

Wizard 589

Chapter 589: Level 13 Golden Snake! Blood Knight! (5)

[Unknown Dragon Clan Bloodline 10%... Human Bloodline 99%]

"The Golden Snake bloodline has reached 10%. From the looks of it, level 13 starts with 10%."

"Why has my human bloodline decreased so much..."

"I don't care. So be it. Ninety-nine percent. There's still a lot of room for descent. I'm still human at the moment."

Levi was no longer afraid of boiling water.

He stepped out of the house, breathing in the fresh air, and feeling the bustle of the city.

The friendly neighbor, Wizard Will, was not at home today. He had gone to participate in a demon-hunting operation.

"I took a month off and earned too few merit points. I have to make up for it next."

Levi went to Huffman and accepted the next Pharmacy mission.

Then, he learned that Grimm had also advanced to the second -circle.

"Congratulations, sir Grimm," Levi said sincerely.

"Hahaha, I'm finally at the second-circle. From now on, I'm no longer at the bottom." Grimm laughed.

Levi, Grimm, and the others celebrated again at Levi's house. This time, Grimm treated them to a meal and ordered a few more serious strippers. One of them was a fur clan dancer with rabbit ears.

Levi was not an auspicious person, but out of curiosity about the rabbit-eared girl, he still asked around and found out that this dancer from the fur clan was also a guest from another multidimensional plane. She was brought back as a slave by the wizards and later ended up in Riptide City.

Levi also learned that there were many fur clan slaves for sale in the slave market in the Lower Riptide City's underground black market.

The fur clan was different from the elves. They were ordinary short-lived species and only had some simple spell-like abilities. Their wizard talent was also average.

However, the fur clans were born with strong physiques and specialized in powerful body techniques and combat techniques. They were born to be experts in close combat, and their body technique talent was different from ordinary people.

This tempted Levi.

He wanted to buy some fur clan slaves and try to do some experiments.

If the experiment was successful, he might be able to create legendary knights in batches.

Levi, who had been cultivating alone for decades, also felt tired.

He realized that there were many things that he had to do himself. It was a waste of his time and effort.

Therefore, he wanted to start nurturing his own faction in the Wizard World and build the main hall of the Dusk Holy Temple in the Wizard World.

The Dusk Holy Temple in the human world was a branch hall.

The slaves of these fur clans could be taken in by signing slave contracts.

After Grimm and the others left, the rabbit-eared girl of the fur clan also left.

She was currently working in a tavern in the Lower Riptide. Her daily job was to perform and sell her body...

There was no doubt that there were many fortune-lovers among the wizards.

Not to mention the fur clan, they could even lay their hands on thick and burly Sea Clan women covered in scales.

After Levi found out the location of the slave black market, he took advantage of the relatively safe time when Wizard Will was out hunting demons to come to the Lower Riptide.

Compared to the Middle Riptide, the Lower Riptide was much more chaotic.

Although Riptide City had a sheriff to maintain order, it was mainly to maintain order in Upper Riptide. After all, those who lived in Upper Riptide were either rich or noble. They were all important figures in Riptide City.

Middle Riptide was better. Many second-circle and even Third-Circle Wizards lived there.

Lower Riptide was basically a place where First-Circle Wizards and apprentice wizards without any background or strength lived. There were also many mortals mixed in.

Before long, Levi arrived at the slave black market in Lower Riptide.

It was said that this black market was opened by a fourth-circle big shot in Upper Riptide, so no one had come to manage it.

In theory, the slave trade was illegal because it was very uncivilized and damaged the image of the wizard civilization in the Multidimensional Plane.

In fact, in the Wizard World, the underground slave trade market had always been very prosperous.

In this slave black market, Levi saw many slaves of all shapes and sizes living in small iron cells.

Most of these slaves were humans. There were also some foreign races, but there were not many of them.

Seeing Levi's arrival, a First-Circle Wizard immediately ran over enthusiastically.

"Greetings, Lord. I'm the owner of this place, the wizard Sadda. What type do you want? Feel free to tell me."

Second-circle wizards were not rare in Riptide City. Sadda had seen many of them. There was even a Third-Circle Wizard in their black market, but he usually did not show his face.

However, Sadda's professionalism made him very enthusiastic even when facing a First-Circle Wizard.

"I heard you sell animal skin slaves here?" Levi asked bluntly.

"That's right. We provide animal skin slaves here. Furthermore, we can help your slaves obtain legal status for free so that you can use them without worry," said Sadda with a smile.

"Oh? May I look at the goods first? I want the fur clan," Levi asked.

"The fur clan... Hehe, I understand. Lord, please follow me." Sadda had a playful look in his eyes. Slaves from the fur clan were very popular and were the favorites of many wizards.

He led Levi to the basement level.

Here, Levi saw a transparent room lined up side by side. Inside were fur clan slaves.

Among these slaves, those beautiful, naked, curvaceous fur clan girls with cat ears or rabbit ears were especially eye-catching, their prices were the highest.

Levi's gaze swept past these beautiful women, looking at the brawny men of the fur clan who no one cared about in the corner.

He was here to find a knight..