Chapter 639: New Change in the Interface! Scarlet Dragon Breathing Technique! (1)

Drifting Wind City.

The city of the Wham Family was in a mess.

Old Golden Lion, Clan Leader Wham, and the other Third-Circle Wizard all looked exhausted.

After several days of fierce battles, relying on their numerical advantage and grand arrays, they barely resisted the enemy's attacks.

This attack was extraordinary.

The enemy was a senior third-circle wizard who had been famous for a long time. He had mastered many third-circle spells and should be a core member of the Black Sun Organization.

When the enemy had just retreated, they looked anxious. It seemed that something big had happened.

Golden Lion didn't know why the enemy retreated in a hurry. In short, this was a good thing and gave them a chance to breathe.

"Clan Leader Wham, we have to retreat. We have indeed fallen into Lehman's trap. There's a high chance that he has already taken down Lion King City. But no matter what the outcome is, our Golden Lion Jostar Family can't abandon Lion King City!" Lyon said.

Dinos, who was bathed in blood, was panting heavily.

After this fierce battle, he was covered in wounds. If it weren't for his legendary might physique, he wouldn't have been able to hold on.

"Let's go, Father. Sir Levi is strong, but he is no match for Lehman. We have to go back and save our city and Levi," Dinos said.

"Old Golden Lion, I'll return with you to save Lion King City," Clan Leader Wham said.

He had seen the righteousness of the Golden Lion family.

Now that the crisis of his family was temporarily resolved, he could not be ungrateful.

"Thank you. After this calamity, the friendship between our two families will definitely improve! And that damn Al Hidd Family will definitely disappear from the Yellow Earth Continent!" After Old Golden Lion finished speaking, he quickly returned with the army.

Emperor Mu followed behind the army with an excited expression.

He felt that he was about to break through the legendary barrier.

"As expected, battle is the best teacher. My fusion with the Golden Spine Bone has become even closer. The Golden Spine Bone is too strong," Emperor Mu thought to himself.

A spine that seemed to be made of gold lay dormant within his body. There were branches on both sides of the spine, and it was like a 100-legged centipede.

Emperor Mu could sense the life and energy fluctuations in the Golden Spine

Bone.

As his spine squirmed, traces of pale golden blood flowed into Emperor Mu's blood vessels and fused with him.

Even now, Emperor Mu still did not know what this so-called "Golden Spine Bone" was.

After coming to the Wizard World, he had relied on the knowledge of the School of Life that he had exchanged for and his own use for so long.

He felt that this spine might not be the remains of the Golden Knight Gregor... but an independent life form.

He suspected that he might have been parasitized by the Golden Spine Bone.

Not only him, but the entire Gregor Family was able to produce Golden Blood because of the parasitism of the Golden Spine Bone.

That was because the Golden Spine Bone seemed to contain a mysterious power.

Golden Spine Bone.

Now, in Emperor Mu's body, other than his already legendary Holy Ape blood,

The newly born golden blood seemed to be catching up.

He didn't know if this was a good or bad thing.

He only knew that because of the addition of his spine, his strength was constantly increasing.

To him, who was very untalented as a wizard, this was the only way for him to catch up to his team leader.

Emperor Mu was also a proud son of heaven in the human world. Although he had been at the bottom of the Wizard World for decades, he still had his pride.

"Since I've chosen this path, even if I'm wrong, I have to walk it to the end.

Without the Golden Spine Bone, I wouldn't be where I am today."

The two branches on both sides of Emperor Mu's spine emitted a rustling sound as they drilled out from behind Emperor Mu and silently entered.

When Old Golden Lion led a group of people to Lion King City, they could not help but be stunned.

"Why is Lion King City so quiet? It doesn't look like a battle at all. There must be a trap," Clan Leader Wham said.

"Indeed, Lehman hates Lion King City to the core. While we are being stalled, he will definitely not give up the opportunity to attack Lion King City," Old Golden Lion said doubtfully.

However, when they probed Lion King City with their perception, they realized that it was quiet inside. There were no signs of a fight on the streets or buildings.

Even the Second-Circle Wizard stationed in Lion King City seemed to be cultivating. He did not look like he had just fought a battle.

"Could it be that Lehman didn't come?" Old Golden Lion was suspicious.

In the end, they entered the city and saw Levi guiding the white wolf girl in the courtyard.

"Sir Levi? Is Lehman not here?" Old Golden Lion asked.

"Is Lehman here?" Levi looked around.

"Strange, looks like I was overthinking." Old Golden Lion heaved a sigh of relief and relaxed a lot.

"Sir Lyon, I wonder if the previous promise is still valid?" Levi suddenly asked in embarrassment.

Lyon nodded and said, "Of course it's effective. The Jostar Family will pay their debts. If you have any requests, feel free to tell me."

"Alright, then I'll look for you another day. I won't disturb you now. You just finished your battle and need to rest and recuperate." Levi smiled and said.

"Thank you!"

Lyon left with his men and returned to the Golden Lion Castle..
