

Wizard 789

Chapter 789: Strength Breaks All Techniques! (1)

Nameless Secret Realm.

In the lush primitive forest, Levi did not advance rashly. At first, he only suspected that the “Levi” beside Rose was fake.

Now, he began to suspect that Rose and the rest were fake too.

"No, that's impossible. I'm scaring myself. Rose is a member of the Witch's Family. There are so many high-level primordial soul wizards in the Witch's Family.

If it was really an evil spirit in disguise, with their terrifying spiritual force and knowledge, it was impossible for them not to sense it! Unless this evil spirit was stronger than a primordial soul wizard!

This was even more impossible. Such a powerful existence did not need to be so mysterious and mysterious! What was the point of doing this?

Everything required a motive. He was already so strong. Was he doing all this to fool others? Was there a point? He was so bored that his balls hurt!

Therefore, if there was really an evil spirit or some kind of Death Fall playing tricks, it would not be very strong. Therefore, he could only rely on this old-fashioned perception deception to create illusions!

To lure me into a trap step by step, or to deal me a fatal blow when I had a mental breakdown and let my guard down.

Heh, I won't fall for it!

"Other than that, my Danger Perception didn't alarm me... However, speaking of which, is Danger Perception accurate?"

At this moment, Levi suddenly realized that he seemed to have relied too much on Danger Perception.

"These supernatural things and ghosts are so boring."

Levi's expression was cold.

Inside the storage bag, Leon paced back and forth anxiously.

"Leon, what's wrong with you today?" Levi asked.

"Master, I... I'm hungry," Leon said.

"Why are you hungry?"

"I... I don't know. I'm hungry, master. I want to eat that thing."

Leon kept repeating the same sentence like a child who didn't know anything.

Levi didn't waste any more time.

All around him, an endless coldness assaulted him. Following that, there was the chatter from Rose and company.

Other than that, the surroundings were quiet. There was only Levi's heartbeat which was like a burning furnace. It was like firewood exploding in the fireplace.

He touched his chest muscles that were as exaggerated as gold and iron, and the cold scales on his body. He held Frostmourne tightly in his hand.

A sense of security emerged.

"Hehe, all fear stems from insufficient firepower. I'm not afraid of these things." Levi clenched his fists and began to retreat silently.

No matter what, this place was a little strange. It was better not to explore for the time being.

It wasn't that Levi was afraid. He just felt that it was boring...

"It's just a monster. How dare it appear in front of me? I'll crush it with the Giant Dragon Warrior! I'll let the flames purify everything!" Levi muttered to himself as he retreated.

A creaking sound came from the soles of his feet. He did not look down. His Intuition told him that it was just a fallen branch.

Suddenly, he looked at a big tree that was full of vitality beside him. On the rough surface of the bark, unknown insects were crawling.

Levi frowned and opened his right palm. There was still a trace of the casting materials of the Sun Flame Explosion spell in his palm.

"I used the Sun Flame Explosion to burn this place just now. Everything within a hundred meters is ashes... What's going on? It grew out so quickly? Damn it... I haven't broken the illusion yet?!"

Levi's expression changed slightly.

He looked into his storage bags. The gray crystal formed by the death of the Death Fall was still there.

"It's a little strange. It feels like a dream, but it also feels like reality. I can't tell..." Levi muttered to himself.

In his previous life, when he dreamed, such a situation would always appear. He thought that he had woken up from a nightmare, but in fact, he had only entered a deeper dream, which was what was called a "dream in a dream". After he was really woken up by the alarm clock, he realized that the last time he thought he had "woke up" was also in a dream.

However, ever since he became a wizard, he did not sleep at all. Occasionally, he would sleep and not dream. Dreams were a sign of low sleep quality.

"How cliché."

He no longer cared about Rose and the rest in front of him. Regardless of whether they were real or fake, Levi did not care anymore. He only wanted to leave this place now.

He knew that nothing good would come out of exploring relics.

Gradually, the "their" voices drifted further and further away from Levi.

Levi's battle with the Beauty Snake seemed to have never happened. The sound of birds chirping could be heard in the deep forest once again.

It was as if he had just pressed the pause button and at this moment, he pressed the play button again.

In the dense forest, Levi was on full alert as he walked towards the exit in his memory. He did not run or fly. That would only make him look afraid of the other party.

In fact, Levi was not afraid at all. If that thing dared to appear in front of him, he would directly exorcise it!

Levi returned to the exit in his memory, a pitch-black cave.

There was no green door of light in the cave. A rotten smell assailed his nose, as if it had been a long time in the future.

This was the cave that Levi and the others had entered. Logically speaking, it should be a green door of light. Through the door of light was the underwater abyss.

"As expected, the exit is gone. Either someone has closed the exit, or I'm still in the illusion. Even my memories are starting to become chaotic?"

Levi's heart turned cold. He took a deep breath, held Frostmourne, and turned back in the direction he had come from.