Chapter 864: Sauron and His Fellows (2)

Hundred Flowers heaved a sigh of relief on a small village road a hundred miles away. The corners of her mouth curled up. "Although this world's spells are limited, it's not a problem to deal with you little fellows. Let me see what this technique of the Hidden Energy Sect is."

Hundred Flowers opened the crimson gourd. In an instant, a scene that looked like a wizard's image appeared before her.

She seemed to have passed through a beautiful river and mountain, a dense and towering bamboo forest, and at the top of a cliff waterfall hanging upside down, there was an ordinary-looking straw hut.

A bearman swordsman was practicing his swordplay on the cliff.

His every move was natural, as if it matched the principle of the integration of Heaven and man in this world.

As he danced with his sword, the red elemental power that represented fire began to gather around his body and gradually fuse into his body and his sword.

His upper body was bare, and behind him, the image of an Inferno Firebird that looked like the Undying Bird in myths and legends appeared.

At the same time, a loud voice sounded in Hundred Flowers' mind.

"When the world was first created, all things were chaotic. The Holy Emperor ruled the world and discussed the Dao with Extraordinary People. The Origin Qi could be divided into four elements to stabilize the Energy Sect's wondrous techniques. Those who were as scorching as wine were the Fire Energy Sect, those who were as steady as mountains were the Earth Energy Sect, those who were as good as clear springs were the Water Energy Sect, and those who became like flowing clouds were the Wind Energy Sect. The four elements gave birth to all things. They shook like spring lightning, were as dark as ice, were as green as wood, and were as firm as metal... No matter how many changes there were, they would not leave the sect. The four elements led to the Energy Sect in the world.

With the fall of the Holy Emperor, the four elements collapsed and the Origin Qi split into four and fell into the mortal world.

The Four Symbols Sect was formed from spirit, green mountains, clear springs, and flowing clouds.

"I am Chen, the last disciple of the Spirits Energy Sect. Since the fall of the Holy Emperor, the Energy Sect has declined. Fortunately, the treasures left behind by the Holy Emperor and the Outer Heaven Extraordinaire were able to protect the world from the outer realm calamity. However, the Extraordinaire's prophecy predicts that there will be calamities for the Panda Empire. The path to salvation lies with the Energy Sect.

"The strong have a stronger fist. I hope that the inheritor will take care of himself!"

After this slightly awkward voice, Hundred Flowers looked at the scene on the waterfall.

Black gas filled the sky. Then, an eight-armed Snake Demon that was dozens of meters tall and covered in scales descended from the sky. Behind it was a pitch-black abyssal well that led to an unknown place. In the huge well, an aura that even a primordial soul wizard like Hundred Flowers was afraid of vaguely leaked out.

"This is the Spirits Energy Sect's demon subduing technique—Vermillion Bird Burning Heaven Sword."

Boom!

The Inferno Firebird pattern that resembled the Undying Bird on the back of the bearman revived. It let out a clear cry that resounded through the world.

This sword move mobilized the power of heaven and earth. The flames were like a song, instantly setting the prairie ablaze.

The eight-armed Snake Demon, which was comparable to a Fifth-Circle Wizard, was devoured by the Vermillion Bird Burning Heaven Sword. It screamed and turned into nothingness.

"Tsk, tsk, tsk. I didn't expect that there would be someone in this unknown plane who could kill the eight-armed general."

An Abyss Lord with the aura of a primordial soul wizard opened up the sky and landed on the cliff.

In front of him, Chen was so small.

He looked at the otherworldly demon in despair. Killing the eight-armed Snake Demon had already made him use the strongest demon subduing technique of the Spirits Energy Sect.

He no longer had the strength to defeat an even stronger Demon King!

"Sage of the Spirits Energy Sect, it's my fault for being incompetent. My cultivation is still shallow and I can't protect this land," he said sadly.

At this moment, in the distant Central Plains.

A light that could pierce through the heavens and earth lit up in Four Symbols City.

The entire Panda Empire could see it.

The two phantoms seemed to have arrived at the bottom of the abyssal well in an instant.

One of them was a bearman, but he had the temperament of an otherworldly immortal, returning to his original state.

The other one made Hundred Flowers' expression change slightly.

"Sauron..."

This figure was wearing a white wizard robe. He was handsome and confident.

The bearman elder, who was the First Holy Emperor, looked at the Abyss Well. Around him were the phantoms of four giant beasts, including the Inferno Firebird.

"Four Symbols Heaven Splitting!"

Boom!

Spirits Qi, Steady Mountain Qi, Clear Springs Qi, and Flowing Cloud Qi—the combination of the four elements was the:

Heaven Splitting Origin Qi!

Four giant beast phantoms blasted into the Abyss Well!

The Abyss Lord disintegrated in shock and disappeared in the blink of an eye. Terrifying fluctuations entered the Abyss Well, and demons died amidst screams.

Until an even more terrifying Abyss Demon Lord that made Hundred Flowers tremble across time and space used its majestic body to block the attacks of the Four Symbols Beasts and protect the Abyss Well.

Thousands of black chains wrapped around its body, and on each chain were tens of thousands of dead Abyss Demons.

"The Lord of Chains, Flick, who killed tens of millions of demons in the Abyss, the supreme one among the chain demons... The top demon lord after the 600th level of the Abyss, comparable to a peak ninth-circle Grand Wizard, once killed a ruler of the Multidimensional Plane, and ate an angel alive during the Millennium Battle with the gods of the astral world..."

Hundred Flowers was shocked.

This terrifying existence had actually once invaded this seemingly incomparably weak world.

The Four Symbols Heaven Splitting Strike finally disappeared.

The old bearman looked at Sauron.

Sauron's expression was calm and his gaze was distant. He looked at the Lord of Chains and did not say anything.

"Even if you're a power projection left behind by a Legendary Wizard, I'm the Lord of Chains, the Abyss..."

Before the Lord of Chains could finish his sentence, his body began to disintegrate inch by inch, shattering like glass. The entire sky began to fill with cracks. The Abyss Well also began to collapse and completely disappear from the world.
