 554: Transcendent Perception Advancement! Domineering Vision? (5)

Levi, on the other hand, continued to make money and cultivate.

After a few days, Levi chatted with Grimm and found out that Tommen was the strange wizard who had refined the Blood Elf's Wail into the Black Elf's Curse.

Originally, Huffman had firmly refused to let this guy join his department.

However, after the Green Forest Sage found out about this, he actually got the military to send Tommen back. He even said that Tommen was actually considered a talent.

This was because the Black Elf's Curse was actually the same as the Blood Elf's Wail. However, the refinement method was completely different. The difficulty of the Black Elf's Curse also far exceeded the Blood Elf's Wail.

Tommen had accidentally refined the Black Elf's Curse, which meant that he had some talent.

Therefore, the Green Forest Sage simply let Tommen focus on refining the Black Elf's Curse. After all, if this thing was used well, it could also be used on the battlefield.

Levi did not know whether to laugh or cry.

Holy Brilliance Calendar Year 1041, Month of Northern Wind.

Levi had been in Riptide City for half a year.

His merit points had also reached 6,000 points. This speed of earning merit points was no longer inferior to that of the second-circle Grimm. It far exceeded that of other First-Circle Pharmacists.

He, Grimm, and Tommen also became more and more familiar with each other. Gradually, they became the “Three Swordsmen” under Supervisor Huffman. They often appeared together. In this unfamiliar big city, it was indeed helpful to make more friends.

In the Tower of Pharmacists, there were naturally some small groups. Levi’s small group was just one of them.

In the past six months, Levi had already bought all the breathing techniques in the merit shop.

He had also broken through the limit of the Heavenly Owl Breathing Technique and cultivated his liver to the Maximum of level 9. However, unlike the breathing techniques of the other five dimensions, Transcendent Perception did not transform into a certain Gas Special Effect. Instead, it had become a new thing.

Levi—

Heavenly Owl Breathing Technique: Level 9 (Maximum), Special Effects: Intuition (Level 1), Spider Sensing, Favored By The Night, Heavenly Wind Heart.

[Intuition: Your vision, hearing, smell, taste, touch, and other conventional five senses are all transcendent. In the Communication state, you have a meticulous judgment of everything around you. You can see through everything and anticipate the enemy's first move. Observe before moving.]

After Transcendent Perception advanced to Intuition, Levi seemed to be able to enter a higher state, which was Intuition.

In the state of Intuition, he seemed to have activated Domineering Vision, and it was a large-scale, high-precision Domineering Vision that could even predict attacks, similar to Enel's Heart Web, the God of the Sky Island in One Piece, and the collection of Usopp and Katakuri's Domineering Vision.

In my previous life, there were so-called six senses and six techniques in some religions and cultures. If the Perception-type breathing technique continued to advance, would it evolve in this direction? Levi thought.

Heaven's Eye, Heaven's Ear, Mind's Eye, Fate's Eye, Leak's Eye...

"Could the transcendent Dao be the same in the distant future?"

"In the endless Multidimensional Plane, there are thousands of transcendent paths. Perhaps in essence, these paths can lead to Rome, but there are some obstacles that need to be unblocked, just like my path as a knight!" For a moment, Levi thought about many things.

He retracted his attention and did not dare to use large-scale perception in Riptide City.

There were too many powerful people here, and the Magi had all kinds of strange methods. Levi did not want to offend some powerful people for no reason and be found.

Level 9 Perception was only a small part of Levi's cultivation results during this period of time.

He was not arrogant. He silently digested these results and waited for the day he would reap the rewards.

His spell power had already reached 1,000 points, reaching the limit of a First-Circle Wizard.

The second-circle spell model that he had prepared for the advancement to the second-circle had also been successfully constructed.

Levi finally chose an Earth School of Thought spell named "King Kong Rock Body".

This was the advanced version of the First-Ring Spell, Rock Body. Levi had spent 3,000 merit points in exchange for it.

The King Kong Rock Body was also a passive defensive spell. Moreover, if it was cultivated to the limit, it would almost have a B-rank defensive strength, not much inferior to Levi's current Golden Snake Scales.

Everything was ready except for the eye demon.

When Levi was not cultivating, he would also get someone to inquire about the eye demon in Lower Riptide.

After all, the combat wizards in the Lower Riptide often cleaned up the monsters outside the Hundred-Eyed Demon Territory. They knew the situation there the best.

Holy Brilliance Calendar Year 1042, Month of Beginning.

The seventh year of the Great Expedition.

There was still no news from the expeditionary army.

Similarly, there was no news from Gray Tower's companions.

On the Endless Sea, the flames of war were still burning.

Levi had also spent nearly a year in Riptide City.

Recently, Levi had been troubled by the secret medicine.

After this period of cultivation, his secret medicine was almost used up.

However, he was not qualified to apply for leave to go home. When the secret medicine was used up, his breathing technique cultivation would be difficult.

Of course, it was not all bad news. After Levi secretly asked around, he found out that the area east of Riptide City was the outer area of the Hundred-Eyed Demon Territory.

A level 2 eye demon appeared and defeated a team of demon-hunting wizards. The team suffered heavy casualties, and only half of them escaped.

Regardless of the credibility of this news, Levi could only go and check it out now. He was already 52 years old, so he had to hurry up and advance to become a Second-Circle Wizard.

In theory, wizards could break through at any age, but in practice, under the same conditions, the later they advanced, the lower the success rate.

Levi could not delay any longer. The sooner he advanced to the second-circle, the better he would be able to establish himself in Riptide City.

Hence, after making all the preparations, he completed his work for the next week in advance and came to Huffman's residence.

"You're going to participate in a demon-hunting mission outside the city? Are you lacking potion ingredients to break through?" Huffman was puzzled.

"Yes, Lord." Levi knew that he could not hide it from this shrewd pharmacist, so he told the truth.

"What do you need? I'll see if I have it here. If I do, you can use merit points or Aether Stones to exchange for it from me," Huffman said after thinking for a moment.

Levi was a rare pharmacist seedling and had brought him a lot of results. Naturally, he did not want Levi to participate in dangerous demon-hunting missions.

One had to know that pharmacists were not good at fighting. It was simply suicidal for them to participate in demon hunting.

"Eye of the Devil," Levi said.

If Huffman had it, Levi would not have to go through so much trouble.

"Ahem... Well, I really don't have one." Huffman coughed.

The potion formula he had mastered to break through to the second-circle was not the Eye Devil's Gaze, so he had not prepared any potion ingredients in this aspect.

As for the ingredients in his potion formula, they were not complete yet, so he could not refine a complete potion.

With Levi's cautiousness, he probably wouldn't use the potion he made.

"Alright, go ahead. Be careful. At your age, there's no need to be in such a hurry to break through to the second -circle. If you really can't, take your time. Your life is more important."

Huffman's sharp voice said some warm words, making Levi vaguely feel like he was in the Gray Tower.

"Thank you, Lord." Levi came to the Lower Riptide after thanking him.

Here, he contacted the team that encountered the eye demon through his informant.

After spending some money, he roughly understood the situation and coordinates.

He boarded the wizard airship and flew towards the war zone where the eye demon was found.

At the same time, in Upper Riptide.

Beside him, a Gray-Robed Wizard waited quietly.

"Tsk tsk, the money tree under Huffman has finally left the city. You should take action. A mere pharmacist dares to participate in the Demon-Hunting Operation. It's normal for him to die outside...."
