Chapter 619: Raging Hellfire Burns My Lotus Body! Time for Revenge! (5)

"Gan, when will the sacrificial soldiers arrive?" Rex asked.

"Lord, he's already here. I told him to wait outside the city," Gan said.

"Alright, I'll go meet him. Huffman and Levi are no longer qualified to play with me. I'm tired of them." Rex flung his sleeves and flew out of the city in big strides.

Although his status in the family was getting worse and worse, even his father hated him.

However, he still managed to obtain a third-circle sacrificial soldier.

This sacrificial soldier was a rare Giant Spell Caster and was very powerful.

Ordinary Third-Circle Wizards were no match for him.

This was because the Giant Tribe was born with extraordinary strength and a strong body.

This giant sacrificial soldier could fight a Third-Circle Wizard with his physical body alone.

Not to mention that he was a Third -Circle Wizard.

Even a third-circle senior wizard might not be a match for the giant sacrificial soldier.

Such a sacrificial soldier should be able to kill Levi.

After killing Levi, Rex would slowly regain his advantage.

In the end, he would find an opportunity to kill Huffman as well.

He wanted to show those people in his family that without the support of his family, he could still make a name for himself in Riptide City! Meanwhile, inside the Wizard Tower in Middle Riptide.

Levi opened his eyes as well.

After more than a year of cultivation, his strength had improved again.

Levi—

Crimson Copper Armor: Level 7 (Maximum) Thunderbird: Level 6 (13,456/40,000)

"Another max-level second-circle defensive spell."

"Crimson Copper Armor, Earth Spirit Shield, and King Kong Rock Body. With so many second-circle defensive spells stacked on top of my Aether Dominance talent, my spell defense is enough to contend with a Third-Circle Wizard. Not to mention, I also have a level 13 Golden Snake.

"It's no exaggeration to say that when facing ordinary Third-Circle Wizards, my defense alone is enough to make me invincible."

Of course, what really gave Levi confidence was not this Maximum second-circle defensive spell, but his level 13 Red Lotus Breathing Technique.

Levi—

Red Lotus Breathing Technique: Level 13 (1/500,000). Special Effect: Hellfire Body (Level 1), Red Lotus Blood, Child of Hellfire.

[Hellfire Burning Body (Level 1): Raging Hellfire Burns My Lotus Body. After experiencing the baptism of Hellfire, your body has undergone a huge transformation. Your strength's main attribute has increased greatly, and your other attributes have also increased to varying degrees. From now on, your resistance to fire is not inferior to the Flame Giant of the same level. For a newborn Red Lotus, only after the baptism of Hellfire can you forge a supreme Red Lotus Body!]

Levi would never forget the pain of the Hellfire baptism some time ago. He seemed to have fallen into an endless state of self-immolation.

"Compared to the Golden Snake's molting, Red Lotus' Hellfire baptism is too painful." Levi could not help but sigh.

"It's painful, but worth it."

The increase in Strength brought about by the level 13 Red Lotus was extremely terrifying.

This gave Levi the ability to break through a Third-Circle Wizard's defensive field in Normal State.

He sized up his current body in satisfaction and put on the robe.

"The time is right. The time for revenge has come."

He looked at the stars in the sky and quietly left the wizard tower.

According to his informant at the port, Rex had sneaked out of the city tonight.

"When the moon is dark and the wind is strong, it's time to commit murder and arson."

Today, it was time to kill.

Outside the city.

The sea was silent.

It was calm and peaceful, and the starlight shone on the surface of the sea. It was quiet and beautiful.

Rex and Gan found the giant sacrificial soldiers sitting at the bottom of the sea.

This sacrificial soldier wore huge heavy armor and was nearly ten meters tall. His entire body emitted a thick earth-element aura.

This set of heavy armor was a huge rock armor condensed from earth elements.

This was a Mountain Giant.

There was a spell from the Earth School of Thought named after the Mountain Giant.

First-Ring Spell, Mountain Giant's Wrath!

Therefore, this race was born to be favored by the earth element.

However, among the Mountain Giants, there were very few who were born with wizard talent.

The sacrificial soldier in front of him was a special case.

"Your name is Bo Gang, right?" Rex asked.

The Mountain Giant sacrificial soldier looked at Rex and nodded expressionlessly.

The sacrificial soldiers were all like this. They basically turned into complete killing machines and no longer had any emotions.

He was now doing whatever Rex ordered him to do. Other than that, he did not move at all.

"From now on, I'm your master," Rex said.

He was holding a Spirit Binding Ring!

Moreover, this was an extremely rare level 3 Spirit Binding Ring. It was even more expensive than a third-circle Wizard Tool.

This was also the reason why the cost of nurturing sacrificial soldiers was so high.

Not only did he have to invest a large amount of resources, but he also needed a precious item like the Spirit Binding Ring to ensure the loyalty of the sacrificial soldiers.

"Next, I need you to kill someone," Rex said.

"Who is it?" Bo Gang's voice rumbled like thunder.

The powerful aura made Gan, who was beside him, want to escape. The Mountain Giant was too big. As it stood there, it exuded an oppressive aura.

Gan knew that Bo Gang could crush him with one hand. His second-circle defensive field could not withstand Bo Gang for even a moment.

This was the huge gap between him and Bo Gang.

Suddenly.

Around Rex, streams of light streaked across the sky. They were array flags..
