

Wizard 721

Chapter 721: 100%! (6)

"If there's no demon inside you, why fear our investigation? Could there be something fishy going on?"

Such arguments had been continuously playing out in the market between the residents and the authorities in the past few days. Meanwhile, in an ordinary mansion within the city area, Anna, a high-level apprentice wizard, exchanged the Aether Stones she had diligently saved for a potion called "Kosu's Water" to aid her breakthrough to the first circle.

Anna cautiously opened the bottle of Kosu's Water. "I must become an official wizard, Anna. Mom is watching you from above," she whispered, encouraging herself.

Compared to the prodigies, Anna represented the majority of ordinary apprentice wizards in the Wizard World. For them, becoming an official wizard was already a matter of great honor.

After drinking Kosu's Water, Anna immediately entered a meditative state.

Beads of sweat formed on her forehead, and her body trembled continuously.

After an unknown duration, Anna opened her eyes. She felt a significant increase in her spiritual force compared to before. "Haha, I've become an official wizard," Anna exclaimed, excited by the power of her Children of Chaos innate ability.

The next moment, a feathery black shadow suddenly emerged on the wall behind Anna. On the feathers, a pale, terrifying eye opened, revealing a cruel smile.

Before long, another corpse appeared in the mansion, covered in black feathers.

"Weak humans, I am just an incarnation, yet enough to plunge these wizards into panic," the voice echoed within the wizard tower.

Inside the wizard tower, Old John stood up. As he rose, black shadows converged from all directions behind him, forming shadow soldiers draped in black feathers. Among them, one of the shadow soldiers vaguely resembled the witch Anna.

This was the horrifying ability of Dark Raven.

Specter Guard!

Behind him, hundreds of Specter Guards crowded together, comprised of low-level wizards and ordinary people killed by Dark Raven during this period. Although their individual strength was average, they were perfect for sowing chaos when assembled.

"This incarnation has only one day of existence. Next, let this city tremble and boil for me!"

Countless black shadows followed behind Old John, surging towards the sky.

The wizard tower collapsed with a deafening roar.

Then, these shadows rushed in various directions, initiating the slaughter!

The sudden turn of events immediately caught the attention of Sparrow, a fourth-circle wizard. He changed his expression, sensing the terrifying demonic aura erupting in the market, tormenting the city!

"To the Third-Circle Wizard Tower area!" Sparrow immediately commanded, and his wizards swiftly flew there.

On the mountainside, a wizard emitting a pitch-black demonic aura laughed madly.

It was the Seventh Familiar, Dark Raven.

"Old John... it's him. He's been possessed by a demon."

"Activate the grand array, trap the demon!" Sparrow ordered.

Dark Raven wouldn't sit idly; he transformed into a black light before the grand array could activate, disappearing from the spot.

When he reappeared, he was already in front of a second-circle wizard. The wizard, unaware of the situation, was torn apart by Dark Raven's claws and turned into a blood mist in mid-air.

At that moment, countless water streams surged into the sky, condensing into a long chain.

The chain instantly bound Dark Raven, entwining him tightly.

Sparrow rushed in from a distance, utilizing his fourth-circle innate spell, the Water Lock.

"Grand Array!"

This time, with Sparrow's spell entrapping him, the other strategically positioned wizards finally had an opportunity. The array designed to confine enemies emitted a dazzling light, completely trapping Dark Raven.

Black light exploded, and numerous black feathers shot out, tearing apart the water chain.

In the next moment, countless spell lights engulfed Dark Raven. In front of Sparrow appeared a droplet-shaped object.

Fourth-circle innate spell, Water Burst!

The droplet swiftly descended over Dark Raven, exploding thunderously.

A shockwave swept through, catching Dark Raven off guard. Just as he was about to use even more potent strength, he found that Old John's body had already shattered and was on the verge of collapse.

"This human body is indeed fragile! I haven't even used my true abilities yet, and it can't withstand it. I refuse to disappear like this." Dark Raven's thoughts raced.

Suddenly, he gathered all the Specter Guards, forming a black, yarn-like sphere. Countless twisted souls wailed within, grievances soaring, distorting

"Specter Burst!"

Boom!

The explosive force, gathered from hundreds of self-destructing Specter Guards, directly tore through the array that trapped Dark Raven. Sparrow's expression changed dramatically, and he swiftly vanished using teleportation, escaping the explosion.

"When I find a more powerful body, I'll play with you all again."

Dark Raven sneered, recalling the body-refining wizard in Old John's mind. That wizard had showcased impressive skills during a battle against an invasion of dark wizards, leaving a profound impression on Old John.

Dark Raven knew that with his current body, he couldn't match that fourth-circle wizard. However, if he could occupy the body of that body-refining wizard, he should be able to contend with him.

"Chase him, don't let him possess again!" Sparrow instantly understood Dark Raven's intentions. Simultaneously, Varil, one of the Black Pearl Four Wizards, arrived to join the rescue effort..
