Chapter 808: Crimson Dragon Slays the Heavens! (1)

Endless Sea.

In the inner sea region, on a deserted island.

Underground, there was a simple cave abode. Simple arrays were set up around it.

Lady Whitewater was meditating.

Suddenly, beads of sweat appeared on her forehead, and she suddenly woke up.

After waking up, she panted heavily, her chest heaving as if she had just experienced some kind of nightmare.

"Even meditation is affected now..." Lady Whitewater muttered to herself.

Just now, when she was meditating, she dreamed of the strange world with cracks in the dark red sky and flowing magma.

"Nightmare..."

She did not expect that the power from that strange existence would be so lingering.

At first, she only had nightmares when she slept, and it was difficult for her to wake up from them.

Later, she used meditation as a substitute for sleep and finally avoided nightmares.

Just as she thought that everything was over, even her meditation would fall into a nightmare.

Lady Whitewater was about to go crazy.

She took the calming medicine and stood on the deserted island. She looked at the blue sky and despair and helplessness filled her heart.

In the clouds high in the sky.

The Flying Shark tore through the air.

It had been two months since Levi had left Nether Capital.

He returned to the inner sea region.

However, before leaving the human world, he still had to make a trip to the Yellow Earth Continent.

He wanted to see if Dinos had broken through the legendary barrier.

At Lion King City on the Yellow Earth Continent.

When Levi's figure descended, Lyon immediately sensed it.

"Sir Levi, are you looking for Dinos?" Lyon asked.

Levi nodded.

Not long after, Dinos appeared in front of Levi excitedly.

"Senior, I've broken through the legendary barrier."

"Well done, it seems like you have been working hard in your cultivation. I know a place that is suitable for you to cultivate the path of knights. If you are interested, I can bring you there." Levi said.

Dinos readily agreed. In the Wizard World, other than Emperor Mu, he had no one to communicate with.

Now that Emperor Mu was nowhere to be found, he was even more lonely.

Dinos looked at Lyon and said solemnly, "Father, I'm going to cultivate with Sir Levi."

Old Golden Lion smiled. "Go ahead. Just come home often when you have time."

Originally, Old Golden Lion wanted Dinos to inherit the family business, but now it seemed that he could not count on Dinos. Dinos was obsessed with knight cultivation.

Fortunately, he had enough children and did not lack heirs.

As for the Giant Tree Secret Realm, Levi did not go there again. Ms. Marlene and the others would probably not leave the Wizard World for the time being.

In short, at this stage, the human world was not a suitable place for wizards to cultivate.

Inside the Flying Shark, Dinos observed the interior of the airship and said, "Senior, your airship is really good. Tell me the price and I'll give up."

"I don't know the price. Someone gave it to me."

"Well, if only I had friends like that."

The outer sea region, Area 9.

In Black Crow Tower of the Black Fire Island.

The fourth-circle senior wizard, Black-Eyed Crow Modi, was a powerhouse ranked eighth on the Dark List.

This place was heavily guarded. There were six Third-Circle Wizards alone.

With this powerful force, Modi became the ruler of Area 9.

On the top floor of the Black Crow Tower, Modi was chatting with another Fourth-Circle Wizard.

This dark wizard's name was Otacílio. He was a member of the high-level dark wizard organization Immersed Ancient Castle and was ranked tenth on the Dark List in the outer sea region.

Immersed Ancient Castle was also an ancient dark wizard organization. Their base was located in a bottomless abyss somewhere in the Endless Sea. It was said that there was an ancient city that was drowned there.

Otacílio looked at Modi with a calm gaze, but he was secretly looking forward to it.

"Sir Modi didn't lie to me, right? Did you really obtain a Truth Oddity?"

"Otacílio, we're old friends. Why would I lie to you? Look..."

At some point, a small blue water dragon had appeared in Modi's hand. At a glance, it seemed to be formed from ordinary spells.

However, if one took a closer look, they would discover that the water dragon's body contained extremely rich elemental power and some traces of charm that contained the truth of the world. After looking at it for a long time, it was as if one was immersed in a turbulent water world.

"It's indeed a Truth Oddity. Sir Modi, name a price. I'm here to buy it sincerely. You're from the Burning Faction. No matter how good this Truth Oddity is, it probably won't be of much use to you," Otacílio said.

"I heard that you obtained the Wizard Tool of that wizard family in the battle against a wizard family some time ago. If my information is correct, that Wizard Tool should be from the Burning Faction..." Modi said with a smile.

"You even know this? As expected of the Black-Eyed Crow..." Otacílio frowned.

He thought for a moment and said, "That's right. I did obtain a fifth-circle Wizard Tool."

With a wave of his hand, a circular Wizard Tool appeared in midair and slowly spun.

This Wizard Tool was like a long flame snake with its head and tail connected. As soon as it appeared, it made the Modi wizard tower emit a scorching heat.

"Hehe, this is the precious treasure of the Cartier wizard family, the fifth-circle Wizard Tool, the Fire Ouroboros. Why? Do you want to use that wizard item to exchange for my fifth-circle Wizard Tool?" Otacílio said in a low voice.

Modi nodded. "You're from the Ocean Faction, so you can't use this Wizard Tool. You can only sell it for money. Instead of that, let's make a deal. It's the best of both worlds."
