

Wizard 633

Chapter 633: Alice's Dream-traversing Ring! Seals Knight!

(1)

In front of Levi, ripples suddenly appeared in the void. Afterward, two individuals abruptly appeared there.

Upon seeing the person's face, Levi was slightly surprised.

'Wizard Newt?'

"Sir Levi?"

"Aren't you an appraiser at Celestial Circle Shop? How did you end up in the Outer Circle Area?"

"Aren't you in Area 9?"

"Ah, it's a long story," both of them said in unison.

Levi and Wizard Newt were not very familiar, but Levi had a strong impression of Wizard Newt as a serious and earnest wizard.

"Eh? You two know each other, Newt, introduce me." Rose Witch grabbed Newt's arm and said.

Newt reacted and then coughed, saying, "Sir Levi, this is Miss Rose, my... female friend."

Rose pinched Wizard Newt's arm and smiled slightly. "Hello, I'm Rose Witch, one of the 24 Flowers of the Flower Witch, and, by the way, I seem to have heard Violet, that little girl, mention your name."

Rose seemed to recall something and then suddenly realized, "Did you once take a wizard airship with Violet, and together hunted down a dark wizard?"

"Yes, no wonder Miss is so beautiful. It turns out you're one of the 24 Flowers. I've heard of your name before, I'm just a nameless small soldier," Levi laughed.

"Sir Levi, don't be modest. Newt and I together wouldn't dare claim a stable victory against the Wind Thunder Winged Dragon, but you managed to subdue it alone. Your strength is much stronger than what Violet said. It seems you've been hiding your true abilities," Rose chuckled.

Levi didn't respond but instead spoke with a serious expression. "Both of you, I have no ill intentions, but I don't want today's events to be spread. So, I hope you two can sign a simple confidentiality contract with me. Of course, as compensation, I will provide you with corresponding fees."

"I understand. No need for payment. If the terms are okay, we'll sign it. The Wind Thunder Winged Dragon is indeed a rare creature sought by many wizards. So, Newt is always careful when checking on it, not wanting other wizards to disturb it. Unexpectedly... Sir, you still found it here," the talkative Rose Witch said.

"Sir Levi, you will treat the Wind Thunder Winged Dragon well, won't you? Newt asked seriously, his eyes filled with anticipation.

"Of course. I'll let you know, I'm also a lover of transcendent creatures. I can't even lay a hand on the most ordinary sea beast. If you don't believe me, I'll show you my transcendent creatures. They're all thriving under my care," Levi said.

Levi finished speaking and gestured towards the joyful Leviathan, happily spouting water in the lake.

"Leviathan, do you think following me makes you happy or not?" Levi smiled at Leviathan and asked.

Leviathan sprayed a mist of water, its head emerging from the surface, nodding happily.

Leviathan expressed that, of course, it was happy!

Seeing this, Newt hesitated and spoke.

"I couldn't help but notice the fierceness in your demeanor just now... but it's your right to capture it. I just hope, Sir Levi, that you won't forget your initial intentions, treating these creatures kindly and contributing to the continuity of the transcendent creature population in the Wizard World," Newt said.

"That's just a facade. Those who know me are aware that I am a rather refined and easygoing person. I subdued the Wind Thunder Winged Dragon because I was concerned it might harm the civilians on the Yellow Earth Continent in the future, causing innocent deaths," Levi explained.

The Wind Thunder Winged Dragon in the Greenfield Immortal House looked at Levi with a touch of sorrow.

It had been reigning supreme in the ancient forest, a forbidden area where no one dared to approach. Except for occasional wizards who mistakenly entered or adventurers seeking a death wish, it hadn't harmed a single person. This accusation was completely baseless!

He thought, "Master Dragon, you can't unjustly tarnish my innocence like this."

"...With this, I can also be at ease." Newt accepted Levi's confidentiality agreement and, under Levi's "persuasion," signed it together with Rose Witch. After signing the agreement, Levi smiled and asked, "What are your plans

"We plan to return to the Sword Flower Tower; things outside have become too chaotic," Rose Witch said, and Newt nodded.

Suddenly, Levi remembered something and asked, "Lord Newt, do you know if Minnie Miaomiao House and Gargamel's Book of Seals from the Celestial Circle

Shop are still intact?"

These two wizard tools were very useful to Levi, and he had been thinking about them.

Newt sighed and said, "The Celestial Circle Shop where I used to work was robbed by a dark wizard. The precious wizard tools inside are now scattered elsewhere. "

Hearing this, Levi felt intense anger.

D*mn dark wizards! Now the Greenfield Immortal House was almost at its limit.

The Mountain Giant, Gustav, and the Wind Thunder Winged Dragon were all large creatures. The limited space available was not enough for them to move freely; it was like being in a zoo with restricted movement within a confined space.

These transcendent creatures were Levi's treasures. Despite extracting their blood and grinding their horns, he loved them dearly. He wanted to provide them with a better living environment.

"Ah, I was planning to buy them when I had the money, but now it seems unlikely," Levi sighed.

"Sir Levi, I have a hereditary spatial wizard tool here. Honestly, the living conditions for your transcendent creatures seem a bit subpar. My spatial wizard tool is no less inferior to Minnie Miaomiao House. If you need it, I can sell it to you," Wizard Newt said..