Chapter 80: Gold, Evil Spirit, Fist of the Empire! (2)

"Second, help me invite the Blacksmith Master Golden Warhammer Tyra, who appeared in Icewind City, to Montenegro City. It would be best if you asked him back before the other lords. A legendary Blacksmith Master is highly strategic to my plans. If he disagrees, kidnap him by force. Don't hurt his hands and feet. I have my ways to make him work for me.

"Third, go to Black Water Valley and visit my old friend's son, Baron Levi. He has given me many surprises during this period. I want to know what happened to this child. If he is already dead, then forget it.

"Finally, for this operation, don't bring anyone else. Just go outside and find some mercenaries," said the Duke of Montenegro.

"Yes, sir. I will not fail you!"

Sharktooth Knight turned around and left to prepare for the long journey.

He had advanced to a grand knight last year. He was the secret trump card of the Duke of Montenegro and had been hidden for many years!

The Duke of Montenegro was most at ease when he was the one to act.

They rode their horses and carried sufficient supplies, heading towards the Tuva Empire.

Levi had informed Fred in advance about his departure this time, so he was not worried that Fred would worry about him at home.

A month later, at the end of the Month of Wheatfield, they finally arrived at a city in the Tuva Empire, Kara City.

However, he heard from Doug that no ambergris existed in Cara City. They had to go to the Sacred City of Lantis by the sea if they wanted ambergris.

That was the capital of the Tuva Empire, the most fertile land. Ambergris was not the most valuable treasure in there.

This piqued Levi's interest, and they traveled for another half a month. They finally arrived at the Tuva Empire's Sacred City of Lantis at the end of the Month of Harvest.

"Sigh, it's inconvenient to travel in this Otherworld."

On the way, Levi's Raging Bull Breathing Technique was almost at Level 4, the Giant Rhinoceros Breathing Technique's progress bar was more than half full, and the Man-Faced Spider Breathing Technique was getting closer to Level 5.

Soon, a new batch of breathing techniques would be cultivated to their maximum levels. Levi was gratified..
