

Wizard 798

Chapter 798: Blood Forged Divine Weapon, Knight's Life! (3)

Levi repeatedly confirmed that his insect control spell was still effective before leaving.

Before leaving, he once again used the dream entry spell to give it a subconscious psychological hint.

"Only Leon who listens to his master is a good child. Those who don't listen will have to wander outside and starve..."

Leon was most afraid of starving.

Levi retracted his consciousness. No matter what, without Leon, Levi might still need some time to come out.

Levi then looked at his Heavenly Fire Meteorite Iron. It was still there.

It wasn't an illusion, which relieved him.

The Crimson Netherworld Sparrow was the same. It had been contracted by Levi's Wizard Tool and was lying listlessly in a corner, surrounded by Raja and Leviathan.

Levi let Coulomb out. Coulomb and Joann were cleaning the feces of transcendent creatures in Alice's ring. When they came out, they immediately smiled and said, "Senior, why are you looking for me?"

"You said that the Extreme Fire Ancestral Wizard entered the ancient ruins. Do you know which ancient ruins it is?" Levi asked.

"This... I really don't know. Why don't we ask Joann? He's a Ruin Hunter, so he might know something," Coulomb said.

"Did anything happen to the Extreme Fire Ancestral Wizard after he came out of the ruins?" Levi changed the question.

"I didn't sense anything abnormal. He always did research in the wizard tower alone and never seemed to sleep or rest. Members like us rarely interacted with him, but he found many Wizard Tools in the relic that seemed to have been around for a long time and sold them to us."

Coulomb took out a Holy Grail-shaped Wizard Tool.

"This Wizard Tool can form a protective shield, but it's already broken. It was broken when I accidentally barged into Senior's Black Fire Island. The Extreme Fire Ancestral Wizard was too deceitful. He clearly knew that it wouldn't last long, but he still sold it to us at the normal price of a Wizard Tool!"

Levi looked at the Holy Grail Wizard Tool in Coulomb's hand. It looked like an ordinary Second-Circle Wizard Tool.

Perhaps the Extreme Fire Ancestral Wizard had discovered it in the ruins of ancient wizards.

Levi asked Coulomb to continue being a poop-picker and asked Joann to come out.

He asked similar questions, but Joann knew nothing. Although he was a Ruin Hunter, he had joined the wizard organization late. At that time, the Extreme Fire Ancestral Wizard had already returned from the ruins.

Levi did not waste any more time. He took care of himself and waited for the two witches to wake up.

Three days later.

Lady Whitewater was the first to wake up. The first thing she said when she woke up was, "Sir Levi, run quickly. There's something strange about this secret realm."

"Madam, we've already left the secret realm," Levi said.

"Have we left? Where's my husband, Lehger Leo?" Lady Whitewater asked.

Levi omitted some details of his experience and told Lady Whitewater.

"You're saying that we teamed up to defeat the Crimson Netherworld Sparrow in the botanical garden?" Lady Whitewater asked in confusion.

"Didn't we?" Levi asked, thinking.

Lady Whitewater shook her head.

"As we walked, we realized that you were missing. Rose said that she wanted to look for you. My husband said not to bother about you. We had a dispute over this. Then, you returned very quickly, so we advanced together.

"On the way to the botanical garden, we got lost. Perhaps some kind of evil spirit was playing tricks on us. Then, we accidentally walked to a huge plain and saw a five-story wizard tower. My husband suggested that we explore it.

"In the wizard tower, I saw the Extreme Fire Ancestral Wizard. He no longer recognized me and even controlled those strange evil spirits to attack us. We were not his match and were quickly captured.

"At this time, we realized that we had been separated again. Then, I lost consciousness.

"I had a dream. I dreamed of an extremely terrifying world. The sky there was dark, and the magma river hung upside down in the sky..."

Lady Whitewater curled up there in shock. That dream was so real. She felt that if she hadn't woken up, she might have been left in it forever.

Levi pondered.

From the looks of it, after he was separated from Lady Whitewater and the rest for the first time, the Man-Faced Spider used an illusion to replicate him. It separated the real Levi from Rose and the rest and brought them to the wizard tower on the plains.

Levi, on the other hand, was attracted to the botanical garden by the illusion of Rose and the others created by the Man-Faced Spider, which interfered with his Perception.

He felt that the illusion created by the Man-Faced Spider might last for a certain period of time. When it was about to lose its effectiveness, it would start to repeat meaninglessly, just like a tape.

From the beginning to the end, there was no cooperation at all. It was Levi who defeated the Crimson Netherworld Sparrow alone.

Those conversations might have been subconsciously formed by Levi under the influence of the illusion, just like in the dream.

In short, Levi and Rose were forced to split into two groups. The Man-Faced Spider must have seen how powerful Levi's Death Ember Power was and knew that the Death Falls under its control could not defeat Levi. It was afraid that Levi would delay its plans.

This way, Levi was delayed in the botanic garden.

On the other hand, it was trying to bring Rose and the rest away through some method.

If Levi was not wrong, the ancient ruins that the Extreme Fire Ancestral Wizard had entered might be a branch under the Dreamland Steeple. It was very likely here.

He might have taken the hallucinatory potion and entered the Nightmare World on his own accord. Of course, judging from the white cocoon, he might have been dragged into the Nightmare World by the Man-Faced Spider. If it was the latter, it would be a little terrifying.