

Wizard 769

Chapter 769: Immortal Banyan Dragon! A Conclusion! (1)

"The Initial Ancient Saint?"

All the Ancient Saints present were shaken to their core.

This name was resoundingly prominent.

Without the Initial Ancient Saint, there would be no subsequent Crawlers' civilization.

"The Initial Ancient Saint has been an existence for countless millennia. How is this possible?"

"However, the Initial Ancient Saint is said to be the incarnation of Lord Holy Snake and may not have a limited lifespan. According to divine records, it is not stated that the Initial Ancient Saint has fallen but merely disappeared. Could he really be the Initial Ancient Saint?!"

Regardless of whether this person was the Initial Ancient Saint or not, the impact of his appearance was undeniably profound.

The once arrogant Skybreaking Ancient Saint, who had just killed the first Ancient Saint, now found himself firmly grasped by the hand of fate, unable to move.

This was the Skybreaking Ancient Saint, undoubtedly the strongest in the Ancient Saint Empire.

Who would believe that he was now in such a pitiable state?

None of the Ancient Saints present dared to escape.

"I mean no harm. I've said it before; I just want to revive the glory of the Ancient Saints and establish a unified Ancient Saint Empire. In the future, I will reclaim the Mosasaurus Empire and the Wind God Empire."

Levi's tone was calm but weighty.

Skybreaking Ancient Saint, at this moment, was barely holding on. The Toxic Swarm was corroding his body. If it weren't for his robust physique, he would have died long ago.

Levi had already cultivated Clay's "Mixed Venom True Form" to a level equivalent to a seventh-rank Third-Circle Wizard. Additionally, he regularly fed on various toxins.

The current Toxic Swarm was even more potent than Clay's original version.

"For those willing to form an alliance with me to rebuild the Ancient Saint Empire, stay. Those who do not wish to participate can leave on their own." Levi's expression was solemn, as if treating it as a sacred matter.

"I... I'm willing," Snake Demon Ancient Saint said tremulously. His worldview had been completely shattered today.

First, Skybreaking Ancient Saint appeared out of nowhere, single-handedly defeating other Ancient Saints.

Just when the dust seemed to settle, another Nameless Ancient Saint emerged, effortlessly suppressing Skybreaking Ancient Saint with a snap of his fingers.

Being Ancient Saints, why was there such a vast difference?

After Snake Demon Ancient Saint made his statement, Ridges Mountain Ancient Saint and others also expressed their willingness.

"Lord... I'm not interested in revitalizing the Ancient Saint Empire. I... I won't participate. Farewell," said one Ancient Saint.

"Oh, not interested? May I ask what kind of Ancient Saint you are?" Levi asked with a smile.

"I am Blackstone Ancient Saint."

"Then, you may leave. I won't force anyone." Levi waved his hand, indicating for the other to depart.

Blackstone Ancient Saint turned around and fled, disappearing in the blink of an eye.

Levi, with a casual demeanor, drew his bow and strung an arrow.

Blood Feather Bow!

Blood Imprisonment Awl!

Thud.

The arrow flashed like a stream of light, disappearing in an instant.

In the next moment, a muffled groan emanated from Blackstone Ancient Saint ahead.

Before long, Blackstone Ancient Saint unsteadily returned to his original position. The Blood Imprisonment Awl, resembling bone-penetrating maggots, was embedded in both of his legs.

Following Levi, this Blood Imprisonment Awl had absorbed the blood of many strong individuals, and its power had subtly increased.

"Lord, I am also willing to join the alliance!"

"Very well. To establish the supreme Ancient Saint Empire, we cannot do without the assistance of all of you. Today, we form a covenant here in the name of Skybreaking Ancient Saint to establish a new Ancient Saint Empire."

"Lord? Why is it in my name?" Weakly, Skybreaking Ancient Saint held in Levi's palm asked, looking confused.

"Because I believe you are more suitable to be the ruler of this nation than I am," Levi replied.

In Skybreaking's heart, a glimmer of hope ignited. In the end, he would be the ruler of the empire.

It seemed that his strength had won the recognition of the Initial Ancient Saint.

Levi's thought was to avoid using the title of the Initial Ancient Saint. If the so-called Initial Ancient Saint was still alive, it might lead to trouble for himself in the end.

Therefore, it was better to let Skybreaking Ancient Saint be the ruler of the Ancient Saint Empire while he secretly controlled the situation.

Afterwards, Levi and the other Ancient Saints formed a covenant, and a new empire rose from the battlefield.

After completing all of this, Levi returned to Black Line City, leaving Skybreaking Ancient Saint to handle the remaining matters.

He left a bit of the Toxic Swarm within Skybreaking Ancient Saint's body to exert some pressure on him, reminding him of the serious consequences of disobedience.

Of course, whether it was this covenant or the Toxic Swarm, it was not foolproof.

The most secure method was the Scarlet Contract. Unfortunately, Levi's Scarlet Dragon Breathing Technique was still at level 14, leaving some distance.

Therefore, this was a measure of last resort.

In general, he believed that with the strength he demonstrated, those Ancient Saints should not turn rebellious so quickly.

One day, Monka came to Levi's mansion with a serious expression.

"Lord, there is a distinguished guest outside."

"Who is it?"

"Hellfire Ancient Saint."

"Let him in."

Soon after, a Lizardman with crimson scales, whose figure was not as robust as Levi's, arrived.

"Holin greet you, Lord," Hellfire Ancient Saint immediately said respectfully upon meeting.

During the recent ancient auction, he did not participate. Firstly, he had an ancient magic ring, and secondly, he learned that Skybreaking Ancient Saint had already slain Tyrannosaurus Ancient Saint Rex. Fearful of the news, he found a place to hide.

Later, he heard the news of the establishment of the unified Ancient Saint Empire.

Skybreaking Ancient Saint left Lonely Wind City and took control of the central Dragon City of the empire. Using Dragon City as the core, he led other Ancient Saints and tribes to sweep away all forces, large and small, unwilling to submit.