Chapter 852: How to Transcend the Bloodline Path? (1)

The Ancient Saint plane.

Levi was already waiting on the throne as he watched the Ancient Saints return.

"Lord, we've already killed the otherworldly demon," Ancient Saint Skybreaking said.

"All of you can go back. Skybreaking will stay," Levi said calmly.

"Alright, Lord Ancient Saint." The other Ancient Saints retreated.

"There's still a demonic mark in your body. Stand there and don't move." Levi's arm turned into a blood fog with a bang and fused into Ancient Saint Skybreaking's body.

The next moment, a mini spectre was pulled out by Levi.

"Leon, it's time for some snacks," Levi said.

Leon appeared from the shadows and devoured the mini spectre in Levi's hand.

At the same time, in the Gaia Kingdom.

In the Spectre Kingdom, Madam Ghost's expression changed as she tried to use a secret technique to find the culprit on the throne of bones.

"It can actually discover and destroy the ghost mark I left behind? Damn it, the clues and traces are all gone now." Madam Ghost cursed silently.

She remembered that Barzan had previously said that he had accepted the request of the old woman Rosa Witch. That old woman must have known the cause of Barzan's death.

No matter what, she had to investigate so that the person from the Spirit Catcher Steeple wouldn't nag.

With this thought in mind, a spectre crawled out of her body and blended into the shadows, disappearing into the night.

A few days later, a carriage was leisurely moving along a small road in the countryside.

In the carriage, Lady Rosa, who was wearing a gorgeous palace dress, was staring blankly at the scenery outside the window.

Suddenly, she frowned and turned to look at a corner of the carriage.

There was nothing there.

"Since you're here, stop hiding. I've heard of your methods," Lady Rosa said coldly.

"Heh, old woman, you're quite leisurely..."

"Aren't you over 400 years old?"

"Let me ask you, how did Barzan die?" Madam Ghost asked.

"Barzan is dead?" the Rosa Witch asked, obviously surprised.

"Stop pretending. This matter has something to do with you," Madam Ghost said.

"I really don't know," the Rosa Witch said without changing her expression.

"As long as you tell me the murderer, the Spirit Catcher Steeple won't pursue this matter." Madam Ghost was certain that the Rosa Witch knew.

"I don't know. How can I tell you?"

"Then you don't want to talk about it? You didn't do it, did you?"

"Think whatever you want," Lady Rosa said coldly. She was also angry.

"I understand. Rosa, you might have been in the human world for too long and thought that you could fight the Spirit Catcher Steeple with just a Flower Witch. You..."

"Get lost!" The Rosa Witch shouted angrily, her eyes shining. Under such an attack, the ghost that Madam Ghost used to pass on the message instantly turned into ashes.

"Sure enough, being weak will only make others push their luck. He's just a Fifth-Circle Wizard, yet he's using the organization to threaten me." The Rosa Witch had a complicated look in her eyes.

She still had unrealistic fantasies about some people and organizations. She thought that if she didn't provoke them and tolerated them, she could avoid trouble.

However, the reality was that in this world, there was no logic to speak of. Those who thought that they had strength could bully the weak without restraint.

After the Wizard Council was established, the situation improved. However, under the law, darkness existed and was difficult to eliminate.

Now that the flames of war were continuous, order only existed in name.

For example, Barzan and Madam Ghost were people who had given up their bottom line... Without the constraints of the parliament, the chaotic situation of the strong preying on the weak would repeat itself.

"Barzan is dead... No way, does that kid also have a big organization behind him? But if there is a big organization, why is he so careful? Is it completely the doing of some wild wizards who are treading on thin ice, or is it someone else who killed Barzan?"

While Rosa Witch was deep in thought, the carriage disappeared into the wilderness.

Meanwhile, in the Spectre Kingdom, Madam Ghost woke up from her throne with a gloomy expression. Countless ghosts surrounded her and she was trembling under her anger.

"Old woman!"

Time flew, and another three years passed in the human world in the blink of an eye.

To the mortals in the mortal world, even if the Mortal Barrier was broken, it had little to do with them. They were still kept in the dark by the Church.

After the saints of the church went to the distant outer sea region to take a look, they also shook their heads.

The gap was getting bigger and bigger. It was impossible to make up for it with the power of a saint. Besides, it was useless to make up for it.

The convergence of the Heavenly Spheres this time had an unprecedented power of plane turbulence. Even if it didn't break now, it might break in a few decades or a hundred years.

What he should consider now was how to deal with those malicious existences in the Forsaken Land of the God.

They had survived tenaciously in that devastated land of darkness until now. Because of the pollution of unknown forces, they were already different from ordinary living beings.

They were even more tyrannical and treacherous. Perhaps some dark wizards could be considered kind compared to them.

However, so far, there did not seem to be any people sneaking in through the gap. However, this was not enough to make people feel at ease. Instead, it felt like the silence before a storm.

In the past three years, the Dusk Holy Temple had been developing as usual. Kelvin Silver Mountain had also become a legendary knight last year. His legendary title was "Silver Dragon Knight".

As such, there were already seven official members of the Dusk Holy Temple, excluding Levi.

In addition to Kelvin, there was also a seed that could be called “half-legendary”. Levi had high hopes for him, but when he broke through to become a legendary knight, he went crazed and suffered a bloodline backlash. Although he did not become a Lunatic Knight, it was difficult for him to advance to the legendary level again.
