

Wizard 797

Chapter 797: Blood Forged Divine Weapon, Knight's Life! (2)

'No wonder my perception was disrupted. It turns out that I've met the main character,' Levi muttered in his heart.

Although the Man-Faced Spider on the breathing technique inheritance diagram was more abstract, one could tell that it was the same spider as the one in the mirror.

Legend had it that the Man-Faced Spider was good at creating illusions. It would use terrifying abilities to drag its prey into the deepest nightmare.

Levi and the Man-Faced Spider in the mirror looked at each other.

In the end, the Man-Faced Spider gradually disappeared into the mirror. Levi felt that there was a real "mirror world" in the mirror.

Levi knew where that was.

"Nightmare World."

He looked at the disappearing Man-Faced Spider.

Levi blasted it with fire again.

The next moment, the mirror shattered into pieces and melted into glass water.

From the looks of it, this was just an ordinary mirror. It was just that the Man-Faced Spider had chosen to let Levi see it in some form.

At the same time, after entering the secret realm, the cold feeling of being watched receded.

Levi continued to search in the wizard tower. In the end, he found four white cocoons in the laboratory of the master of the wizard tower.

In addition, in the transparent containers in the laboratory, there were some specimens that looked like Nightmare Creatures. They were strange and seemed to be the random combination of monsters in everyone's dreams.

After confirming that there was nothing else, Levi looked at the white cocoon.

This should be made of cobwebs.

There were a total of four.

Levi used Frostmourne to cut open the white cocoons from left to right.

The first one was empty.

The second one was empty.

In the third one, Levi saw Lady Whitewater, who had her eyes closed. She was breathing regularly, as if she was immersed in a dream.

Levi nudged her, but there was no reaction.

In the fourth one was the Rose Witch, who was in a similar situation as Lady Whitewater.

"Where did Lehger Leo go?"

Levi looked at the second cocoon and extended the Golden Snake's Message. The second aura belonged to Lehger Leo.

The first one was most likely the Extreme Fire Ancestral Wizard.

On the floor of the first cocoon, he saw a complicated pattern carved with spells. It seemed to be some kind of symbol.

He recorded it on the memory slate. In fact, with Levi's mental strength, it was not difficult for him to remember these symbols. However, he was worried that his memory would still be affected.

Levi carried the Rose Witch in one hand and Lady Whitewater in the other. They quickly left the wizard tower and the plain.

He returned to the botanical garden. At this moment, there was no fog in the botanical garden. Levi even saw traces of his battle with the Crimson Netherworld Sparrow.

His expression was calm as he passed through the primitive forest and arrived at the cave.

At this moment, the rotten smell in the cave had disappeared without a trace.

The familiar green light door appeared again. Levi thought for a moment and stepped into it.

The secret realm behind him was silent.

After an unknown period of time, the fog seemed to have started to spread out from the plain again.

On the collapsed wall of the wizard tower, the antique mirror appeared again.

The mirror reflected everything around it, the broken walls, and the blue sky that was about to be shrouded in fog.

Under the reflection of this scene, it seemed to be a deeper and more drowsy world.

Countless black fungi covered the Earth, as if they were trees made of flesh and blood. Some vaguely human-shaped fungi were attached to the tree. In the distant darkness, there were whispers. There were eight-legged tall shadows hiding inside, as if countless faces were spying on everything.

In a deep underground cave, white cocoons were displayed.

Two of the cocoons had already cracked. In one of them was the peaceful and sleeping face of the Extreme Fire Ancestral Wizard. There was no longer any aura.

The other was a handsome face with a frown, as if he was still immersed in some nightmare.

Suddenly, he opened his eyes. Golden lightning flashed, and wisps of electricity burned the white cocoon. He crawled out of it.

He took a deep breath and carefully walked out of the cave. Through the forest of flesh and blood, he looked at the sky and saw:

It was a red and black curtain. The sky was filled with cracks, and indescribable monsters were flying around.

Through these cracks, he seemed to see the rebirth and destruction of countless worlds.

Then, something seemed to block his vision.

It was a huge spider that was like a mountain. Its eight legs were like pillars that supported the sky, enveloping the surroundings.

Its head and compound eyes made up of the faces of eight women were all staring at him.

Endless oppression and suffocation assaulted him. At this moment, even Lehger Leo, who was a Third-Circle Wizard, felt a little insignificant.

"Welcome to the Nightmare World!"

On a deserted island in the Star Sea, Levi had set up a concealment array and was hiding inside.

He brought the Rose Witch and Lady Whitewater out. He had a lot of questions to ask them. It seemed that the human-faced spider had found a way to invade the Nora plane. He had to prepare in advance.

Levi put the two witches down and gave them some potions. Then, he began to confirm his gains from this trip.

He first sent his consciousness into the Greenfield Immortal House. Leon was sleeping.

Its body had grown larger. This fellow should be related to Death Fall and the Nightmare World. Perhaps it was the key to unlocking the Nightmare World.

It could be said to be the nemesis of Death Fall, just like Levi. It directly fed on Death Fall.