

Wizard 706

Chapter 706: Legendary Wizard Tool (5)

"Alright, Senior. My name is Anna. If you're not satisfied with my service, I won't accept your Aether Stone."

This witch was a high-level apprentice wizard. She only felt that Levi's spiritual power was as vast as the sea. He was definitely not a First-Circle Wizard. As for whether he was a second-circle or a third-circle wizard, she was not sure.

"Anna..." Levi murmured in her heart. It was a very ordinary name.

Anna seemed to be very experienced in this aspect. She was quite proficient in her business and knew where wizard lords like Levi liked to go.

Under Anna's lead, Levi went to some shops, auction houses, and some law enforcement offices in the Blacksail Wizard Market.

After walking around, Levi was very satisfied.

He was very satisfied with Anna and this market.

"A Fifth-Circle Wizard is overseeing the entire Blacksail Wizard Market. He's a nomadic wizard and currently works in the Star Tower. In addition, there should be nearly ten Fourth-Circle Wizards and dozens of Third-Circle Wizards. Basically, all the powerful nomadic wizards in Area 5 are gathered here. Therefore, there's no problem with resources."

Levi analyzed in his mind.

After taking the Aether Stone, Anna left.

"Let's find a place to stay for the time being."

Levi came to the place where the wizard towers were rented and sold.

He planned to rent a quiet wizard tower halfway up the mountain to make it easier for his daily cultivation.

After Levi showed his identity token, the staff member's expression changed slightly. He was actually a Third-Circle Wizard.

This was a big client. He had to treat him well.

"Senior, do you want to buy a house or rent a house?"

"I'll rent it."

"Senior, there's a 20% discount on buying a house now. You can also pay in installments. Are you sure you don't want to consider buying a warm wizard tower that belongs to you on the mountain with the richest elemental power and the best vision?"

"Thanks, I'll rent."

Levi stopped the meaningless sales pitch.

What a joke. In this era of war, he would only do this if he was crazy.

He didn't want to be razed to the ground by dark wizards the next day.

"Alright... Senior, take a look. This is the property available for rent on Black Pearl Island. Our wizard tower is divided into three types. They are low-level, intermediate-level, and high-level. Low-level wizard towers are just a main building with nothing. High-level wizard towers have their own isolation, defense, attack, elemental aggregation array, and so on..."

"Low-level will do. I only have one request, and that's to be secluded."

In the end, Levi chose a rough house in a wizard tower halfway up the mountain before the salesman continued to chatter.

The annual rent of this wizard tower was 300 Aether Stones. It was even more expensive than the house Levi had rented in Riptide City.

He came to the wizard tower. The entire two-mile radius was his private territory.

No one else was allowed to set foot on private property without his permission. That was the rule of the fair.

"I know how to set up arrays myself. I don't need their inferior arrays."

In the next few days, Levi had set up his own arrays around his residence. There were alert, isolation, defense, attack, and maze arrays. Basically, they were all high-quality first-circle and second-circle arrays.

Only then could Levi cultivate in peace.

He simply renovated the wizard tower.

A new home in the wizard market would do.

"Phew, a new life has begun."

Levi looked at the small city at the foot of the mountain and the Wizard Towers.

The arrival of a Third-Circle Wizard did not cause much of a stir in this market.

After Levi settled down, he released Algerta and company to be in charge of the daily operations of the wizard tower.

In order to make it easier for his subordinates to do things in the city, Levi also spent money to get Coulomb and the others an identity token.

This way, Coulomb and the others could do some errands for Levi.

The resources that could be bought in this Black Pearl Wizard Market were indeed much richer than in the outer sea region.

Half a year later, Levi had more or less prepared the ingredients to refine the third-circle meditation supplementary potion.

However, the key main ingredients were nowhere to be found.

Apart from that, he also began to search for clues about the transcendent creature he needed.

Because of this, he, who was introverted and did not like to socialize, had no choice but to take the initiative to integrate into the upper echelons of the Black Pearl Wizard Market.

On this day, Levi woke up from his cultivation.

A voice came from the wizard tower.

"Sir Levi, it's time to go. The rally is about to begin."

Hearing the voice, Levi's heart skipped a beat. He put on his robe and let the fur clan guard the house.

He left the wizard tower and walked past a medicinal field that he had casually planted. On a small path halfway up the mountain, a male wizard was standing with his hands behind his back, smiling at Levi.

"Good morning, Sir Xavier," Levi said with a smile.

The male wizard in front of him was also a Third-Circle Wizard. He was also a Third-Circle weapon craftsman and Levi's neighbor.

To gather the resources he needed as soon as possible, Levi took the initiative to make friends with some Third-Circle Wizards around him. This Xavier was one of them.

The result did not disappoint him.

He also learned from Xavier that there would be a large-scale wizard gathering every other year in this Black Pearl Wizard Market. Only official wizards were qualified to participate.

At the gathering, everyone could make new friends and exchange resources and information.

"Sir Levi, Fourth-Circle Wizards are participating in this gathering. Something good might appear. You have to prepare the money," Xavier said jokingly.

"Hahaha, I'll just buy some ordinary cultivation resources. I don't expect anything else," Levi said with a smile.

The two of them walked together and came to an abandoned ship at the eastern port of Black Pearl Island.

This was the Black Pearl.

The annual gathering was held here.

The cabin was brightly lit, and graceful figures swayed in it.

"Please, Sir Levi, just in time for the mermaid dance, hehe." Xavier laughed.

Levi nodded. He was on full alert as he stepped inside..
