Chapter 640: New Change in the Interface! Scarlet Dragon Breathing Technique! (2)

Clan Leader Wham also hurriedly rushed back to his clan.

"Leader, is Lehman really not here?" Emperor Mu asked after everyone had left.

"What's wrong? Do you think I can defeat a Third-Circle Wizard?"

Emperor Mu thought to himself, "That's true."

If the leader could cross a major realm and defeat a Third-Circle Wizard, his worldview would probably collapse.

How could a Second-Circle Wizard defeat a Third-Circle Wizard?

Even if the captain broke through the legendary shackles, he would only be comparable to a Second-Circle Wizard.

If he wanted to rely on his knight cultivation to defeat a Third-Circle Wizard, then... Emperor Mu didn't dare to imagine.

Levi was too kind. He couldn't bear to completely shatter Emperor Mu's last hope.

This guy still had the fantasy of catching up to Levi.

After Emperor Mu left, he thought that he should go into seclusion this time and try to break through to the realm above legendary in one go.

In this realm, Levi called it Bloodthirst.

At that time, he should be able to fight Levi.

Levi watched Emperor Mu leave.

With his realm, he could naturally see that Emperor Mu's current cultivation should be at the peak of legendary, or Blood Awakening Knight.

"However, that Golden Spine Bone is a little strange... Forget it. This is Emperor Mu's own opportunity. It's better than nothing."

To Emperor Mu, he had no choice.

Levi wasn't worried about anyone else.

His spiritual force entered the world of Alice's ring.

In an empty space, the Silver Frost Ice Ape was sitting there alone, surrounded by a group of transcendent creatures.

Levi was relieved to see that the guy was fine.

He gathered all the Aether Stones he had obtained from the wizards from Lehman and the Al Hidd family and obtained a total of 100,000 Aether Stones.

"They're quite poor. There are only a quarter of Rex in all of them." Levi thought.

However, it was understandable. Lehman had been at war with the two families for years, and the military expenditure was huge.

If not for the fact that he had snatched many resources from a small wizard family in the early stages, he might not have been able to last long.

Lehman, who was controlled by the Abyss Blood, was walking step by step into the abyss that had lost its rationality and turned into a killing machine.

Fortunately, the benevolent and compassionate Levi had successfully exiated Lehman and sent him to paradise.

"I destroyed the Clan Leader of one of the three great clans."

For a moment, Levi was also extremely emotional.

Other than the Aether Stone, there were some other gains. Levi was probably worth a lot of money.

Levi took out his special piggy bank and threw the silver coin that Lehman had transformed into it.

"Two silver, two bronze, and a few iron coins. Let's see what I can summon first...

Until now, Levi had never used Ember Call.

"Let's try using iron coins first."

As the power of the Death Ember surged out of the bloodline seed and circulated throughout Levi's body.

Levi's left eye turned gray again.

He held the iron coin in his hand and returned to the Ashen World.

However, this Ashen World seemed to be a little different from before. It was more real...

He looked at the wizard tower where he lived. Ashes were falling everywhere, covering the ground.

The Lion King City outside was the same.

The gray sky, the billions of falling ashes, the twinkling bonfires in the city, and the gray, ash-covered bay.

In this empty and lonely wilderness, lifelessness was the only main theme.

Levi looked at his body. It was no different from before. He tried to open the storage ring and found that ordinary rings that could hold dead things could be opened. However, those that could hold living things, be it Alice's ring or Greenfield Immortal House, did not react at all.

"The Ashen World, a lifeless world..."

Levi held the iron coin that was filled with vitality in his hand.

He roamed around this dead city that was filled with ashes. Until he met a wild dog-like creature in a corner of the city.

"A living thing?"

Levi was puzzled.

Now, he could confirm that the Ashen World seemed to be a real world.

This world seemed to be inextricably linked to the real world he lived in.

As for a possessor of the power of Death Ember like him, he could enter.

The wild dog-like creature in front of him seemed to be made of ashes. It had no vitality, but it could move like a living creature. Its dark and deep eyes shone with a strange luster.

Suddenly, the wild dog opened its mouth. Endless black hair spewed out from its mouth. It was wet and sticky, emitting a foul smell. A woman's face appeared from the hair and smiled.

"I'm so hungry... so hungry... hungry..."

The woman opened her mouth and made a hoarse and strange sound. Her entire body was facing up and her arms were facing down. She flipped out of the wild dog's mouth and looked up at Levi in a strange posture comparable to the mutant.

"What ugly thing?"

Levi was shocked. He threw a Big Fireball Technique over.

"Ahhh!"

The flames smashed into the woman's face and roasted her. She let out a howl of pain before her howl stopped. "I'm so hungry... so hungry..."

She repeated the meaningless words.

The Fireball Technique did not hurt her.

Levi's heart skipped a beat. He looked at the high and mighty Death Ember Dragon on his iron coin. The power of the Death Ember surged out of his body and turned into black flames. Ashes flew in the fire..
