

Wizard 839

Chapter 839: Nightmare Dragon! (1)

Holy Brilliance Calendar Year 1105, Month of Winter.

At the end of the new year.

The human world also became more unstable.

In the territory of the Gaia Kingdom, which was adjacent to the Peacock Kingdom, there was a city that had been abandoned because of the plague and war.

A mysterious figure who called herself “Madam Ghost” established the kingdom of evil spirits in the human world here. The area within a thousand miles turned into a restricted area. Ghosts and evil spirits grew inside, and even grand knights would die if they entered.

After the Church of Earth sent the saints to crusade but to no avail, it was said that Saint Teresa personally went there. The outcome was unknown. In short, the Spectre Kingdom still existed.

There were rumors that Madam Ghost had used countless ghosts and evil spirits to refine a terrifying evil spirit. Even saints could not defeat it and could only acquiesce to Madam Ghost’s existence.

This rumor was vehemently denied by the Church of Earth. There was no enemy that saints couldn’t defeat. But what was the explanation for the kingdom of ghosts that existed in the human world?

Of course, to ordinary people, if the Church said no, then there was no. If there was, there was no...

The other countries were not much better than the Gaia Kingdom.

For example, in the Molten Kingdom's Skyfire City, someone saw an incomparably majestic God in the night sky. A flaming red bird with wings that blotted out the sky was battling an old man whose entire body seemed to be formed from inextinguishable flames. Under the illumination of the flames, the night was as bright as day. The entire Skyfire City was enveloped in a white barrier of light.

Later on, someone insider revealed that the firebird was the culprit who caused the Tuva Empire to experience the fire and drought some time ago.

After he was defeated by the Storm Saint Groudon, he escaped without a trace and reappeared in the Molten Kingdom, trying to steal a Sealing Sacred Object of the Church of Eternity in Skyfire City.

It was rumored that there was an inextinguishable wisp of divine fire in the Sealing Sacred Object. This was the most important sacred object of the Church of Eternity.

After that battle, the Church of Eternity entered a state of martial law and searched the world for the Crimson Flame Firebird.

Unfortunately, the Crimson Flame Firebird had vanished without a trace.

There were countless things in the human world, and they were complicated.

Every day, new changes were happening.

Constellation Empire.

The Church of the Stars' Falling Stars Divine Mountain.

The night here was filled with stars, fireflies dotted the wilderness, and insects chirped, making it even quieter.

The color was like the starry sky of the Church of the Stars.

At the highest point of the church, on the dome of the Gothic-style building in the center.

A young girl who wore a starry gauze dress had delicate features and looked very comfortable was currently sitting lazily here. She hugged her knees and looked up at the starry sky.

"Cultivation is boring. The human world is getting more and more exciting."

Estella absorbed the power of the stars.

"I wonder how strong that old man Groudon is now. Could he have broken through again? I can't be left too far behind by others..."

Also, I don't know where that strange person from before went. Could it be that he's hiding in the Wizard World and doesn't dare to come back... What happened to working together?"

Previously, Estella had also gone to the island where she had seen the strange person. However, other than some knights, she did not see the strange person, so she left.

Judging from the knight organization established by the strange man, he was ambitious and had such strength.

This made Estella look forward to working with him even more.

After all, it was better to cooperate with a secret organization established by a mortal than with those competitive peers with ulterior motives.

Among the Seven Gods, the Lord of the Stars was the most unique. He had no faction, no allies, and was mysterious.

Unlike the Heavenly Father and the Mother of Earth, who were always on the same side and could be said to be an adulterous couple from the astral world.

"I wonder how long the Mortal Barrier can last... Sigh, why are there so many troublesome things in this world?"

Estella murmured. Unknowingly, she was lying on her side on the dome, asleep under the starry night...

On Dusk Island, in the Extreme Path Palace.

Inside Levi's body, the Sky Nightmare that looked like a black fog was mutating and fusing with a seven-colored fog-like dragon.

This fog-like dragon was Levi's Dream Dragon Seed.

Seconds ticked by.

When the final fusion was completed, the original Sky Nightmare and Dream Dragon had already disappeared. In their place was a black dragon that was as black as ink. Its dragon wings were shattered and it emitted a terrifying aura.

The dragon's eyes were indifferent, as if they contained a strange world of red and black.

He opened the proficiency panel.

Levi—

Nightmare Dragon Breathing Technique: Level 12 (1/400,000). Special Effect: Nightmare Perception (Level 4), Danger Perception, Nightmare Traveler, Heavenly Wind Heart.

Other than Danger Perception and Heavenly Wind Heart that did not change, Levi's original level 3 Intuition had advanced to Level 4 Nightmare Perception, while Nightmare Walker had advanced to Nightmare Traveler.

Compared to Intuition, Nightmare Perception added the Sixth Sense—the Heart Sense to his original five senses of sight, hearing, smell, taste, and touch.

Heart Sense could see through illusions and nightmare spells. Unless one's realm was much higher than Levi's, ordinary illusions could not confuse them.

"If I had such a Special Effect when I entered the Dreamland Steeple secret realm, then no matter how strong the Man-Faced Spider is, its illusion ability shouldn't be able to affect me."