

Wizard 846

Chapter 846: Emperor's Wrath! (1)

The moment Storm Saint Groudon sensed that the [Mortal Barrier] was about to shatter...

In the Seven Kingdoms Continent, Estella, the black-veiled girl in the Church of Stars, Dragon, the dignified young man in the Dragon King Mountain, and the saints relying on their special Strength, all of them perceived and felt this.

In Heavenly Mountain, Ye Lin frowned. The Saint had never seen the saint in this state. He asked, "Saint, what's the matter?"

"The Mortal Barrier has been broken... You should immediately go to the Church of Earth and inform Mother Terri to prepare to join forces. The Seven Kingdoms Continent will be in great turmoil soon. According to my calculations, it shouldn't be broken so quickly... This dark turmoil is too sudden," said Ye Lin.

The Saint's expression changed, and six wings of light spread out behind him.

"I'll go now!"

Looking at the Saint's disappearing figure, Ye Lin closed his eyes.

"From the appearance of the giant flaming bird to the sudden shattering of the Mortal Barrier...All of this had happened so suddenly that it did not conform to the development pattern of the Dark Wave Revival. Could it be that there is a mastermind behind all of this? No matter what, we have to prepare for the worst."

Ye Lin sighed inwardly. The worst-case scenario he mentioned was that the foundation of the Church of Holy Light's faith in Nora would be completely gone. From then on, the Heavenly Father would lack an important place of faith.

In the outer sea region.

The Rose Witch hovered in front of the invisible curtain, looking at the burning golden flames with a solemn expression.

Balzan and Orlov also had ugly expressions.

"That flaming divine bird flew to the other side. D*mn it!" Barzan cursed.

"That flaming divine bird is no longer important. It knows that we want to take the divine fire from its body, so after it hit the barrier and was bounced back, it chose to burn the divine fire and try to escape."

"Unexpectedly, when the divine fire encountered the barrier, it was as if it had encountered fuel and quickly burned... Speaking of which, we seem to have caused a big mess," Orlov said slowly.

"This is not an ordinary barrier. This is the [Mortal Barrier]. Back then, the gods and the wizard civilization led by Sauron had an earth-shattering divine war."

"In that battle, the gods had used up the divine power source they had accumulated over countless years to forcefully project their Strength from the astral world onto Nola."

"That was the true [God's Incarnation], and you could understand it as the [God of the Earth]. It was not something that the current [Saint's Incarnation] could compare to."

"In addition, the angels under the gods also relied on the astral world opened by the gods to descend on Nora."

"That was the first bloody battle that the wizard civilization had experienced. After that battle, the ancient continental plates shattered, and as the oceans drifted, the crystal walls of the Nora planes were riddled with holes. More than half of the creatures were extinct, and it could be said to be the largest extinction event in the history of Nora."

"Some wizards called it the [First Life Catastrophe] or the [Ancient Cataclysm]."

"In the end, the gods' incarnations and angels that descended were all killed, but the wizard civilization also suffered heavy losses and was unable to deal with a new round of divine wars."

"After that battle, the gods seemed to have reached some agreement with Sauron. The wizards chose to avoid the world, and the gods would not interfere with the wizard's practice."

"However, the current Nora was already riddled with holes. Elemental power had spread to the Land of Darkness and the sub-dimensional portal outside the crystal wall... Nora, the place where wizards would die."

"Therefore, the wizards entered the sub-dimensional portal to cultivate, and the gods and Sauron used the divine power of the gods as the foundation and Sauron's supreme legendary forbidden technique as the structure. They chose a relatively complete continent from the broken Nora plane and circled it as the place where the gods preached, and also the cradle of the wizards."

"Doesn't that mean that from now on, the vast land outside the Mortal Barrier will be eroded by the Strength of the Land of Darkness outside the plane?" Orlov asked.

"Yes. Now that the planes are converging, the Nora plane is being affected by the gravitational force of the converging planes. Under this turbulence, the Mortal Barrier is already in danger... And this damn divine bird used the divine fire in the sealed sacred object to ignite the divine power contained in it... You can imagine the consequences." The Rose Witch looked at the devastated world behind the barrier and blamed herself.

"So what if it's broken? Anyway, the Seven Kingdoms Continent is intact. Moreover, the plane itself has the ability to heal itself. One day in the future, it will heal." Barzan said, clearly unconcerned.

"The time taken for the plane to heal itself is too long... Moreover, the world outside the barrier is not without life. After the mass extinction, there must have been some living beings that survived and reproduced until now. These living beings had been exposed to the corrosive power of the Land of Darkness for a long time, and they either died or those who survived must have mutated to become extremely powerful... The other side of the barrier is full of unknowns. It's best if we don't rashly step in. You can come to the Shining Tavern to settle your payment later." After the Rose Witch finished speaking, she cast a flying spell and flew toward the mainland.

Orlov and Balzan looked at each other and began to turn back.

In the dark land outside the barrier, the fifth-grade Fire Elemental Spirit's body was smaller than before, and its aura was extremely weak.

It looked at the retreating wizards with eyes full of hatred.