

Wizard 562

Chapter 562: Change in the Interface! Meditation Art Fusion! (3)

He could feel that Levi's spiritual force fluctuation was completely different from his.

A few days ago, he was still a first-circle rookie like him.

How did he advance to the second-circle after not seeing him for a few days?

"Yes, I just advanced," Levi said with a smile.

"I'm so envious!"

Grimm was about to shed tears of envy.

When he first met Levi, Levi was still an ordinary first-circle wizard. At that time, Grimm was already a senior first-circle wizard and a Second-Circle

Pharmacist.

Nowadays, times have changed.

Levi was already a Second-Circle Wizard and a Second-Circle Pharmacist.

However, he was still in the same place.

This made Grimm doubt his life. He began to reflect on himself.

"Sigh, I feel like I've been dragged down by my family. I have to hurry up and advance to the second-circle. Otherwise, just based on my status as a Second-Circle Pharmacist, others might be polite to you on the surface and respect you as a pharmacist, but they will still look down on you behind your back." Grimm suddenly sighed.

"That's right. In this world, strength is the real thing. Everything else can only be said to be the icing on the cake. Mr. Grimm, I wish you a speedy advancement to the second-circle."

Levi gave his sincere blessings.

"Thank you! I must advance to the second -circle before that fatty Tommen!" Grimm said.

"Hahaha, I'm sorry, Grimm. You're going to be disappointed. I'll definitely advance to the second-circle in three years!" Tommen walked over with a confident expression and a big belly.

"Alright, let's see who advances to the second-circle first." Grimm was old and unwilling to admit defeat.

Levi looked at the confident Tommen. Tommen was different from him.

Tommen was a disciple of a Third-Circle Wizard family, and his father was a Third-Circle Wizard.

The reason why he could be brought back to the Tower of Pharmacists from the military camp so quickly was not buried in the military camp.

Other than the Green Forest Sage's foresight, he also had the help of his family.

Hence, Levi guessed that his family had prepared a second-circle breakthrough potion for him, which was why Tommen was so confident.

He sighed in his heart. Other people more or less had some support in this world.

As for himself, he could only rely on the interface panel.

After exchanging pleasantries with Grimm and Tommen for a while, Levi hurriedly bade farewell and went to find Huffman.

Huffman had been happily counting his mountain of Aether Stones. Now that he sensed Levi's arrival, he put them away and coughed. "Lord Huffman, I would like to request an audience."

"Come in."

As soon as he entered, Huffman felt Levi's spiritual force fluctuation, which was much stronger than before.

"Not bad. Looks like you gained something from your demon-hunting trip," Huffman said with a smile.

"I gained something. I was lucky enough to break through to the second-circle," Levi said.

"That's a good thing," Huffman said.

Then, Levi realized that 1,000 merit points had suddenly been transferred to his bracelet.

"Lord? This is?" Levi was puzzled.

"A little reward. On one hand, it's a reward for your past efforts. On the other hand, it's a congratulatory gift for you after you advanced to the second-circle."

"As long as you work hard with me, Huffman, I can't guarantee that you'll be above everyone else in Riptide City. However, it's not a problem to buy a mansion in the Upper Riptide where every inch of land is worth money."

Huffman spoke without expression. He sat on a high stool and drummed his fingers on the table. He had the tone and manner of a boss.

Good lord, there was a year-end bonus?

There was actually such a kind boss in the Wizard World.

Levi cried himself to death.

One had to know that his boss in his previous life could not bear to give him a year-end bonus. He even used the beautiful vision of buying a house in the capital to paint a picture for him.

This cold Wizard World was actually more humane than in his previous life.

After spending so much time together, Levi had noticed it too.

Huffman was a greedy man. However, although he was greedy, he was not a Bad person.

All in all, Levi was quite satisfied with such a boss.

In fact, it was useless even if he was dissatisfied. In the entire Tower of Pharmacists, only the Green Forest Sage was qualified to mobilize the members of the Tower of Pharmacists.

Levi needed the Green Forest Sage's approval if he wanted to jump ship and work for another supervisor, or if the other supervisors wanted to poach Levi.

After handing in his mission potion, he chatted with Huffman about the potion's plan for the future.

At the same time, he quietly learned some information about the other supervisors from Huffman.

Levi left Middle Riptide and arrived at Upper Riptide.

According to Huffman, most of the five supervisors had their own luxurious mansions in the Upper Riptide. Most of the time, they lived there.

Levi now suspected that someone from the other four supervisors was trying

To harm him.

Although he kept a low profile, his talent as a pharmacist and Liver Emperor's style still made him quite famous in the Tower of Pharmacists.

He heard from Grimm that many pharmacists privately called him Minotaur Levi. Because Levi was as hardworking as the minotaur, it caused the Tower of Pharmacists to show signs of internal politics...

As Grimm knew the big shots in the military, he knew a lot about the Tower of Pharmacists.

Levi also learned from Grimm that there was competition between supervisors.

He also knew that Huffman had actually obtained first place in the performance assessment in the past few years because of his hard work.

After receiving a large reward from the military, he secretly bought a house in the Upper Riptide!

No wonder this dwarf had been missing from the Tower of Pharmacists recently.. It turned out that he had moved into a big house in the Upper Riptide!
