

Wizard 628

Chapter 628: Long-Armed King Kong! Turmoil in Riptide City! Beasts in the Ancient Forest! (2)

He still felt that it was better not to get involved with organizations that might have power struggles.

Currently unclear about the details and strength of both sides, it's unwise to take sides easily.

Later on, it might lead to complications and involve himself.

As much as possible, it's better to stay out of it, viewing the unfolding events from the perspective of a bystander.

Back at the wizard tower, Levi deeply felt how insignificant individuals were in the face of the turbulent currents of this era.

Wizards like them, at the bottom, were just pawns.

Perhaps only high-level wizards, even Grand Wizards, Legendary Wizards, could become the players.

"Pawns are just pawns. As long as I'm alive, everything is fine. According to reason, when I transmigrated to this world, I should have been like those protagonists in online novels, exploring everywhere, searching for relics, seizing opportunities, collecting treasures, participating in auctions, and so on. But the result is that I forcibly became a homebody wizard, almost seventy years old, without experiencing a grand, impromptu adventure."

Levi couldn't help but mock himself.

The main theme of his life was always quietly practicing at home, from the mortal period to becoming a wizard.

This could also be considered an unchanged original intention.

"Master! I've advanced to Grand Knight! I broke through that barrier!"

Algerta ran over excitedly, displaying her Grand Knight cultivation and the black gas covering her body.

Levi sensed it.

"Indeed, you've reached Grand Knight. Well done! You're faster than I expected. Your cultivation speed will probably slow down from now on, but don't worry, this is a normal process. Just continue your practice step by step." Levi patted Algerta's head.

The white wolf girl closed her eyes and willingly rubbed against Levi's rough hands.

"Thank you, master! I'll work hard. I won't hold you back." Algerta happily said.

"Go ahead." Levi smiled.

Algerta hopped away.

"To cultivate the Frost Wolf Breathing Technique to the Grand Knight realm, this completely exceeded my expectations," Levi muttered to himself.

In addition to that, Tiga and his two brothers also reached the high-level knight cultivation, mastering the use of black gas and making significant progress in their two sword techniques.

Levi was satisfied with the cultivation speed of these fur clan members.

When he advanced to the third circle, perhaps they could also reach the Legendary realm. At that time, they would be useful.

"Continue cultivating and integrating the four breathing techniques of the Strength Rune Language as soon as possible."

Levi's inner world remained calm and undisturbed despite the external hustle and bustle. As long as it had nothing to do with him, he could ignore it.

At the end of the year 1056 in the Holy Brilliance Calendar, during the Month of Winter, Levi learned from Huffman that the high-level wizard couple in Riptide City had left the city a month ago and headed to the headquarters of the Pan-Plane Wizard Council.

This headquarters was located in the heart of the Realm of the Unbelievers, the core of the entire Wizard World.

It was said that more than half of the high-level wizards in the Wizard World resided in the Central Realm.

It was the pinnacle of wizard civilization, the most advanced hub of knowledge and technological output, the birthplace of council decisions, and the cradle of Sauron's creation of the Pan-Plane Wizard Council.

Legendary wizards often presided there to prevent invasions from other planes.

For high-level wizards, naturally, they hoped to practice in the Central Realm, where they could meet more like-minded individuals and access more resources.

The departure of high-level wizards was something the Star Tower had no control over. Riptide City still needed a high-level wizard to govern.

However, currently, all the high-level wizards that could be mobilized in the Endless Sea were engaged in battle against dark wizards, leaving no one available. Therefore, Blue Dragon Lady, a fifth-circle dragon descendant wizard, had to temporarily assume the role of the city lord in Riptide City.

According to regulations, the commander-in-chief had the right and obligation to temporarily assume the role of city lord.

However, the majority of low-level wizards in Riptide City were unaware that there were no high-level wizards left in the Riptide Steeple,

The military had blocked this information, fearing it would lead to a loss of morale and fighting spirit among the troops.

Because once this news reached the lower-level wizards, from their perspective, it would undoubtedly seem that the couple, relying on their own positions of power, had realized the futility of resisting the demon army and the forces of the dark wizard. That's why they abandoned Riptide City and them.

If even the high-ranking generals had fled, what meaning remained in the battles fought by the soldiers below?

In the Upper Riptide area, at 10 Tanton Street, a massive wizard estate stood.

Within the estate, rockeries, lakes, wizard towers, and various buildings were scattered throughout the grounds.

At the top of the Blue Dragon Tower, a witch, dressed in a blue robe, with an impressive figure and twin horns on her head, gazed into the distance towards the Upper Riptide.

By her side stood several Fourth-Circle Wizards, positioned on one side.

She was none other than Blue Dragon Lady, a fifth -circle dragon descendant wizard.

"It's about to begin. Prepare to face Sorrett's challenge. He won't let it go easily. I've worked with him for so long; I know him too well," Blue Dragon Lady said.

"Lord, our personnel on this side have also assembled. If that Thunder Spear dares to attack you, we will surely bring him to justice!" spoke the Fourth-Circle Wizards, including Guerdo, the commander who had initially brought Levi and others from Area 9. They were all followers of Blue Dragon Lady, standing firmly on the side of this dragon descendant wizard..