

Wizard 867

Chapter 867: Sauron and His Fellows (5)

"This is Madam Ye's Heart, a breakthrough potion that can help spiritual force liquefaction. It can increase the success rate of a third circle breaking through to the fourth circle by 30%. After our auction house's verification, it's a genuine potion. I'm sure most people sitting here tonight are here for this potion, right? I won't say much. The starting price is 200,000 Aether Stones, and each increment must be at least 500 Aether Stones."

With the appearance of this potion, the atmosphere of the entire auction instantly reached a climax.

"Two hundred and fifty thousand Aether Stones!"

A person in a golden lightning robe walked out of the private room.

"It's someone from the Letney family?"

"Yes, I think it's Jeffrey Leo Letney... Golden Thrower, Godfrey Letney's grandson."

"Are all big families so short of potions? Why are they fighting with ordinary wizards like us in the city..."

The people below the stage sighed.

This Wizard Jeffrey Leo deliberately came out of the private room and revealed his identity as a member of the Letney Family. His intentions were obvious.

Levi frowned slightly and was not in a hurry to bid. The Letney Family might be able to scare off some of the competitors by revealing their identities, but there were so many people. There were bound to be some who were bold.

"Forget it, it's fine as long as I can get 500,000 Aether Stones... If I die, my Lake Fairy Potion will only be sold for 100,000. It looks like Madam Ye's Heart Potion will increase by several times."

As expected.

After a while.

The price of Madam Ye's Heart reached 400,000 Aether Stones.

"Looks like there are quite a number of rich wizards in Nether Capital..." Levi felt that something was amiss.

"450,000!" Jeffrey Leo's expression was gloomy. He had underestimated the temptation of this potion to the wizards in Nether Capital.

In the corner, a Fifth-Circle Wizard wearing white bone wizard robes with a gloomy expression walked out of the private room and said, "Kid, don't fight with me. Your Letney family is so big. Do you still lack this potion?"

Jeffrey Leo looked at him and his expression changed slightly.

"Greetings, Senior Wildbone. However, I'm determined to obtain this potion. I hope you can fulfill my wish."

Although the Letney Family had a lot of resources, not every Third-Circle Wizard disciple could obtain something like a breakthrough potion.

One had to be the most outstanding among their peers to have a chance to obtain it. The competition in the family was quite intense.

In the previous family competition, Jeffrey Leo had lost to the fallen genius, Lehger Leo. After that guy obtained the breakthrough potion, he died mysteriously. Until now, they had not found any clues.

Unable to wait for the next family competition, Jeffrey Leo could only search for potions outside.

The Fifth-Circle Wizard in front of him was called Wildbone. He was a wizard from the School of Death and was quite famous in the Star Sea.

Even if Jeffrey Leo was from a big family, he did not want to offend such an expert easily.

"Then it's up to our capabilities," Wildbone said calmly. He was buying it for one of his blood relatives. If it was too expensive, it would not be worth it. That was why he had revealed his identity and tried to persuade Jeffrey Leo to leave.

Levi quietly watched as they raised the price to 530,000 Aether Stones.

"Crazy. I'd better continue waiting for the succubus."

There were too many things he needed to spend his money on. Anyway, he was still 10 to 20 years away from spiritual force liquefaction. There was no hurry.

In the end, it was still the Wizard Wildbone who won and took the potion.

Jeffrey Leo's expression was ugly. He had left before the auction ended.

Levi was slightly disappointed that he did not get the potion. He wished he could shout now, "Who the f*ck has the succubus breastmilk?"

"The last item is the inheritance book of an alchemy wizard called Lemay's Secret Workshop. According to our investigation, this is the most famous alchemy wizard in the Endless Sea 10,000 years ago, Nick Lemay's inheritance book. Because it was destroyed in the flames of war, part of the content of this inheritance book was missing. However, there are still more than 50 low-level alchemy blueprints, 10 third-circle alchemy blueprints, and three fourth-circle alchemy blueprints recorded on it.

If there are alchemy wizards present, they must not miss this inheritance. The starting price is 200,000 Aether Stones, and every increase in price must not be less than 500 Aether Stones.”

Levi, who was about to leave, sat back down.

"There's no such good thing in the intelligence... That's true. Most wizards are most concerned about the breakthrough potion. No matter what, we have to get this inheritance book.”

Levi did not reject any knowledge, especially such a systematic inheritance book.

He already had books like the Book of Cypher, the Book of Starforge Runes, and The Tomb of Fireflies. He was still short of an alchemy inheritance book.

The alchemy faction was very small. According to the Tower Master, the strongest people in this faction were only a few primordial soul wizards.

Therefore, very few wizards would choose to become alchemy wizards. They had no future and were wasting money...

Nick Lemay was one of the most famous existences in the history of alchemy wizards. He was an existence at the level of a primordial soul wizard when he was alive and had proposed many alchemy theories. The Tower Master admired him very much.

There were a few alchemy wizards or rich people who were interested in alchemy at the scene. They all began to bid.

Levi was not in a hurry. He would wait for them to raise the price to 370,000.

He made the final decision.

"Four hundred thousand."

In an instant, many gazes turned to Levi's private room.

Not many people in Nether Capital could fork out 400,000 Aether Stones.

"Anyone else?"

After a while, no one else bid.
