Chapter 597: Legendary Forbidden Technique! New Mutation, Dragon Demon Breathing Technique! (2)

Previously, in order to save money to buy the Minnie Miaomiao House, he could not bear to spend his Aether Stones.

Now that he had the Greenfield Immortal House, it would be enough for a long time. The Minnie Miaomiao House was dispensable.

Although the Greenfield Immortal House was a little crowded, it was not uninhabitable.

He would let these transcendent creatures squeeze in and make do.

In his previous life, he was already satisfied with renting a room and a living room that was dozens of square meters.

These fellows were much better off living in the Greenfield Immortal House than him. Why would they need the Minnie Miaomiao House?

The damaged third-circle Wizard Tool had lost its appraisal value. Levi planned to find a black market and secretly dispose of it in exchange for some money.

Levi saw a thick parchment book among the junk in the storage bag. The paper was yellow with age.

Thousand Faced's Murder Diary.

"Who in their right mind would write a diary, or a murder diary at that? His mind is so dark and perverted. Can't he be as bright and cheerful as me and be kind to others?"

Levi opened the diary and read it.

They were all trivial memories of Thousand Faced Knights.

Out of curiosity about a legendary knight, Levi finished reading the diary.

Putting aside the useless content, Levi still obtained some useful information.

First, the Thousand Faced Knight was actually a half-elf, and it was the rarest Dark Elf among the elves. This was beyond Levi's expectations.

No wonder the Black Knight said that the Thousand Faced Knight was not simple. Moreover, the Thousand Faced Knight seemed to always appear in the history of the kingdom, leaving behind Nameless legends.

So this was also a longevity species that did not take time seriously like the Blood Knight.

Unfortunately, he had longevity but no powerful protection. Not only did he not cherish his lifespan, but he was also in the assassination business. Now

That he met Levi, he had failed miserably.

If Levi had the lifespan of a longevity species, he would definitely live in a place until the end of time and cultivate to become the strongest in the world.

Being a high-risk job like an assassin was simply stupid.

The second piece of useful information was about the Black Devil Blade secret technique Levi had obtained.

It turned out that this secret technique was actually created by an expert of the Dark Elf Clan. He was really a genius.

Unfortunately, in the war between the wizard civilization and Pandora civilization, this genius had already died in the Wizard's Hand.

There were not many Dark Elves. Their individual strength was slightly stronger than the green and blue elves.

One of the important reasons was that many people among the Dark Elves had mastered this Black Devil Blade secret technique.

Of course, the true name of this secret technique was Blood Fear Demon God.

The goal was to become one with his spirit and body, stimulate his bloodline power, and condense his spiritual force into the Bloodline Dharma Body.

The appearance of this Blood Fear Demon God phantom was strange. In the hearts of a thousand people, there were a thousand Blood Fear Demon Gods.

In the Thousand Faced Knight's diary, there was no detailed record of the secret technique of the Blood Fear Demon God.

Presumably, this was something similar to a bloodline memory inheritance.

However, it did not matter. Levi had the proficiency panel and could continuously deduce on his own.

In addition, the Dark Elf race generally believed in the unknown god [Shadow Lord].

This was also one of the original intentions of the Thousand Faced Knight to create the Bird of Death's Voice.

Through the Bird of Death's Voice, he indirectly achieved the goal of spreading the faith of the Shadow Lord.

"This organization is really persistent. When I was in the human world, they secretly killed me three times. I didn't expect that I would come to the Wizard World. Even the founder of the organization came to assassinate me. Now, I finally understand everything."

Levi sighed in his heart.

The next day.

Levi boarded the wizard airship back home. He realized that there were fewer wizards returning home this year...

"Sigh."

Three months ago, Levi had heard that the Wind-Chasing Arrow Kankur had died in a demon-hunting mission.

This made Levi sigh. In fact, he had only met the other party once and was not familiar with him.

However, as fellow villagers who were going to Riptide City together, he was once a living person, but now he was a dead soul of the Underworld. It was indeed a pity.

He remembered that the last time he went home, Kankur was still looking at his wife's photo.

Life and death were unpredictable, and so were wizards.

The horror and cruelty of war were evident.

If he wanted to not be affected by any calamity, then there was only one way, and that was to be supreme and powerful!

This trip back to his hometown was still smooth. There were no dark wizards trying to rob him.

The combined forces of Riptide City were not something ordinary wizard organizations could compare to.

Ordinary dark wizard organizations did not have the guts to attack the military's wizard airship.

Before long, Levi arrived at Bass Island.

He rushed to the Black Fire Island without stopping.

At the same time.

Black Fire Island.

A Second-Circle Wizard led a First-Circle Wizard towards Black Fire Island.

"Lord, this is the place I accidentally discovered that seems to be the ruins of a modern wizard. It should be the cave abode of a fallen wizard."

Wizard Joann said.

He was a First-Circle Wizard from the Ocean Faction.

His secondary profession was rather special. He was a Ruin Hunter Wizard.

Ruin Hunters were wizards who specialized in searching for ruins and treasures in the Wizard World.

These ruins could be ancient ruins of wizards, or some ruins of modern wizards, or just some uninhabited wizard cave abodes, or even tombs.

Joann had mastered a secret technique that could determine if there were any ruins in a place by perceiving the fluctuations and chaos of magnetism and elemental power in an area.

It was similar to the Dragon Seeking Acupuncture Technique of a tomb raider..
