

Wizard 722

Chapter 722: 100%! (7)

"I'll assist you!" Varil exclaimed.

"This demon's abilities are strange; be cautious," Sparrow reminded.

"He went in that direction; I remember. It's a wizard tower belonging to a Third-Circle Pharmacist and a body-refining wizard named Levi."

"Hurry, or that pharmacist may be in grave danger. Even a Third-Circle body-refining wizard won't be able to withstand the demon's attack for long."

Sparrow and Varil pursued from behind, while Dark Raven had already arrived above his target wizard tower.

He flapped his wings, a terrifying hurricane sweeping over the wizard tower, uprooting it along with the external array in the blink of an eye.

However, inside the wizard tower, there was nothing; it was empty. Not a soul to be found.

"D*mn it! Where did that body-refining wizard go?" Dark Raven wondered.

Suddenly, Dark Raven looked up at the sky. In the semi-transparent array, there was a torn gap slowly healing.

He instantly understood that the body-refining wizard had probably anticipated the danger, tore a part of the array himself, and left the area. Quickly, before the gap healed completely, Dark Raven chased after him.

In the distance, a faint figure was seen escaping ahead.

If it wasn't Levi, then who?

Levi, at the moment Dark Raven harbored hostile intentions, sensed something was amiss through his Spider Sensing.

He used the Golden Revolving Slash, creating a small opening in the fourth-circle array while transforming into blood fog to escape.

Although he didn't know how strong Dark Raven was, judging by the standing hairs raised through Spider Sensing, he was definitely at the fourth-circle level!

Levi naturally had to flee.

He initially intended to rely on the Hermit Rune to escape, but due to his current low realm, his spiritual force was far inferior to Dark Raven's, making it impossible to completely conceal himself. The moment Dark Raven appeared, he noticed Levi from afar.

He quickly pursued, intending to possess Levi.

One running, the other chasing.

Behind Dark Raven, two fourth-circle wizards were also in hot pursuit.

"That body-refining wizard tore a corner of the grand array. Even I find it somewhat difficult to tear open a corner. How did he do it?" Sparrow was astonished.

"Don't run; with us here, the demon won't harm you!" Varil shouted from behind.

Levi's speed couldn't compare to Dark Raven's. Soon, he was caught, and protective force fields shimmered around Levi.

Dark Raven sneered and turned into a black arrow, piercing through layer after layer of Levi's force fields. With a bang, it collided with Levi's golden scales, seemingly about to penetrate them and enter Levi's body.

Levi instinctively turned into blood fog.

"I'll assist you!" Varil exclaimed.

"This demon's abilities are strange; be cautious," Sparrow reminded.

"He went in that direction; I remember. It's a wizard tower belonging to a Third-Circle Pharmacist and a body-refining wizard named Levi."

"Hurry, or that pharmacist may be in grave danger. Even a Third-Circle body-refining wizard won't be able to withstand the demon's attack for long."

Sparrow and Varil pursued from behind, while Dark Raven had already arrived above his target wizard tower.

He flapped his wings, a terrifying hurricane sweeping over the wizard tower, uprooting it along with the external array in the blink of an eye.

However, inside the wizard tower, there was nothing; it was empty. Not a soul to be found.

"D*mn it! Where did that body-refining wizard go?" Dark Raven wondered.

Suddenly, Dark Raven looked up at the sky. In the semi-transparent array, there was a torn gap slowly healing.

He instantly understood that the body-refining wizard had probably anticipated the danger, tore a part of the array himself, and left the area. Quickly, before the gap healed completely, Dark Raven chased after him.

In the distance, a faint figure was seen escaping ahead.

If it wasn't Levi, then who?

Levi, at the moment Dark Raven harbored hostile intentions, sensed something was amiss through his Spider Sensing.

He used the Golden Revolving Slash, creating a small opening in the fourth-circle array while transforming into blood fog to escape.

Although he didn't know how strong Dark Raven was, judging by the standing hairs raised through Spider Sensing, he was definitely at the fourth-circle level!

Levi naturally had to flee.

He initially intended to rely on the Hermit Rune to escape, but due to his current low realm, his spiritual force was far inferior to Dark Raven's, making it impossible to completely conceal himself. The moment Dark Raven appeared, he noticed Levi from afar.

He quickly pursued, intending to possess Levi.

One running, the other chasing.

Behind Dark Raven, two fourth-circle wizards were also in hot pursuit.

"That body-refining wizard tore a corner of the grand array. Even I find it somewhat difficult to tear open a corner. How did he do it?" Sparrow was astonished.

"Don't run; with us here, the demon won't harm you!" Varil shouted from behind.

Levi's speed couldn't compare to Dark Raven's. Soon, he was caught, and protective force fields shimmered around Levi.

Dark Raven sneered and turned into a black arrow, piercing through layer after layer of Levi's force fields. With a bang, it collided with Levi's golden scales, seemingly about to penetrate them and enter Levi's body.

Levi instinctively turned into blood fog.

However, in the next moment, an endless tide of spiritual force surged from all directions, compressing the blood fog Levi transformed into. In this state, Levi, in blood fog form, was forcibly revealed!

"Petty tricks! It's your privilege to be possessed by me!" Dark Raven sneered. He continued applying force, tearing apart Levi's protective golden scales.

His spiritual force reached Levi's mind, preparing to destroy Levi's consciousness, as he did with Old John. Yet, he found a three-tiered white tower emitting a holy light, securely protecting Levi's mental realm.

"A Divine Tower? You have something like this?" Dark Raven exclaimed.

Feeling the intrusion of an enemy's spiritual force, the Divine Tower automatically began to protect its master. It rapidly rotated, emitting a powerful suction force.

Part of Dark Raven's spiritual force began to shatter and be sucked away by the Divine Tower.

"No, I must find a way to break free!" At this moment, Dark Raven, who had entered Levi's mental realm, panicked.

He too was decisive and resolute, directly severing a significant portion of his own spiritual force, breaking free from the Divine Tower's constraints.

Dark Raven's spiritual force was ground down by the Divine Tower, which, compared to before, now exhibited an extremely subtle solidity.

Not only that, Levi felt that the ring of gaseous spiritual force magic around the Divine Tower seemed to have grown a bit.

Though he hadn't tested it, he could sense that his spiritual force had definitely increased by 1 to 2 points just now.

Of course, Levi couldn't afford to think about these matters right now. In his heart, there was more anger and frustration.

He couldn't understand why everyone couldn't just quietly cultivate like him.

Why did they have to fight day in and day out?

Why did these d*mned demons want to cross mountains and seas to possess him?

"Picking on the soft ones, huh?" He thought.

"Just because I keep a low profile, every Tom, Dick, and Harry wants to take a bite out of me?"

"I'm really tired of this!"

Anger surged, and the blood of the Crimson Emperor Dragon began to circulate around Levi's body from his heart.

Levi stopped running; he stood still.

He lowered his head, silent fury burning within him!

70%, 80%, 90%... 100%.

The moment Levi's anger reached one hundred percent.

His eyes turned crimson, reflecting a world filled with molten lava and a sea of fire.

In the center of this world, a red dragon that coiled in the sky opened its cold, profound golden eyes, emitting a dragon roar.

Golden scales overlapped madly, layer upon layer. In the state of the Furious Dragon Lord, Levi's attributes began to skyrocket!

The usual two-meter-tall True Form of the Fire Dragon now looked completely different under the Furious Dragon Lord state. Organisms resembling antlers grew on Levi's head, and a robust dragon tail trailed behind him.

Since awakening the True Form of the Fire Dragon, Levi had never used the Furious Dragon Lord form until now..