Chapter 803: Divine Weapon Family, Panel Interface Changes! (2)

In the following days, Levi would pay attention to the changes in the Crimson Dragon Slash every day.

This feeling was like being pregnant for ten months. This feeling of growing up together was not bad.

Apart from cultivating, Levi began to record the process of forging and refining divine weapons.

At the same time, Levi also started deciphering the crimson runes on the Crimson Emperor Dragon Totem of the Crimson Dragon Slash Sword.

These runes were not created by Levi. He felt that... they should have existed. They were runes hidden in the Crimson Emperor Dragon's bloodline.

After preliminary research, Levi discovered that these runes might be the key to the transcendent power of the Crimson Emperor Dragon.

He temporarily called them Bloodline Runes.

To a certain extent, these bloodline runes were similar to the genes of his previous life.

By arranging these bloodline runes in a suitable way, they might be able to produce an effect similar to that of spells.

If he could decipher it, perhaps he could integrate the bloodline runes with the wizard's spell runes and form his own "Levi's unique path of knights and wizards".

Time was like an arrow, and the sun and moon were like shuttles.

In the blink of an eye, half a year had passed.

Holy Brilliance Calendar Year 1098, Month of Beginning.

Levi's compilation of knowledge on the Divine Weapon system was also completed.

In front of Levi were three specially-made books.

Primary Understanding of Bloodline Divine Weapons, Primary Understanding of Bloodline Runes, Introduction to Bloodline Dharma Body.

These three books were Levi's summary and summary of some of his insights on knight cultivation over the years, and then formed a systematic knowledge system.

Among them, the Introduction to the Bloodline Dharma Body was some adjustments and modifications to the previous Black Devil Blade. With Levi's current Black Devil Blade realm, he could analyze the first stage of this dual cultivation technique that fused spirit and bloodline in his own way.

This technique had a high threshold because not only did it require the bloodline power in one's body, but it also required one's spiritual force. It was destined to be an elite technique that only a few people could cultivate.

The entry-level content was divided into three levels.

The first and second levels were Blood Qi Outburst and Blood Qi Separation respectively. It required the cultivation of a grand knight and relatively outstanding mental strength. Generally speaking, the level of low-level apprentice wizards was the best.

Originally, the Black Devil Blade Technique contained Black Gas Outburst and Black Gas Separation. Now, it seemed that blood qi was more suitable than black gas.

Previously, due to the limitations of a knight's vision, they could only see the appearance. They called the black strength born after advancing to a knight black gas.

However, in fact, after legendary, the strength was no longer purely black. It could be said that every breathing technique had its own color label.

Blood qi referred to the strength stimulated by bloodline power and relied on the physical body. The more bloodline power a knight had, the purer their blood qi would be!

The first two levels were the most basic use of blood qi, it was not difficult.

Starting from the third level, he began to condense the Bloodline Dharma Body with his heart as the foundation. This Bloodline Dharma Body was different from Levi's current one. It was only the lowest level and probably had the outline of a Bloodline Dharma Body.

At this stage, a mid-level apprentice wizard's spiritual force level was needed, which was only 5 points of spiritual force. It was not a problem for a legendary knight to cultivate. After all, there was a certain requirement for spiritual force to break through the key point of legendary.

Levi had only written three levels of this book. After that, not many people in the entire Twilight Knights could reach it. They could not learn it even if they made it up.

Hence, Levi was not worried that the Church's disciples would starve their masters to death. With the panel, no one else could catch up to him.

His current bloodline avatar should be at the sixth level.

Levi—

Bloodline Dharma Body: Level 6 (37,890/40,000)

After Levi gave birth to the Divine Weapon, he realized that he seemed to have the right to change the name of the skill on the panel.

Therefore, in order to be appropriate, he changed the original Black Devil Blade to Bloodline Dharma Body.

However, the cultivation of the Bloodline Dharma Body became more and more difficult. Even Levi could not break through to level 7.

Other than the “Introduction to the Bloodline Dharma Body” book, the other two books were about the analysis of the Bloodline Divine Weapon and Bloodline Runes.

The threshold for these two was even higher. Without reaching the Blood Source realm, it was impossible to understand them.

Hence, Levi’s compilation was mainly for his revision. It was still too early for the other members to reach this realm.

He planned to place the Introduction to the Bloodline Dharma Body book in the Twilight Knights after returning to the human world for the core members to cultivate.

After coming out of seclusion, Levi received a few messages in the mailbox of the wizard tower.

"Pfft, you're here to cut leeks again. Earning the money of commoner wizards like us? No way!"

Levi destroyed the message.

Levi looked at Algerta, who was practicing her sword, and felt that it was better to be a beautiful, adorable, and natural white wolf girl who had no plastic surgery.

The last letter was from the Rose Witch. There was a pink rose painted on the letter.

The letter said that the Letney Family was currently investigating the cause of Lehger Leo's death. They suspected that Lady Whitewater had murdered her husband, so they were now looking for her.
