Chapter 832: Sauron's Legacy, Knights of the Round Table! (6)

The Blood Knight pushed open the door of the castle and saw a familiar figure at the round table in the living room.

"Commander? What's going on?" The Blood Knight asked in shock.

"Wait, an illusion. This must be an illusion attack from an evil spirit!" The Blood Knight seemed to understand something. He drew his sword and slashed at Levi.

Levi did not resist.

The Blood Knight's sword passed through his body.

"It's not an illusion. I pulled you here. I'm Levi." Levi smiled bitterly.

It seemed that this scene had exceeded the Blood Knight's understanding.

"Come and sit here." Levi pointed at the seat beside the Blood Knight.

The Blood Knight hesitated for a moment and sat on it.

"This is the Twilight Round Table. It's a treasure that allows me to communicate with you from afar. I'm currently in a faraway place and not in the human world. Your current location should be safe, right? Because your consciousness is temporarily connected to this treasure, your main body should be staying in place," Levi said.

He changed the name of the "Teatime Round Table" to "Twilight Round Table".

It was his first time using it, so he was still not familiar with it.

"I'm safe now. Why is this treasure so magical? commander, where are you now?"

"I'm in an alternate plane. It won't be long before we meet again. Don't run around in the human world during this period of time. Prepare to return to the Dusk Holy Temple," Levi said.

"Alright, I'm indeed planning to go back. I found a place in the Gaia Kingdom. It's suspected to be the territory of a wizard from the School of Death. He set up an array here and imprisoned the souls of some dying people in the city. It breeds resentment, as if he's refining some terrifying monster."

"It has nothing to do with us. Don't worry about it for the time being. The Church will naturally arrange for people to settle it. We've already done everything that the Church has to do. What do we need them for?" Levi said.

"I understand." The Blood Knight nodded.

Before long, another figure walked in.

"Commander? Blood Knight? Am I dreaming?" The Black Knight asked.

"Looks like you're scared too," the Blood Knight said with a smile.

"Black Knight, take a seat," Levi said.

The Black Knight consciously sat on the seat with his name written on it.

After that, the Golden Lion Knight, Divine Light Knight, and Knight Hogg also entered.

"Are there so many people?" Dinos exclaimed. This was the first time he had seen so many official members gathered together. He felt very curious.

Today, Levi was excluded.

Five official members had already arrived at the round table.

"Where's Teacher Emperor Mu?" Dinos asked.

"He might have something on. Wait for him. Before you guys enter this place, remember to find a safe place where no one will disturb you..." Levi said.

"Understood."

Seconds ticked by until the clock in the castle had been ticking for an hour.

Emperor Mu walked in with a tired and puzzled expression. It seemed like he had experienced a fierce battle.

"Emperor Mu, where are you now?" Levi asked.

"Commander? Is that you? Where are we?"

"This is Twilight Castle, where we meet," Levi explained.

"I was wondering why I kept hearing your voice. I thought I was dreaming about you..." Emperor Mu said.

"Dinos?"

"Emperor Mu, I've also broken through the legendary barrier."

"Have a seat first."

Levi asked Emperor Mu to sit in his exclusive seat.

"Now that the six official members of our Twilight Knights are all here, I know that you might have some doubts. I'll explain it to you later.

"To put it simply, I obtained a treasure that can pull your consciousness into this place and communicate with me face-to-face. However, before your consciousness enters this place, you have to ensure that you are in a safe place. Otherwise, you might be ambushed by the enemy.

"Therefore, we will hold a round table meeting once a year at a fixed time in the future. At that time, everyone can put aside what they are doing and come in to share and exchange their recent situation, as well as some information that might be closely related to our Twilight Knights. Of course, we can also discuss cultivation problems together.

"If there's an emergency, you can look for me. You just need to chant Mobius silently and you can contact me."

"There's such a magical treasure? Even in the Wizard World, it seems to be rare to see a communication Wizard Tool of this level." Emperor Mu clicked his tongue in wonder.

"Today's first meeting is mainly to pull everyone in and introduce them to each other. After all, ever since the establishment of the Twilight Knights, we have been separated from each other and rarely gather together," Levi said.

"I'll go first, I seem to have joined the last, all of you are my seniors... I'm Divine Light Knight Denise, I'm at the Blood Awakening realm now, I'm working hard to break the shackles, please take care of me in the future." Divine Light Knight Denise smiled, she was confident and generous.

"Let me add, Denise is the princess of the current royal family of the Peacock Kingdom..." The Blood Knight smiled.

"I'm just a princess of a mortal country. To everyone, this is not worth mentioning," Denise said with a smile.

"Denise, your initials are the same as mine. I'm Dinos... Dinos Jostar. I came back from the Wizard World. I'm the descendant of the Lionheart Knight." Dinos looked at Denise. It was his first time seeing a female legendary knight. He couldn't help but take a second look. It was a completely different feeling from the witches in the Wizard World...

"Hello, Sir Dinos. Everyone knows the name of your ancestor, the Lionheart Knight." Denise was surprised. She felt that this organization was more and more extraordinary.

"I didn't expect to already have a female knight... I thought Elsa would be the first female knight." Emperor Mu said.

"Elsa? Goddess Knight Elsa? Are you with her?" Levi asked.

"Yes, I'm in the Realm of Ice now. I followed the army to participate in the war to assist the School of Ice. I bumped into Elsa while carrying out a mission. I even introduced the organization to her. She's just waiting to pass your assessment."

"Why did you go there? I heard from the Jostar Family that you went to Area 7 in the inner sea region..."

"It's a long story... I accidentally killed a profligate wizard's disciple who was looking for trouble in Area 7. Who would have thought that he was from the Fifth-Circle Wizard family... I was worried that I would be caught after the incident, so I ran to the Realm of Ice in advance... Commander, you really can't blame me for this. That wizard is too much. I just broke through the legendary barrier and my hands are itching again..." Emperor Mu said helplessly.

"I understand. Just follow your heart and don't cause trouble. However, you can't be too afraid of trouble. When it's time to attack, attack. Only when your thoughts are clear can you forward... By the way, what's the name of that wizard family?" Levi asked.

"Thunder Dragon Family."

Levi was speechless. It was no wonder they were so close.
