Chapter 854: How to Transcend the Bloodline Path? (3)

This undoubtedly caused a huge uproar in the Wizard World.

In addition, Deep Blue Sage of the Sky City, who was supposed to return, had yet to return.

Many wizards were led astray and believed the rumors.

The denouncement of the Deep Blue Sage continued. Under the pressure of everyone's words, the Endless Sea was under immense pressure.

After all, the Deep Blue Sage was a giant of the Ocean School of Thought and had also started from the Endless Sea.

As the hometown of the Deep Blue Sage, this place was naturally controversial.

Most wizards in the Endless Sea, including many dark wizards, firmly supported Deep Blue Sage. They felt that with Deep Blue Sage's character, such a situation would not happen.

The Deep Blue Sage's supporters and the detractors from other regions started a public debate.

In the Giant Tree Secret Realm, old Marlene silently ground the potion powder and studied her potion as she listened to the rumors outside.

"Teacher, you're too despicable! These people have completely forgotten that it was the Deep Blue Sage who defeated the evil god. If the Deep Blue Sage wanted to betray the wizard civilization, he could have submitted to the more powerful Lord of Chaos and asked the Lord of Chaos to hold a God-granting Ceremony for him. From then on, he would have ignited his divine fire, occupied the astral world with his divine persona, and become an immortal god. Why did he submit to that unreliable Abyss Lord?"

Winnie, who had just advanced to the second-circle, said indignantly, "If they want to talk, let them. We can't control their mouths. I believe in the Tower Master and the Deep Blue Sage," Marlene said expressionlessly.

"Sigh, when will the Tower Master come back..." At the mention of the Tower Master, Winnie also became listless. Without the Tower Master's organization, she always felt that it was less fun.

When Herman left the Wizard World, he did not leave a soul token in the Gray Tower, so until now, no one knew if he was dead.

This was also why he wanted Marlene and the others to have hope. Otherwise, when they saw the Tower Master's soul shatter one day, they would probably be sad. If they didn't see the soul token shatter, they wouldn't die...

On an island in the Star Sea.

This was once a Nameless Island, but it was now called Starfire Island.

A faction that was like a spark stood here.

Starfire Wizard Academy.

The academy's architectural style was simple and grand. There were no traditional wizard towers or fancy buildings. There were only various teaching buildings, laboratories, and other divisions.

Wizard Xavier walked on the path of the academy with a smile on his face. As an associate professor of the academy's weapon-making department, he had a decent income. In addition, the academy would provide him with a certain amount of financial support to study new Wizard Tools.

A slim wizard in a blue windbreaker robe came up to them. When he saw Xavier, he said in fear, "Good morning, Sir Xavier."

"Good morning, Sir Newt. Have you finished your appraisal class?"

"Yes, yes. I'm going to see a friend."

"What friend? Hehehe, it's your wife, right?"

"Let's not talk about it anymore... I'm leaving."

On a training ground in the academy, Newt and the Rose Witch were leaning against each other, looking at the young apprentices training in front of them.

"You seem to have something on your mind all these years? Although I'm not good with words, I can feel it..." Newt suddenly asked.

"My dear, if one day I disappear from this world... what will you do?"

"I'll look for you. If you're alive, I want to see you. If you're dead, I want to see your corpse."

"Pfft, you really know how to talk." Rose looked into the distance. Ever since the Whitewater Witch died, she had been living in uneasiness.

The nightmare followed her like a shadow. There were a few times when she almost couldn't wake up from her meditation.

Therefore, she simply stopped meditating and sleeping. She relied on the potion to survive.

However, she did not know how long she could last under such circumstances.

"My dear, I might be in trouble..." After thinking for a while, Rose told Newt the truth.

Upon hearing this, Newt fell into deep thought. "Is it Nightmares?"

"Yes, the Nightmare World does exist. Whitewater died there... But Master hasn't returned yet, and I don't know how to solve it. I've never been so helpless since I was young. When I was young, I was so naïve that I thought that becoming an omnipotent wizard could solve all the difficulties in this world with magical spells..." Rose told him everything that troubled her. She had only told Levi about these things, but Levi was also helpless. She knew that Newt definitely couldn't do anything, but she had to at least let him know these things.

Just as the two of them were chatting.

All of a sudden, the elemental power in the entire Starfire Wizard Academy began to go berserk. Then, the elemental power formed a vortex. The invisible power seemed to have a color and shape.

An elemental tornado connected the wizard academy to the sky.

This abnormality made the expressions of the teachers and students teaching or cultivating in the wizard academy change.

The two vice principals, Wizard Sparrow and Wizard Varil walked out of the classroom and looked at the sky.

"This... This is the overflowing spiritual power stirring the elemental power of this island. Someone is breaking through the primordial soul..."

"What? It can't be Lord Garcia, right?"

"It's possible. Lord Garcia said that he was going into seclusion. I didn't expect that he was going to break through to the primordial soul... Oh my god."

In an instant, groups of wizards looked at the center of the Starfire Wizard Academy.

Suddenly, a huge pearl shell-like phantom crossed the sky above the wizard academy.

"What is this? Could it be that it's not Lord Garcia? Is it some kind of transcendent creature hiding in our academy to break through?"
